Contemporary Chinese Fiction Writers Laifong Leung, 2016-07-28 In the years since the death of Mao Zedong interest in Chinese writers and Chinese literature has risen significantly in the West In 2000 Gao Xingjian became the first Chinese writer to receive the Nobel Prize for Literature followed by Mo Yan in 2012 and writers such as Ha Jin and Da Sijie have also become well known in the West Despite this progress the vast majority of Chinese writers remain largely unknown outside of China This book introduces the lives and works of eighty contemporary Chinese writers and focuses on writers from the Rightist generation Bai Hua Gao Xiaosheng Liu Shaotang writers of the Red Guard generation Li Rui Wang Anyi Post Cultural Revolution Writers as well as others Unlike earlier works it provides detailed often first hand biographical information on this wide range of writers including their career trajectories major themes and artistic characteristics In addition to this each entry includes a critical presentation and evaluation of the writer's major works a selected bibliography of publications that includes works in Chinese works translated into English and critical articles and books available in English Offering a valuable contribution to the field of contemporary Chinese literature by making detailed information about Chinese writers more accessible this book will be of interest to students and scholars Chinese Literature Contemporary Literature and Chinese Studies The A to Z of Modern Chinese Literature Li-hua Ying, 2010-04-01 Modern Chinese literature has been flourishing for over a century with varying degrees of intensity and energy at different junctures of history and points of locale An integral part of world literature from the moment it was born it has been in constant dialogue with its counterparts from the rest of the world As it has been challenged and enriched by external influences it has contributed to the wealth of literary culture of the entire world In terms of themes and styles modern Chinese literature is rich and varied from the revolutionary to the pastoral from romanticism to feminism from modernism to post modernism critical realism psychological realism socialist realism and magical realism Indeed it encompasses a full range of ideological and aesthetic concerns The A to Z of Modern Chinese Literature presents a broad perspective on the development and history of literature in modern China It offers a chronology introduction bibliography and over 300 cross referenced dictionary entries on authors literary and historical developments trends genres and concepts that played a central role in the evolution of modern Chinese literature Modern Chinese Literary Thought Kirk A. Denton, 1996 This volume presents a broad range of writings on modern Chinese literature Of the fifty five essays included forty seven are translated here for the first time including two essays by Lu Xun In addition the editor has provided an extensive general introduction and shorter introductions to the five parts of the book historical background a synthesis of current scholarship on modern views of Chinese literature and an original thesis on the complex formation of Chinese literary modernity The collection reflects both the mainstream Marxist interpretation of the literary values of modern China and the marginalized views proscribed at one time or another by the

leftist canon It offers a full spectrum of modern Chinese perceptions of fundamental literary issues Encyclopedia of Contemporary Chinese Culture Edward Lawrence Davis, 2005 First Published in 2009 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company China Bibliography Harriet T. Zurndorfer, 2021-12-06 This volume serves as a guide to all facets of China study from advice on choosing an appropriate literary dictionary to finding the most recent yearbooks that offer statistical data about the contemporary economy China Bibliography does not restrict itself to one particular discipline but considers the development of Chinese civilization as a whole from its imperial beginnings to the present and therefore demonstrates how one would find information about Chinese history literature religion linguistics collectanea as well as present day PRC economic and political policies Because this book also explains how bibliographical data on China has accumulated over the last 300 years including within China itself it also may help the reader understand the significance of a particular type of reference work The Reading of Russian Literature in China M. Gamsa, 2010-05-24 This book traces the profound influence that Russian literature which was tied inseparably to the political victory of the Russian revolution had on China during a period that saw the collapse of imperial rule and the rise of the Communist Party The Chinese National Character Lung-Kee Sun, 2002 This unique survey of the evolution of the modern Chinese national character incorporates a rich blend of history and theory as well as nation gender and film studies It begins with the dawn of the concept of nation in China at the end of the Imperial period and follows its development from early Republican China to the present People s Republic drawing on themes of national identity Orientalness racial evolution and purity cultural and gender roles regional animosities historical impediments and more The book also takes up the changing American perceptions of Chinese personality development and gender using materials from American popular culture Hakka Chinese Confront Protestant Christianity, 1850-1900 Jessie G. Lutz, Rolland Ray Lutz, 1998-01-16 The Basil Society s China mission one of the more successful Protestant missions in the nineteenth century was distinguished by the fact that most of the initial proselytizing was conducted by Chinese converts in the interior rather than by Western missionaries in the treaty ports Thus the first viable protestant communities were not only established by Chinese evangelists they were established among an ethnic minority in south China the Hakka people The autobiographies of eight pioneer Chinese missionaries featured in this book offer an unusual opportunity to view village life and customs in Guangdong during the mid nineteenth century by providing details on Hakka death and burial rituals ancestor veneration lineages and lineage feuds geomancy the status of Hakka women widespread economic hardship and civil disorder They also illustrate the appeals of Christianity the obstacles to conversion and Chinese opposition to Christianity and Western missionaries The authors commentary addresses the issue of conversion which was fueled by individual desire for solace and salvation the building of a support community amid social chaos and the possibility of social mobility through education Despite an expanding role by Western missionaries the Chinese origins the rural interior locale and the status of the Hakka as a disadvantaged minority contributed to successive generations of Christian families and to early progress toward an autonomous Hakka church Hakka Chinese Confront Protestant Christianity, 1850-1900 Jessie Gregory Lutz, Rolland Ray Lutz, 2015-03-04 This work focuses on the 19th century mission conducted by Chinese evangelists among the Hakka an ethnic minority in south China The principal part of the text comprises the autobiographies of eight pioneer missionaries who offer insight into village life and customs of the Hakka people Third World Women's Literatures Barbara Fister, 1995-09-14 This reference volume serves as a companion to Third World women's literatures in English and in English translation by presenting entries on works writers and themes Entries are chosen to present a balance of well known writers and emerging ones contemporary as well as historical writers and representative selections of genres literary styles and themes What plays have been written by women in the developing world What books have been written by Sri Lankan or Brazilian women Which works address themes of feminism or exile or politics in the Third World These are the types of questions that can now be answered through Fister's companion to Third World women's literatures in English and English translation Organized alphabetically this reference volume presents entries on works writers and themes Entries are chosen to present a balance of well known writers and emerging ones contemporary as well as historical writers and representative selections of genres literary styles and themes By providing information about and leads to works by and about Third World women an important and largely marginalized literature Fister has created a unique reference tool that will help teachers scholars and librarians both public and academic expand their definitions of the literary making the voices of Third World women available in the same format in which many companions to Western literature do An important book for all public and college level libraries Biographical Dictionary of Chinese Women: v. 2: Twentieth Century Lily Xiao Hong Lee, 2016-07-08 The first biographical dictionary in any Western language devoted solely to Chinese women Biographical Dictionary of Chinese Women is the product of years of research translation and writing by scores of China scholars from around the world Volume II Twentieth Century includes a far greater range of women than would have been previously possible because of the enormous amount of historical material and scholarly research that has become available recently They include scientists businesswomen sportswomen military officers writers scholars revolutionary heroines politicians musicians opera stars film stars artists educators nuns and more Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e.g. the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers
