Palimpsests of the Real in Recent French Poetry Glenn W. Fetzer, 2021-08-30 The richness and diversity of poetic voices in France since the mid twentieth century sharpen the challenge of charting the poetic landscape in ways that are accessible and cohesive Since poetry in France has long demonstrated a predisposition to philosophical questions Palimpsests of the Real in Recent French Poetry reads the work of six poets through the lens of the Pre Socratics The poets discussed range from the well known Jacques Dupin Andr du Bouchet Eug ne Guillevic to the lesser celebrated Jean Louis Chr tien C line Zins and Emmanuel Hocquard What binds these six together is an interest in the real and a fascination with the ways of sensing one s world of experiencing time unity memory and change For each poet the aesthetic character of the work takes precedence and its presentation is informed by the philosophical groundwork laid by ancient thinkers Written not only for specialists but also for students and all readers with a general interest in literature and poetry this book provides introductory material to each poet considered as well as offers critical readings that never stray far from the poetic texts

Collected Poems Arthur Rimbaud, 2001-06-07 Rimbaud the poet of revolt and the greatest Albert Camus Rimbaud is the enfant terrible of French literature the precocious genius whose extraordinary poetry is revolutionary in its visionary hallucinatory content and its often liberated forms He wrote all his poems between the ages of about 15 and 21 after which he turned his back on family friends and France to roam the world In his final years he was a trader in the Horn of Africa Out of the brief colourful life and the poetry of sensory wildness has been created the myth of Rimbaud an enduring icon of youth rebellion and freedom But behind the myth lies a poetic adventure of high ambition and painful rigour poignant yet heroic Rimbaud is one of the greatest French poets of all times

On Translating French Literature and Film Geoffrey T. Harris, 2025-02-10 This volume is of particular relevance to literary and filmic translators to translation theorists and to anyone with an interest in translation as an art. Throughout the majority of essays in the volume translation is projected as a complex creative task and not as an exercise in simply re-encoding the meaning of a source text. The received superiority of the original is ultimately questioned here. The customary binary divide between original and translation or copy and between author and translator is forcefully challenged as cinematic and literary translation is presented as an essentially creative process. Whether highlighting specific author related problems or whether focusing on the broader issues of the ethics of translation of cultural transmissibility or of obsolescence the general thrust of these essays seeks to demonstrate the authorial credentials of the translator. Despite the cogent counter arguments advanced by a minority of the contributors the dominant discourse here is one which replaces the stereotypical virtually anonymous translator with a high profile creative figure.
