Modern Guide To The Ancient Quest For The Holy:

Mystic Moderns James H. Thrall, 2020-01-21 Mystic Moderns examines the responses of three British authors Evelyn Underhill 1875 1941 May Sinclair 1863 1946 and Mary Webb 1881 1927 to the emerging modernity of the long early twentieth century moment encompassing the First World War As they explored divergent but overlapping understandings of what mystical experience might be these authors rejected claims that modernity's celebration of the secular and rational left no place for the mystical rather they countered sensitivity to a greater reality could both establish and validate personal agency and was integral to their identities as modern women Their preoccupations with the dynamism of human connection drew on prevailing ideas of vital energy or life force developed by Arthur Schopenhauer and Henri Bergson in ways that channeled modernity's erotic energy of change By using their fiction to describe new self-authenticating forms of mysticism separate from either the prevailing orthodoxy of establishment Christianity or the extreme heterodoxy of their era's enthusiasm for paranormal experimentation they also contributed to the rise of a generic concept of spirituality Mystic Moderns thus offers historical perspective on contemporary claims for self-constructed non-institutional spiritual experience associated with the claim I'm spiritual not religious Working as they did within the shadow of the First World War Underhill Sinclair and Webb were in the end attempting to determine what might be of authentic value for a modern age marked by ubiquitous death While not themselves utopian authors each was touched by her era's complicated hunger for the best of all possible worlds Their constructions of how an individual should be and act in the midst of modernity thus simultaneously projected visions of what that modernity itself should become

McCray, 2019-10-16 Few have consoled the church as ably as the fourteenth century mystic Julian of Norwich However her prophetic gifts have received little scholarly attention Drawing on contemporary homiletical theory and the history of Christian spirituality Donyelle C McCray presents Julian as a preacher examining the apostolic dimensions of Julian's vocation as an anchoress and highlighting the steps she took to align herself with renowned preachers like Saint Cecelia Mary Magdalene and the apostle Paul Like Paul Julian saw Jesus' body as her primary text placed human weakness at the center of her theology and used her own confined body as a rhetorical tool Yet she navigated a web of censorship that threatened to silence her To voice her convictions Julian developed a novel approach to authority and exploited the fluidity of the medieval English sermon genre McCray charts this process revealing Julian as a central personality in the history of preaching whose best contemporary parallels operate outside the pulpit in august figures like retreat leader Evelyn Underhill gospel singer Mother Willie Mae Ford Smith and street preacher Reverend Billy The Church of England and the Second World War John D. Alexander,2025-08-28 In The Church of England and the Second World War John D Alexander analyses how historic Christian ethical traditions influenced the Church of England s contributions to British pre war and wartime public policy debates These traditions include just war holy war pacifism and Christian realism as deployed by such diverse Anglican figures as Cosmo Gordon Lang William Temple Herbert Hensley Henson George Bell Cyril Forster Garbett Charles Raven Percy Hartill Evelyn Underhill Vera Brittain and James Parkes Additional themes include war as divine judgement humanitarian intervention and Church of England responses to the Holocaust As a case study in the application of Christian ethical traditions this book makes vital connections between Anglican studies international relations theory and the diplomatic military and humanitarian challenges of the mid twentieth century Explorations in Christian Theology and Ethics Michelle J. Bartel,2016-04-22 Engaging variously with the legacy of Paul L Lehmann these essays argue for a reorientation in Christian theology that better honours the formative power of the gospel to animate and shape doctrine and witness as well as ethical and political life The authors explore key themes in Christian theology and ethics forgiveness discernment responsibility spirituality the present day tasks of theology and the role of faith in public life making plain the unabated importance of Lehmann s work at this juncture in contemporary theology The internationally recognized contributors draw crucial connections between the gospel of reconciliation the form of Christian theology and witness and the challenges of contemporary ethical and political reflection This book demonstrates why this close friend of Dietrich Bonhoeffer and author of Ethics in a Christian Context and The Transfiguration of Politics continues to influence generations of theologians in both the English speaking world and beyond Far Above Rubies Richard Symonds,1993 Religious Experience and the New Woman Joanna Dean,2007-01-10 In Religious Experience and the New Woman Joanna Dean traces the development of liberal spirituality in the early 20th century through the life and work of Lily Dougall 1858 1923 a New Woman novelist who became known as a religious essayist and Anglican modernist Dean examines the connections between Dougall s marginal position as a woman intellectual and her experiential combatively iconoclastic theology and demonstrates that through her writing and mentoring Dougall contributed to the shaping of modern spirituality Lily Dougall described religious experience the sense of the presence of God as the rock of her theology Dean observes the protean nature of this rock as Dougall moved from a submissive holiness faith to a mystical Mauricean sense of the Kingdom of God to the relational theology of personal idealism and reveals how psychology which appeared to provide scientific support for her religious beliefs eventually threatened to undermine her experiential faith

