Louise Brown, 2002-11 A history of Nepal from the Medieval Early Modern period through to the present day with particular attention to contemporary Nepal and the prospects for democracy The Buddhist Art of Living in Nepal Lauren Leve, 2016-08-05 Theravada Buddhism has experienced a powerful and far reaching revival in modern Nepal especially among the Newar Buddhist laity many of whom are reorganizing their lives according to its precepts practices and ideals This book documents these far reaching social and personal transformations and links them to political economic and cultural shifts associated with late modernity and especially neoliberal globalization Nepal has changed radically over the last century particularly since the introduction of liberal democracy and an open market economy in 1990 The rise of lay vipassana meditation has also dramatically impacted the Buddhist landscape Drawing on recently revived understandings of ethics as embodied practices of self formation the author argues that the Theravada turn is best understood as an ethical movement that offers practitioners ways of engaging and models for living in a rapidly changing world The book takes readers into the Buddhist reform from the perspectives of its diverse practitioners detailing devotees ritual and meditative practices their often conflicted relations to Vajrayana Buddhism and Newar civil society their struggles over identity in a formerly Hindu nation state and the political cultural institutional and moral reorientations that becoming a pure Buddhist as Theravada devotees understand themselves entails Based on more than 20 years of anthropological fieldwork this book is an important contribution to scholarly debates over modern Buddhism ethical practices and the anthropology of religion It is of interest to students and scholars of Asian Religion Anthropology Buddhism and Philosophy

The Rise of Gönpö Namgyel in Kham Yudru Tsomu,2014-12-11 This book examines the ascendancy of a minor nineteenth century Tibetan chieftain G npo Namgyel who hailed from Eastern Kham a frontier region situated between the power centers of Central Tibet and Qing China For most of the nineteenth century G npo Namgyel dominated the politics of Kham and posed a serious challenge to both the Qing and Lhasa regimes The study explores the dynamics of local and national politics as well as the tensions over power and authority between the two power centers Drawing upon both Tibetan and Chinese primary sources the study sheds new light on the governance and polity of the Kham region enhancing our understanding of Sino Tibetan conflicts regarding Kham from the nineteenth century up to the mid twentieth century The book focuses on local events rather than seeing history as shaped solely by the power centers The rise of G npo Namgyel is situated within the context of the local politics of Kham while taking into consideration its relations with mid nineteenth century Qing and Central Tibet It further explores the social cultural milieu that gave rise to this charismatic and controversial chief A series of questions emerge concerning traditional historiographical practice including the historical practices of Chinese and Tibetan scholars as well as approaches to the history of China and Tibet by Western scholars Probing into history from a local perspective adds a new dimension to the study of nineteenth century Sino Tibetan relations This research reveals that there is no single force determining history nor are persons in the periphery mere passive observers of national events The kings governors and chieftains in Kham were active in shaping their own regional identity and asserting their own terms in relation to the two power centers demonstrating that the peripheries are equal partners in central periphery relations rather than passive recipients as has commonly been represented in earlier historical narratives

Statemaking and Territory in South Asia Bernardo A. Michael,2012-12-15 Statemaking and Territory in South Asia Lessons from the Anglo Gorkha War 1814 1816 seeks to understand how European colonization transformed the organization of territory in South Asia through an examination of the territorial disputes that underlay the Anglo Gorkha War of 1814 1816 and subsequent efforts of the colonial state to reorder its territories The volume argues that these disputes arose out of older tribute taxation and property relationships that left their territories perpetually intermixed and with ill defined boundaries It also seeks to describe the long drawn out process of territorial reordering undertaken by the British in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries that set the stage for the creation of a clearly defined geographical template for the modern state in South Asia The Theatre of Nepal and the People Who Make It Carol C. Davis, Carol Elizabeth Davis, 2019-05-23 Examines Nepali theatre history artists personal lives and political and social conditions that shape theatrical expression in Nepal
