Modern Egyptian Art 1910-2003:

Modern Egyptian Art, 1910-2003 Liliane Karnouk, 2005 From the early years of the twentieth century with the rejection of European political and cultural domination in Egypt modern artistic expression in Egypt was influenced by and often reflected the country's growing national consciousness In the years following the 1952 revolution wealthy patrons of the arts disappeared from Egypt's cosmopolitan art world and were replaced by the state which by the 1960s exercised full control over all cultural activities including the arts In the 1990s as elsewhere throughout the world Egyptian art was affected by general shifts in culture brought about by globalization The disruption of a sense of place and feelings of belonging were a response to the influx of the challenging and at times disquieting information available to whole cultures and communities through new media Examining the work of over 70 artists from 1910 until the present day Liliane Karnouk traces the parallel steps of modern Egyptian art and the social and political environment in which that art was and continues to be created Fully illustrated with over 280 color and black and white illustrations this comprehensive volume is both a feast for the eyes and a mine of information for artists and non specialists alike

The Changing Consumer Cultures of Modern Egypt Mona Abaza, 2006-12-01 This book consists of a collage of images that attempts to convey the transformation of consumer culture and how it is related to the urban reshaping of the city of Cairo to meet with the demands of globalisation Analyzing the shift from socialist economy to the opening up of Egypt's economy and how this has affected everyday life of the middle classes the author touches on various themes such as the general changing lifestyles and conspicuous consumption the spread of mobile phones and coffee shops the gated communities and secondary resorts The folklorisation of culture through the flowering tourist industry the expansion of local crafts plastic surgery and the body as a site of consumption are all analysed Although being influenced by the discourse of the Frankfurt school on the culture industry this work attempts to highlight the paradoxes pertaining to the democratising effects of consumer culture without denying the growing flagrant class polarisation

in the arts in Egypt Contemporary Art and the Display of Ancient Egypt Alice Stevenson, 2025-01-16 Artistic interventions are now a popular means of delivering fresh perspectives on museum displays including in galleries devoted to ancient Egypt Installations are commonly said to put the past and present into dialogue with each other offering external critical voices on the work of decolonisation Contemporary Art and the Display of Ancient Egypt argues that the contemporary and the ancient do not necessarily inform each other Instead they are mediated by and mediations of the museum that produces them Rather than explore how contemporary artists have been inspired by Egypt this book examines how they have shaped the language and discourse around study of the Egyptian past by looking at the wider field of public display in which both have been historically situated Building on this critical history of practice the book draws from experiments in bringing contemporary artistic sculptures conceptual pieces multimedia films sounds smells and performances into galleries at the British Museum in London the Egyptian Museum in Turin and the State Museum of Egyptian Art in Munich These are used to explore what contemporary art does in these spaces the motivations for inviting artists in and the legacies of those interventions It ends with a reflection on how academics and curators can be involved in the creative process and how artists contribute to academic research Praise for Contemporary Art and the Display of Ancient Egypt This is an important and innovative study on the recent history of incorporating art installations in galleries of Egyptian antiquities Offering a thoughtful critical analysis of the ways in which contemporary art and ancient artefacts are juxtaposed in museum settings the book calls for a more nuanced and politically engaged practice of collaboration between artists and Egyptologists Stephanie Moser University of Southampton Archaeologist Alice Stevenson provides a thoughtful consideration of the goals and intent behind contemporary art interventions in exhibitions of ancient Egyptian art She challenges the curators scholars and museum professionals who design these exhibitions to move beyond the simplistic ancient art contemporary art juxtaposition and instead use contemporary art interventions to create spaces for both artistic and academic insight and inspiration I look forward to such dialogue Kara Cooney UCLA The Cambridge Companion to Modern Arab Culture Dwight F. Reynolds, 2015-04-02 An accessible and wide ranging survey of modern Arab culture covering political intellectual and social aspects Revolutionary Art and Politics in Egypt Rounwah Adly Riyadh Bseiso, 2023-01-26 This book examines the role of artists in Egypt during the 2011 revolution when street art from graffiti to political murals became ubiquitous facets of revolutionary spaces Through interviews personal testimonies and accounts of the lived experience of 25 street artists the book explores the meaning of art in revolutionary political contexts specifically by focusing on artistic production during liminal moments as the events of the Egyptian revolution unfolded The author privileges the perspective of the actors themselves to examine the ways that artists reacted to events and conceived of their art as means to further the goals of the revolution Based on fieldwork conducted in the years since 2011 the book provides a narrative of Egyptian artists participation in and representations of the revolution from hopeful beginnings to the subsequent crackdown and election of