The Return to the Mystical Peter Tyler, 2011-06-16 The most recent mystical theology scholarship a discipline that has found new energy and influence This is examined through the lens of Wittgenstein's philosophy Women Breaking Boundaries Janet Kalven, 1999-10-28 Through memoir interviews and historical overview Women Breaking Boundaries chronicles the evolution in the United States of the Grail an organization of Catholic lay women dedicated to restoring the Christian spirit to all aspects of life Janet Kalven who has been part of the movement since its inception in the early 1940s traces its development through 1995 Mystical Encounters with the Natural World Paul Marshall, 2005-07-07 Some experiences of the natural world bring a sense of unity knowledge self transcendence eternity light and love This is the first detailed study of these intriguing phenomena Paul Marshall explores the circumstances characteristics and after effects of this important but relatively neglected type of mystical experience and critiques explanations that range from the spiritual and metaphysical to the psychoanalytic contextual and neuropsychological The theorists discussed include R M Bucke Edward Carpenter W R Inge Evelyn Underhill Rudolf Otto Sigmund Freud Aldous Huxley R C Zaehner W T Stace Steven Katz and Robert Forman as well as contemporary neuroscientists The book makes a significant contribution to current debates about the nature of mystical experience Performing the Sacred (Engaging Culture) Todd E. Johnson, Dale Savidge, 2009-08-01 Christian theatre has rich roots from ancient Hebrew dramas to medieval plays but where does it fit in today's media saturated society Performing the Sacred is a fascinating dialogue between a theologian and theatre artist offering the first full scale exploration of theatre and theology The authors illuminate the importance of live performance in a virtual world of preserving the ancient art form of storytelling by becoming the story Theologically theatre reflects Christianity's central doctrines incarnation community and presence enhancing the human creative experience and simultaneously engaging viewers on multiple levels This Engaging Culture series title will be a key volume for those interested in theatre as well as drama practitioners worship leaders and culture makers Pioneers of Modern Spirituality Jane Shaw, 2018-10-17 Distinguished Anglican theologian Jane Shaw presents four of the early 20th century Anglican innovators in spirituality and assesses how they might help us develop a renewed Anglican spirituality for our own spiritual but not religious age These four Anglicans Percy Deamer Evelyn Underhill Somerset Ward and Rose Macaulay are people who revived spirituality at a time like our own when people were questioning institutional religion Abraham Joshua Heschel Shai Held, 2013-11-04 Through Heschel Held's work reaches out more broadly to treat us to a profound discussion of the great issues in contemporary Jewish theology Arthur Green Hebrew College Rabbinical School Abraham Joshua Heschel 1907-1972 was a prolific scholar impassioned theologian and prominent activist who participated in the black civil rights movement and the campaign against the Vietnam War He has been hailed as a hero honored as a visionary and endlessly quoted as a devotional writer In this sympathetic yet critical examination Shai Held elicits the overarching themes and unity of Heschel's incisive and insightful thought Focusing on the idea of transcendence or the movement from self centeredness to God centeredness Held puts Heschel into dialogue with contemporary Jewish thinkers Christian theologians devotional writers and philosophers of religion Shai Held's book is a master class in one of the most significant Jewish voices of our time Tablet In this lucid and elegant study one of the keenest minds in Jewish theology in our time probes the vision of one of the most profound spiritual writers of the twentieth century uncovering a unity that others have missed and shedding light not only on Heschel but also on the characteristically modern habits of mind that impede the knowledge of God The book is especially valuable for the connections it draws with other philosophers theologians and spiritual writers Jewish and Christian Enthusiastically recommended Jon D Levenson Harvard University A thoughtful illuminating new study of Heschel's thought It is one of the many virtues of Shai Held's book that it helps us to place Heschel alongside not only Kaplan but Halevi Horovitz and Rav Nahman as well as the Psalmist Jewish Review of Books

Roads of Excess, Palaces of Wisdom Jeffrey J. Kripal, 2001-12 William Blake once wrote that The road of excess leads to the palace of wisdom Inspired by these poetic terms Jeffrey J Kripal reveals how the works of scholars of mysticism are often rooted in their own mystical experiences roads of excess which can both lead to important insights into these scholars works and point us to our own palaces of wisdom In his new book Kripal addresses the twentieth century study of mysticism as a kind of mystical tradition in its own right with its own unique histories discourses sociological dynamics and rhetorics of secrecy Fluidly combining autobiography and biography with scholarly exploration Kripal takes us on a tour of comparative mystical thought by examining the lives and works of five major historians of mysticism Evelyn Underhill Louis Massignou R C Zaehner Agehananda Bharati and Elliot Wolfson as well as relating his own mystical experiences The result Kripal finds is seven palaces of wisdom the religious power of excess the necessity of distance in the study of mysticism the relationship between the mystical and art the dilemmas of male subjectivity and modern heterosexuality a call for ethical criticism the paradox of the insider outsider problem in the study of religion and the magical power of texts and their interpretation An original and penetrating analysis of modern scholarship and scholars of mysticism Roads of Excess Palaces of Wisdom is also a persuasive demonstration of the way this scholarly activity is itself a mystical phenomenon

F. C. Baur's Synthesis of Böhme and Hegel Corneliu Simut, 2014-10-16 In this book Professor Simu shows how Christian theology started to be understood as a Gnostic philosophy of religion in the thought of the 19th century scholar F C Baur Although Baur was seen traditionally as a theologian and biblical exegete Simu argues that he was in fact a philosopher of religion and it was his philosophical reading of Christian theology that informed his biblical preoccupations Specifically Baur's perspective on Christian theology was heavily influenced by Jakob Böhme's esoteric theosophy and Hegel's religious philosophy in some key issues such as creation Lucifer dualism and the connection between spirit and matter coupled with that between philosophy and religion Sarah Coakley and the Future of Systematic Theology Janice McRandal, 2016-02-01 Sarah Coakley is one of the most exciting and creative figures in contemporary theology Her far reaching systematic vision of the Christian faith has integrated insights from systematic theology gender studies sociology patristics analytic philosophy of religion and evolutionary biology This integrated vision coheres around the mystical and contemplative core of Christian experience In her challenging revisionary work on themes such as gender sacrifice desire and the doctrine of the Trinity Coakley reconnects theological reflection with its contemplative roots and pushes toward a new approach to systematic theological reflection In Sarah Coakley and the Future of Systematic Theology scholars explore Coakley's multifaceted contribution to contemporary theology and consider the ways through which her work sets a new standard for systematic reflection on the Christian faith This volume brings together around Coakley's work a gathering of established and emerging scholars and asks critical questions of Coakley's work as we await three further volumes of her systematic theology
