Modern French Criticism John K. Simon, 1972 Stanford Bulletin ,1996 Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Modern French Citicism: from Proust and Valery to Structuralism J. K. Simon, 1972 Chall, 1988 Intelligence Zakir Paul, 2024-08-13 A critical account of the idea of intelligence in modern French literature and thought In the late nineteenth century psychologists and philosophers became intensely interested in the possibility of quantifying measuring and evaluating intelligence and using it to separate and compare individuals Disarming Intelligence analyzes how this polyvalent term was consolidated and contested in competing discourses from fin de si cle psychology and philosophy to literature criticism and cultural polemics around the First World War Zakir Paul examines how Marcel Proust Henri Bergson Paul Val ry and the critics of the influential Nouvelle revue fran aise registered negotiated and subtly countered the ways intelligence was invoked across the political and aesthetic spectrum For these writers intelligence fluctuates between an individual sovereign faculty for analyzing the world and something collective accidental and contingent Disarming Intelligence shows how literary and critical styles questioned suspended and reimagined what intelligence could be by bringing elements of uncertainty and potentiality into its horizon The book also explores interwar political tensions from the extreme right to Walter Benjamin's engaged essays on contemporary French writers Finally a brief coda recasts current debates about artificial intelligence by comparing them to these earlier crises of intelligence By drawing together and untangling competing conceptions of intelligence Disarming Intelligence exposes its mercurial but influential and urgent role in literary and cultural politics Three Studies in Modern French Litterature J. M. Cocking, Enid Starkie, Martin The Masters of Modern French Criticism Irving Babbitt, 1912 This volume does not criticize criticism Jarrett-Kerr, 1960 but criticizes critics The critics examined are among the most vital and significant personalities of their time To study Sainte Beuve and the other leading French critics is to get very close to the intellectual center of the century Readers my thus follow the main movement of this thought through this period and build up the necessary background for understanding the ideas of the present day whether they continue this earlier thought or react from it The so called anti intellectualist movement can only be understood with reference to such a background it is a reaction from the dogmatic naturalism that reached its height in the second half of the nineteenth century. In the end the judgment of the keen sighted few in the present will be ratified by the verdict of posterity French Structuralism ,1990 Three Studies in Modern French Literature: Marcel Proust, Andre Gide, Francois Mauriac, 1960 The Ideal Reader Jacques Riviere, 2017-07-05 Jacques Riviere knew how to accept art emotionally No French critic was ever less a traditional pedagogue Rivibre was an intelligent French writer who knew that the summit of the intellect is to admit affective knowledge instinct and intuition The heart or taste is always superior to raw intelligence Reviere's supple metaphors are not easily rendered into English The density of his thought the complexity of his views the moral and spiritual fervor that vibrates in these pages further enhances the difficulties the skilled translator must overcome Literary criticism is often ephemeral it has served its purpose if it stimulates discussion about the work of art under scrutiny Not so with essays like these Th ev demand an active reading as do the original works themselves They do not easily yield their significance Among the critics who came into the French literary scene in the years immediately preceding and following the First World War Jacques Riviere has been least affected by the attrition of time His studies of Proust and Rimbaud still rank among the two or three essential works to be read on these authors Few other critics have gone further in a sensuous perception of these authors work and the intellectual lucidity in analyzing it Reviere had few pretensions to profundity and a great purity of style In an age of slogans and judgments this volume reminds the reader of the extraordinary role of European critical thought in the twentieth century The Material Object in the Work of Marcel Proust Thomas Baldwin, 2005 Modern French Identities focuses on the French and Francophone writing of the twentieth and twenty first centuries whose formal experiments and revisions of genre have combined to create an entirely new set of literary forms The series publishes studies of individual authors and artists comparative studies and interdisciplinary projects Theœ Masters of Modern French Criticism Irving Babbitt,1913 Three Studies in Modern French Literature John Martin Cocking, 1960 Cross-references David Kelley, Isabelle Llasera, 1986 Pastiche, and the Postmodern or Why Style Matters James F. Austin, 2013-08-28 Proust Pastiche and the Postmodern or Why Style Matters argues against the traditional view that Marcel Proust wrote pastiches that is texts that imitate the style of another author to master his literary predecessors while sharpening his writerly quill On the contrary James F Austin demonstrates that Proust's oeuvre and In Search of Lost Time in particular deploy pastiche to other ends Proust's pastiches in fact do things with words to create powerful real world effects His works are indeed performative acts that forge social relationships redefine our ideas of literature and even work against oppressive political and economic discourses Building on the speech act theory of J L Austin Jacques Derrida and J Hillis Miller and on the postmodern theory of Fredric Jameson this book not only elucidates the performative nature of pastiche but also shows that the famous Goncourt pastiche from In Search of Lost Time has attracted so much attention because it already attained the postmodern that is it eliminated temporal depth and experience transforming time itself into a nostalgic style of an era and into the sort of aestheticized surface that came to define postmodernism decades later To reflect this transformation of pastiche this work rearticulates its history in France around Proust Reconfiguring a scholastic classically inspired pedagogical tradition based on imitation and breaking with the dominant satirical practice Proust's work opened up possibilities in the twentieth century for a new kind of pastiche playful and performative in the literary field and postmodern in a French cinema that as with the Goncourt pastiche represents time as the visual style of an era whether unreflexively in heritage films such as R gis Wargnier's Indochine or discerningly in Eric Rohmer's Lady and the Duke which uses period pictorial and painterly conventions to illustrate how the representation of history onscreen typically flattens time into style The Masters of Modern French Criticism Irving

Babbitt,1930 From Proust to Camus: Profiles of Modern French Writers Andre Maurois,1966 Proust Between Two Centuries Antoine Compagnon,1992 This book explores the formative period when Scotland acquired the characteristics that enabled it to enter fully into the comity of medieval Christendom These included a monarchy of a recognizably continental type a feudal organisation of aristocratic landholding and military service national boundaries and a body of settled law and custom The Word From Paris John Sturrock,1999-12-17 In this accessible guide to the literature and thought of 20th century France Sturrock clarifies the various intellectual movements that have marked the recent history of French writing including Existentialism Structuralism and the OuLiPo Contemporary French Literature Justin O'Brien,1971
