Gallagher,Paul Hertig,2009 Gallagher and Hertig have collected a range of seminal articles and papers that offer students insight into thinking by the makers of modern mission and world Christian studies This is a priceless book for the classroom bringing between two covers the most important reflections on these issues in our age This marvelous book answers the prayers of teachers who have struggled for a generation with the problem of providing their students a resource that will offer an entre into the best thinking on the nature of mission and the emergence of world Christianity

Melanesians and Missionaries Darrell L. Whiteman,2002-05-10 In Melanesians and Missionaries one of the best of the younger generation of missionary anthropologists demonstrates that a commitment to the missionary enterprise on the part of a solid scholar facilitates rather than hinders the anthropological study of a missionary topic This is better anthropology because Dr Whiteman is able to probe more deeply into his topic and demonstrates that he understands and appreciates both Melanesians and missionaries Charles H Kraft Professor of Anthropology School of World Mission Fuller Theological Seminary Pasadena

Prophet Harris, The 'Black Elijah' of West Africa David A. Shank,2023-12-28 Prophet Harris The Black Elijah of West Africa offers the only comprehensive study of the thought of William Wade Harris the Glebo Liberia loyalist whose prophetic mission from 1910-29 moved tens of thousands of West Africans out of traditional religion into the stream of Christianity and modernization particularly in the Ivory Coast It reviews that unparalleled breakthrough thoroughly examines traditional African Western missionary and colonial influences which helped determine religious innovation and shape his vocation as prophet of Christ's reign of peace and prosperity Heretofore unused sources enriched by documents and photos expose biblical eschatological and messianic dynamics which tied Harris words symbols and charisma together in a holistic African Christianity The source of long standing contentions between Ivoirian Harrists Methodists and Catholics is uncovered in the well intentioned but changing colonial and missionary responses to his impact

Protest and Dissent in the Colonial Pacific Peter J. Hemenstall,Noel Rutherford,1984 Religions of Melanesia Garry Trompf,2006-09-30 Melanesia boasts over one quarter of the world's distinct religions and presents the most complex religious panorama on earth The region is famous for its unusual new religious movements that have adapted traditional beliefs to modernity in surprising ways As the first bibliographical survey to comprehensively cover the entire region Religions of Melanesia is an invaluable research aid for anyone interested in this growing field Trompf's work is a complete listing of scholarly publications and provides readable and concise descriptions that will clearly guide the researcher toward the most relevant sources This survey covers 2188 entries organized topically and regionally Trompf covers such subjects as traditional and modern belief systems and the emergent indigenous Christianity that has taken root Regional coverage includes Irian Jaya Papua New Guinea Solomon Islands Vanuatu New Caledonia and Fiji

Dreams in the African Church Nelson Osamu Hayashida,2023-09-20 Currents of Encounter invites scholarly contributions that utilize interreligious intercultural comparative postcolonial and other contemporary critical interdisciplinary approaches from across all religious traditions to address topical questions on the challenges and opportunities arising from intercultural interreligious engagements or the intersections of cultures and religions Studies dealing explicitly with the dynamics of the intersection of religious and cultural traditions are increasing every year and scholars have become aware of the complexity and diversity of interreligious and intercultural relations Recent literature offers a broad panoply of theoretical approaches from theologies of religions to comparative theologies from discourse analysis to a postcolonial critique focusing on issues of power from feminist readings asking about the specific role of women in interreligious dialogue to interreligious hermeneutics exploring how meaning may travel across cultural and religious traditions Currents of Encounter welcomes this variety of works in these disciplines and from interdisciplinary perspectives aiming thus to contribute to a better understanding of the complexities of interreligious and intercultural themes The board welcomes both monographs and edited volumes Possible domains interreligious studies intercultural theology and philosophy comparative theology and philosophy theologies of religions

Insurgent Terrorism Gerald Cromer, 2017-11-30 Terrorists engage in propaganda and rhetoric even though they prefer the power of deed over word They use a wide variety of mechanisms of moral disengagement to convince themselves of the rightness of their actions a necessary prerequisite for taking up arms The articles collected together in this excellent volume focus on the rhetoric and propaganda used by insurgent terrorists to justify their resort to violence The volume includes a thoughtful introduction which summarizes the main findings of the literature drawing attention to the many different kinds of terrorist propaganda and the underlying similarity between them

Mission from the Margins David A. Shank, 2019-05-14 David A Shank has been reflecting on the mission of the church from an Anabaptist perspective for more than half a century His writings represent among the best biblical theological and missiological study on the matter shaped by two primary contexts Europe and Africa where his ministry took place This collection will be of particular interest to global church leaders wanting to know more about how to contextualize the gospel message to mission and church historians interested in examining how missiological thought and practice evolves over time and to pastors students and mission workers seeking insights from a wise elder as they serve the church through its mission efforts in the twenty first century

Earthen Vessels Joel A. Carpenter, Wilbert R. Shenk, 2012-12-01 Contrary to popular impressions the days of the missionary are far from over North American churches send more missionaries than ever before and 90 percent of them are evangelicals who are not affiliated with the mainline Protestant mission boards The first major historical treatment of the distinctly evangelical wing of twentieth century American missions Earthen Vessels truly breaks new ground Covering territory that missions histories have scarcely explored yet the distinguished historians contributing to this volume portray the North American including Canadian evangelical missionary enterprise from the Student Volunteer Movement to the very recent past The book traces the influences of premillennial eschatology the fundamentalist modernist controversies the rise of independent missions and conservative denominational boards the role of World War II and America's rise to world power the recent development of a distinctly evangelical theology of missions and the growing influence of the Two Thirds World s evangelical leaders While this volume certainly does not contain the last word on these subjects in a number of areas it does offer very nearly the first look With its fresh subject matter and new historical interpretations Earthen Vessels will interest church history scholars and students missionaries and ministers and any others who wish to know more about American missions      Evangelical