Modernism on the Nile Alex Dika Seggerman, 2019-08-13 Analyzing the modernist art movement that arose in Cairo and Alexandria from the late nineteenth century through the 1960s Alex Dika Seggerman reveals how the visual arts were part of a multifaceted transnational modernism While the work of diverse major Egyptian artists during this era may have appeared to be secular she argues it reflected the subtle but essential inflection of Islam as a faith history and lived experience in the overarching development of Middle Eastern modernity Challenging typical views of modernism in art history as solely Euro American and expanding the conventional periodization of Islamic art history Seggerman theorizes a constellational modernism for the emerging field of global modernism Rather than seeing modernism in a generalized hyperconnected network she finds that art and artists circulated in distinct constellations that encompassed finite local and transnational relations Such constellations which could engage visual systems both along and beyond the Nile from Los Angeles to Delhi were materialized in visual culture that ranged from oil paintings and sculpture to photography and prints. Based on extensive research in Egypt, Europe, and the United States, this richly illustrated book poses a compelling argument for the importance of Muslim networks to global modernism. Egypt Mona L. Russell Ph.D., 2013-01-11. This handbook provides an overview of the society, culture, geography, history, and politics of contemporary Egypt. While such historic monuments as the pyramids at Giza, the Karnak Temple, and the Valley of the Kings draw visitors to Egypt each year, the country is today a large and varied collection of some 79 million people. An important political and cultural force in the Middle East and home to one of Africa's most advanced economies, Egypt is rapidly becoming a major player in the 21st century world. This comprehensive text examines all facets of life in Egypt, including its land, history, politics, and culture. It is written in a manner that makes the subject accessible and engaging for readers with little prior knowledge about the country, but also provides a critical analysis of the latest research for students and scholars familiar with Egypt and its people. Special attention is given to the historical period following the rise of Islam to enable a greater understanding of Egypt's contemporary government, religious practices, popular culture, and current events. Historical Dictionary of Egypt Arthur Goldschmidt, Jr., 2023-07-25. Egypt is the world's oldest continuous country with a recorded past of over 6,000 years. Often invaded, conquered, and occupied by foreign armies, Egypt has never lost its identity. The Egyptians of today, although they have changed their language once and their religion twice, descend mainly from the Egyptians who built the Giza Pyramids and the Temple of Karnak, who served Alexander the Great and his heirs, who submitted to Augustus Caesar and raised much of the grain that fed the Roman Empire, who started Christian monasticism and the veneration of the Virgin Mary, and who advanced and sustained Muslim learning in what is now the world's oldest functioning university. It was and is one of the most important countries in the world. Historical Dictionary of Egypt, Fifth Edition, contains a chronology, an introduction, and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has more than 600 cross-referenced entries on important personalities as well as aspects of the country's politics, economy, foreign relations, religion, and culture. This book is an excellent resource for students, researchers, and anyone wanting to know more about Egypt. Modernism and the Art of Muslim South Asia Iftikhar Dadi, 2010-05-15. This pioneering work traces the emergence of the modern and contemporary art of Muslim South Asia in relation to transnational modernism and in light of the region's intellectual, cultural, and political developments. Art historian Iftikhar Dadi here explores the art and writings of major artists, men and women ranging from the late colonial period to the era of independence and beyond. He looks at the stunningly diverse artistic production of key artists associated with Pakistan, including Abdur Rahman Chughtai, Zainul Abedin, Shakir Ali, Zubeida Agha, Sadequain, Rasheed Araeen, and Naiza Khan. Dadi shows how, beginning in the 1920s, these artists addressed the challenges of modernity by translating historical and contemporary intellectual conceptions into their work, reworking traditional approaches to the classical Islamic arts and engaging the modernist approach towards subjective individuality in artistic expression. In the