Birdwhistell, 2012-02-01 In this innovative work Joanne D Birdwhistell presents the first gender analysis of the Mencius a central text in the Chinese philosophical tradition Mencian philosophy particularly its ideas about the processes by which a man could develop into a cultivated gentleman was important to the political thought of China's long imperial order Through close textual readings Birdwhistell offers a new interpretation of core Mencian ideas about the heart and the self cultivation of the great man She argues that the concept of masculinity advocated by the Mencius is derived although without acknowledgment from maternal practices and thinking through processes of appropriation inversion and transformation She illustrates that even though maternal practices and thinking are an invisible dimension of Mencian thought they are constantly present in the text through their transcoding with agricultural practices and thinking      Maria W. Stewart and the Roots of Black Political Thought Kristin Waters, 2021-11-01 Named a 2022 finalist for the Pauli Murray Book Prize in Black Intellectual History from the African American Intellectual History Society Maria W Stewart and the Roots of Black Political Thought tells a crucial almost forgotten story of African Americans of early nineteenth century America In 1833 Maria W Stewart 1803 1879 told a gathering at the African Masonic Hall on Boston's Beacon Hill African rights and liberty is a subject that ought to fire the breast of every free man of color in these United States She exhorted her audience to embrace the idea that the founding principles of the nation must extend to people of color Otherwise those truths are merely the hypocritical expression of an ungodly white power a travesty of original democratic ideals Like her mentor David Walker Stewart illustrated the practical inconsistencies of classical liberalism as enacted in the US and delivered a call to action for ending racism and addressing gender discrimination Between 1831 and 1833 Stewart's intellectual productions as she called them ranged across topics from true emancipation for African Americans the Black convention movement the hypocrisy of white Christianity Black liberation theology and gender inequity Along with Walker's Appeal to the Coloured Citizens of the World her body of work constitutes a significant foundation for a moral and political theory that is finding new resonance today insurrectionist ethics In this work of recovery author Kristin Waters examines the roots of Black political activism in the petition movement Prince Hall and the creation of the first Black masonic lodges the Black Baptist movement spearheaded by the brothers Thomas Benjamin and Nathaniel Paul writings sermons and the practices of festival days through the story of this remarkable but largely unheralded woman and pioneering public intellectual      What Is Enlightenment? James Schmidt, 1996-09-08 This collection contains the first English translations of a group of 18th century German essays that address the question what is Enlightenment They explore the origins of 18th century debate on the Enlightenment and its significance for the present      A History of Women's Political Thought in Europe, 1700-1800 Karen Green, 2014-12-04 During the eighteenth century elite women participated in the philosophical scientific and political controversies that resulted in the overthrow of monarchy the reconceptualisation of marriage and the emergence of modern

Knowing Victims Rebecca Stringer, 2014-06-20 Knowing Victims explores the theme of victimhood in contemporary feminism and politics It focuses on popular and scholarly constructions of feminism as victim feminism an ideology of passive victimhood that denies women's agency and provides the first comprehensive analysis of the debate about this ideology which has unfolded among feminists since the 1980s The book critically examines a movement away from the language of victimhood across a wide array of discourses and the neoliberal replacement of the concept of structural oppression with the concept of personal responsibility In derogating the notion of victim neoliberalism promotes a conception of victimization as subjective rather than social a state of mind rather than a worldly situation Drawing upon Nietzsche Lyotard rape crisis feminism and feminist philosophy Stringer situates feminist politicizations of rape interpersonal violence economic inequality and welfare reform as key sites of resistance to the victim blaming logic of neoliberalism She suggests that although recent feminist critiques of victim feminism have critically diagnosed the anti victim movement they have not positively defended victim politics Stringer argues that a conception of the victim as an agentic bearer of knowledge and an understanding of resentment as a generative force for social change provides a potent counter to the negative construction of victimhood characteristic of the neoliberal era This accessible and insightful analysis of feminism neoliberalism and the social construction of victimhood will be of great interest to researchers and students in the disciplines of gender and women s studies psychology sociology politics and philosophy      Philosophy of Meaning, Knowledge and Value in the Twentieth Century John Canfield,2012-10-12 Volume 10 of the Routledge History of Philosophy presents a historical survey of the central topics in twentieth century Anglo American philosophy It chronicles what has been termed the linguistic turn in analytic philosophy and traces the influence the study of language has had on the main problems of philosophy Each chapter contains an extensive bibliography of the major writings in the field All the essays present their large and complex topics in a clear and well organised way At the end the reader finds a helpful Chronology of the major political scientific and philosophical events in the Twentieth Century and an extensive Glossary of technical terms      Philosophy of Meaning, Knowledge and Value in the 20th Century John V.
