Modern Criticism And Theory A Reader:

Modern Criticism and Theory David Lodge, 1988 Provides within the covers of a single book a selection of important and representative work from all the major theoretical schools or tendencies in contemporary criticism and places them before the reader in two alternative orders one historical the other thematic

Modern Criticism and Theory Nigel Wood, David Lodge, 2014-06-11 This third edition of Modern Criticism and Theory represents a major expansion on its previous incarnations with some twenty five new pieces or essays included This expansion has two principal purposes Firstly in keeping with the collection's aim to reflect contemporary preoccupations the reader has expanded forward to include such newly emergent considerations as ecocriticism and post theory Secondly with the aim of presenting as broad an account of modern theory as possible the reader expands backwards to take in exemplary pieces by formative writers and thinkers of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries such as Marx Freud and Virginia Woolf This radical expansion of content is prefaced by a wide ranging introduction which provides a rationale for the collection and demonstrates how connections can be made between competing theories and critical schools The purpose of the collection remains that of introducing the reader to the guiding concepts of contemporary literary and cultural debate It does so by presenting substantial extracts from seminal thinkers and surrounding them with the contextual materials necessary to a full understanding Each selection has a headnote which gives biographical details of the author and provides suggestions for further reading and footnotes that help explain difficult references The collection is ordered both historically and thematically and readers are encouraged to draw for themselves connections between essays and theories Modern Criticism and Theory has long been regarded as a necessary collection Now revised for the twenty first century it goes further and provides students and the general reader with a wide ranging survey of the complex landscape of modern theory and a critical assessment of the way we think and live in the world today

Modern Criticism and Theory David Lodge, Nigel Wood, 2000 Building on the strengths of the first edition this volume introduces the key concepts of current literary and cultural debate and presents substantial extracts from the period's most seminal thinkers

Modern Critical Theory and Classical Literature J.P. Sullivan,Irene J.F. de Jong,2018-07-17 In recent decades the study of literature in Europe and the Americas has been profoundly influenced by modern critical theory in its various forms whether Structuralism or Deconstructionism Hermeneutics Reader Response Theory or Rezeptions sthetik Semiotics or Narratology Marxist feminist neo historical psychoanalytical or other perspectives Whilst the value and validity of such approaches to literature is still a matter of some dispute not least among classical scholars they have had a substantial impact on the study both of classical literatures and of the mentalit of Greece and Rome In an attempt to clarify issues in the debate the eleven contributors to this volume were asked to produce a representative collection of essays to illustrate the applicability of some of the new approaches to Greek and Latin authors or literary forms and problems The scope of the volume was deliberately limited to literary investigation broadly construed of Greek and Roman authors Broader areas of the history and culture of the ancient world impinge in the essays but are not their central focus The volume also contains a separate bibliography offering for the first time a complete bibliography of classical studies which incorporate modern critical theory