process, they dramatically reconfigured the visual arts of the region By the 1930s these artists had embarked on a sustained engagement with international modernism in a context of dizzying social and political change that included decolonization the rise of mass media and developments following the national independence of India and Pakistan in 1947 Bringing new insights to such concepts as nationalism modernism cosmopolitanism and tradition Dadi underscores the powerful impact of transnationalism during this period and highlights the artists growing embrace of modernist and contemporary artistic practice in order to address the challenges of the present era Handbook of International Futurism Günter Berghaus,2018-12-17 The Handbook of International Futurism is the first reference work ever to presents in a comparative fashion all media and countries in which the movement initiated by F T Marinetti in 1909 exercised a particularly noteworthy influence The handbook offers a synthesis of the state of scholarship regarding the international radiation of Futurism and its influence in some fifteen artistic disciplines and thirty eight countries While acknowledging the great achievements of the movement in the visual and literary arts of Italy and Russia it treats Futurism as an international multidisciplinary phenomenon that left a lasting mark on the manifold artistic manifestations of the early twentieth century avant garde Hundreds of artists who in some phase in their career absorbed Futurist ideas and stylistic devices are presented in the context of their national traditions their international connections and the media in which they were predominantly active The handbook acts as a kind of multi disciplinary geographical encyclopaedia of Futurism and gives scholars with varying levels of experience a detailed overview of all countries and disciplines in which the movement had a major impact Egypt Laura Etheredge Assistant Editor, Middle East Geography,2011-01-15 Explains the history politics and culture of Egypt and examines the geography of the country Egypt's Culture Wars Samia Mehrez,2008-04-01 This ground breaking work presents original research on cultural politics and battles in Egypt at the turn of the twenty first century It deconstructs the boundaries between high and low culture drawing on conceptual tools in cultural studies translation studies and gender studies to analyze debates in the fields of literature cinema mass media and the plastic arts Anchored in the Egyptian historical and social contexts and inspired by the influential work of Pierre Bourdieu it rigorously places these debates and battles within the larger framework of a set of questions about the relationship between the cultural and political fields in Egypt The Contemporary Art Scene in Syria Charlotte Bank,2020-05-31 This book focuses on the expanding contemporary art scene in Syria particularly Damascus during the first decade of the twenty first century The decade was characterized by a high degree of experimentation as young artists began to work with artistic media that were new in Syria such as video installation and performance art They were rethinking the role of artists in society and looking for ways to reach audiences in a more direct manner and address socio cultural and socio political issues The Contemporary Art Scene in Syria will be of interest to scholars of global and Middle Eastern art studies and also to scholars interested in the recent social and cultural history of Syria and the wider Middle East artWORK Paula Serafini,Jessica Holtaway,Alberto Cossu,2017-11-15 artWork

Art Labour and Activism brings together a variety of perspectives on contemporary cultural production and activism in order to interrogate how the concepts of art labour and activism intersect in practices for social change. What can we learn about contemporary art and politics by looking at the intersections between art labour and activism? What theoretical tools can help us arrive at a deeper understanding of these intersections? In order to address these questions, this collection explores the role of art as activism, the use of social media and technology in creative production and organising the politics of artmaking, the commodification of culture and the possibility of a creative commons, and the work of artist activists as educators. In addition to offering a variety of new perspectives from researchers and practitioners, it proposes new paths towards interdisciplinary research in this field that combine sociological, anthropological, philosophical, and art theory perspectives. It will be of interest to students and scholars interested in creative labour, social movements, and political arts practice.
