Photography and Cinema Teresa M. Flores, Joana Cunha Leal, Margarida Medeiros, 2015-09-18 Eclecticism seems to be one of the most recognized features of Chris Marker's work He is often presented as a filmmaker and a photographer a poet a translator a cartoonist a visual artist an editor a software designer and a television and video director Given the 50 years since the release of his most well known film La Jetée 1963 this volume fosters discussion of the intertwining of photography and cinema within a framework that analyses Marker's influence in film and photography's scholarship In the last ten years many books have been published on the subjects of photography and

Cinema and the Invention of Modern Life Leo Charney, Vanessa R. Schwartz, 2023-09-01 Casting aside the traditional conception of film as an outgrowth of photography theater and the novel the essays in this volume reassess the relationship between the emergence of film and the broader culture of modernity Contributors leading scholars in film and cultural studies link the popularity of cinema in the late nineteenth century to emerging cultural phenomena such as window shopping mail order catalogs and wax museums Casting aside the traditional conception of film as an outgrowth of photography theater and the novel the essays in this volume reassess the relationship between the emergence of film and the broader culture of modernity Contributors leading scholars

Rites of Realism Ivone Margulies, 2003-03-27 A collection of essays rethinking and reviving realism as a focus for film theory particularly emphasizing the relation of the genre to issues of the body

Cinematic Interfaces Seung-hoon Jeong, 2013-07-11 In this book Seung hoon Jeong introduces the cinematic interface as a contact surface that mediates between image and subject proposing that this mediation be understood not simply as transparent and efficient but rather as asymmetrical ambivalent immanent and multidirectional Jeong enlists the new media term interface to bring to film theory a synthetic notion of interfaciality as underlying the multifaceted nature of both the image and subjectivity Drawing on a range of films Jeong examines cinematic interfaces seen on screen and the spectator's experience of them including the direct appearance of a camera filmstrip screen the character's bodily contact with such a medium interface the object's surface and the subject's face as quasi interface and the image itself Each of these case studies serves as a platform for remapping and revamping major concepts in film studies such as suture embodiment illusion signification and indexicality Looking to such theories as the ontology of the image and the phenomenology of the body this original theorization of the cinematic interface not only offers a conceptual framework for rethinking and re-linking film and media studies but also suggests a general theory of the interface

Camera, 1929 Film in the Post-Media Age Ágnes Pethő, 2012-03-15 Ever since the centenary of cinema there have been intense discussions in the field of film studies about the imminent demise of the cinematic medium endless articles championing the spirit of genuine cinephilia have proclaimed the death of classical cinema and mourned the end of an era while new currents in media studies introduced such buzzwords into the discussions as remediation Bolter and Grusin media convergence Jenkins post media aesthetics Manovich or the virtual life of film Rodowick By the turn of the millennium the whole ecosystem of media had been radically altered through processes of hybridization and media convergence Some theorists even claim that now that the term medium has triumphed in the discussions around contemporary art and culture the actual media have already deceased as digitized imagery absorbs all media Moving images have entered the art galleries and new forms of inter art relationships have been forged They have also moved into the streets and our everyday life as a domesticated medium at everybody's reach into new private and public environments and into a fusion of both via the Internet Consequently should we speak of an all pervasive cinematic experience instead of a cinematic medium What really happens to film once its traditional medium has shape shifted into various digital forms and once its traditional locations institutions and usages have been uprooted What do these re locations and re configurations really entail What are the most important new genres in post media moving pictures Is it the web video is it 3D cinema is it the computer game that operates with moving image narratives is it the new vernacular database the DVD or the good old television adjusted to all these new forms How does theatrical cinema itself adapt to or reflect on these new image forms and technologies How can we interpret the convergence of older cinematic forms with an emerging digital aesthetics traceable in typical post media hosts of moving images These are only some of the major questions that the theoretical investigation and in depth analyses in this volume try to answer in an attempt at exploring not the disappearance of cinema but the blooming post media life of film

Cinematic Representations of Women in Modern Celebrity Culture, 1900-1950 María Cristina C. Mabrey, Leticia Pérez Alonso, 2022-04-19 The purpose of this edited volume is to explore the contributions of women to European Mexican American and Indian film industries during the years 1900 to 1950 an important period that signified the rise and consolidation of media technologies Their pioneering work as film stars writers directors designers and producers as well as their endeavors to bridge the gap between the avant garde and mass culture are significant aspects of this collection This intersection will be carefully nuanced through their cinematographic production performances and artistic creations Other distinctive features pertain to the interconnection of gender roles and moral values with ways of looking which paves the way for realigning social and aesthetic conventions of femininity Based on this thematic and diverse sociocultural context this study has an international scope their main audiences being scholars and graduate students that pursue to advance interdisciplinary research in the field of feminist theory film gender media and avant garde studies Likewise historians art and literature specialists will find the content appealing to the degree that intermedial and cross cultural approaches are presented Cinematic Ghosts Murray Leeder,2015-07-30 In 1896 Maxim Gorky declared cinema the Kingdom of Shadows In its silent ashen grey world he saw a land of spectral and ever since then cinema has had a special relationship with the haunted and the ghostly Cinematic Ghosts is the first collection devoted to this subject including fourteen new essays dedicated to exploring the many permutations of the movies phantoms Cinematic Ghosts contains essays revisiting some classic ghost films within the genres of horror The Haunting 1963 romance Portrait of Jennie 1948 comedy Beetlejuice 1988 and the art film Uncle Boonmee Who Can Recall His Past Lives 2010 as well as essays dealing with a number of films from around the world from Sweden to China Cinematic Ghosts traces the archetype of the cinematic ghost from the silent era until today offering analyses from a range of historical aesthetic and theoretical dimensions

Agnes Varda between Film, Photography, and Art Rebecca J. DeRoo,2017-10-17 Agn s Varda is a prolific film director photographer and artist whose cinematic career spans more than six decades Today she is best known as the innovative mother of the French New Wave film movement of the 1950s and 60s and for her multimedia art exhibitions Varying her use of different media she is a figure who defies easy categorization In this extensively researched book Rebecca J DeRoo demonstrates how Varda draws upon the histories of art photography and film to complicate the overt narratives in her works and to advance contemporary cultural politics Based on interviews with Varda and unparalleled access to Varda s archives this interdisciplinary study constructs new frameworks for understanding one of the most versatile talents in twentieth and twenty first century culture Cinematic Modernism and Contemporary Film Howard Finn,2022-10-06

Cinema was the most important new artistic medium of the twentieth century and modernism was the most important new aesthetic movement across the arts in the twentieth century However what exactly is the relationship between cinema and modernism Cinematic Modernism and Contemporary Film explores how in the early twentieth century cinema came to be seen as one of the new technologies which epitomised modernity and how cinema itself reflected ideas hopes and fears concerning modern life Howard Finn examines the emergence of a new international style of cinema combining a poetic aesthetic of the image with genre based fictional narrative and documentary realism He provides concise accounts of how theorists such as Andr Bazin Siegfried Kracauer Gilles Deleuze and Jacques Ranci re have discussed this cinematic aesthetic clarifying debates over terms such as realism classical and avant garde as well as recent controversies over terms such as slow cinema and vernacular modernism He further argues the influence of modernism through close readings of many contemporary films including films by Abbas Kiarostami B la Tarr Jia Zhangke and Angela Schanelec Drawing on a broad range of examples including Soviet montage Italian neorealism postwar new waves and the new cinema of Taiwan and Iran this book explores the cultural significance of modernism and its lasting influence over cinema Impersonal Enunciation, or the Place of Film Christian Metz, 2016-02-02 Christian Metz is best known for applying Saussurean theories of semiology to film analysis In the 1970s he used Sigmund Freud's psychology and Jacques Lacan's mirror theory to explain the popularity of cinema In this final book Metz uses the concept of enunciation to articulate how films speak and explore where this communication occurs offering critical direction for theorists who struggle with the phenomena of new media If a film frame contains another frame which frame do we emphasize And should we consider this staging an impersonal act of enunciation Consulting a range of genres and national trends Metz builds a novel theory around the placement and subjectivity of screens within screens which pulls in and forces him to reassess his work on authorship film language and the position of the spectator Metz again takes up the linguistic and theoretical work of Benveniste Genette Casetti and Bordwell drawing surprising conclusions that presage current writings on digital media Metz's analysis enriches work on cybernetic emergence self assembly self reference hypertext and texts that self produce in such a way that the human element disappears A critical introduction by Cormac Deane bolsters the connection between Metz's findings and nascent digital media theory emphasizing Metz's keen awareness of the methodological and philosophical concerns we wrestle with today

Contemporary Art, World Cinema, and Visual Culture Hamid Keshmirshakan, 2019-03-29 Contemporary Art World Cinema and Visual Culture Essays by Hamid Dabashi is a collection of writings by the acclaimed cultural critic and scholar A thorough Introduction rigorously frames chapters and identifies in Dabashi's writings a comprehensive approach which forms the criteria for selecting the essays for the volume The Introduction also teases out of these essays the overarching theme that holds them together the manner they inform a particularly critical angle in them and the way they cohere The Introduction dwells on the work of one scholar public intellectual and theorist of modern and contemporary arts to extrapolate more universal issues of concern to art criticism in general These scattered materials and their underlying theoretical and critical logic are a unique contribution to the field of modern and contemporary arts A Pedagogy of Cinema David R. Cole, Joff P.N. Bradley, 2016-07-23 A Pedagogy of Cinema is the first book to apply Deleuze's concept of cinema to the pedagogic context Cinema is opened up by this action from the straightforward educative analysis of film to the systematic unfolding of image A Pedagogy of Cinema explores what it means to engender cinema thinking from image This book does not overlay images from films with an educational approach to them but looks to the images themselves to produce philosophy This approach to utilising image in education is wholly new and has the potential to transform classroom practice with respect to teaching and learning about cinema The authors have carefully chosen specific examples of images to illustrate such transformational processes and have fitted them into in depth analysis that is derived from the images The result is a combination of image and text that advances the field of cinema study for and in education with a philosophical intent This outstanding new book asks a vital question for our time How can we educate effectively in a digitalized corporatized Orwellian surveillance controlled globalized world This question is equally a challenge asked of our ability to think outside of the limiting parameters of the control society and the forces which daily propel us ever quicker towards worldwide homogenization With great lucidity Cole and Bradley offer us profound hope in Gilles Deleuze s increasingly popular notion of cine thinking They explore and explain the potential that this sophisticated idea holds for learning in an easy going and accessible way and with a range of fantastic films from Suspiria and Performance through to Under the Skin and Snowpiercer This extremely engaging and compelling text is likely to enliven scholars and students everywhere David Martin Jones Film and Television Studies University of Glasgow UK

Documenting Spain: Artists, Exhibition Culture, and the Modern Nation, 1929-1939 , The news media have given us potent demonstrations of the ambiguity of ostensibly truthful representations of public events Jordana Mendelson uses this ambiguity as a framework for the study of Spanish visual culture from 1929 to 1939 a decade marked on the one hand by dictatorship civil war and Franco s rise to power and on the other by a surge in the production of documentaries of various types from films and photographs to international exhibitions Mendelson begins with an examination of El Pueblo Espa ol a model Spanish village featured at the 1929 International Exposition in Barcelona She then discusses Bu uel s and Dal s documentary films relating them not only to French Surrealism but also to issues of rural tradition in the formation of regional and national identities Her highly original book concludes with a discussion of the 1937 Spanish Pavilion where Picasso s famed painting of the Fascist bombing of a Basque town Guernica was exhibited along with monumental photomurals by Josep Renau Based upon years of archival research Mendelson s book opens a new perspective on the cultural politics of a turbulent era in modern Spain It explores the little known yet rich intersection between avant garde artists and government institutions It shows as well the surprising extent to which Spanish modernity was fashioned through dialogue between the seemingly opposed fields of urban and rural fine art and mass culture

Contemporary Russian Cinema Vlad Strukov, 2016-04-12 Analysing films by established directors such as Sokurov and Zel dovich as well as lesser known filmmakers like Balabanov and Kalatozishvili this book explores the particular style of film presentation that has emerged in Russia since 2000 characterised by its use of highly abstract concepts and visual language

Modern Cine Photography: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the captivating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. Modern Cine Photography : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Modern Cine Photography : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
