Modern Of Esthetics:

Modern Japanese Aesthetics Michael F. Marra, 2001-09-30 Modern Japanese Aesthetics is the first work in English on the history of the Japanese philosophy of art from its inception in the 1870s to the present. In addition to the historical information and discussion of aesthetic issues that appear in the introductions to each of the chapters, the book presents English translations of otherwise inaccessible major works on Japanese aesthetics beginning with a complete and annotated translation of the first work in the field, Nishi Amane's Bimyogaku (Setsu: The Theory of Aesthetics). In its four sections—The Subject of Aesthetics, Aesthetic Categories, Poetic Expression, Postmodernism and Aesthetics—Modern Japanese Aesthetics discusses the momentous efforts made by Japanese thinkers to master, assimilate, and transform Western philosophical systems to discuss their own literary and artistic heritage. Readers are introduced to debates between the unconditional supporters of Western ideas, Onishi Hajime, and more cautious approaches to the literary and artistic past, Okakura Kakuzo, Tsubouchi Shoyo. The institutionalization of aesthetics as an academic subject is discussed, and the work of some of Japan's most distinguished professional aestheticians, Onishi Yoshimori, Imamichi Tomonobu, philosophers Kusanagi Masao, Nishitani Keiji, Sakabe Megumi, and literary critics Karatani Kojin, is included. Modern Japanese Aesthetics is a sophisticated and energetic volume on the process that led to the construction of aesthetic categories used by Japanese and later Western scholars in discussing Japanese literature and arts. This important work will be essential reading for anyone concerned with the formation of a critical vocabulary in Japan. Modern Japanese Aesthetics: A Reader is a companion volume to A History of Modern Japanese Aesthetics. UH Press, 2001.

The Meaning of Modern Architecture Hans Rudolf Morgenthau, 2016-03-09 Using empathy as established by the Vienna School of Art History, complemented by insights on how the mind processes visual stimuli as demonstrated by late 19th century psychologists and art theorists, this book puts forward an innovative interpretative method of decoding the forms and spaces of Modern buildings. This method was first developed as scholars realized that the new abstract art appearing needed to be analysed differently than the previous figurative works. Since architecture experienced a similar development in the 1920s and 30s, this book argues that the empathetic method can also be used in architectural interpretation. While most existing scholarship tends to focus on formal and functional analysis, this book proposes that Modern architecture is too diverse to be reduced to a few common formal or ornamental features. Instead, by relying on the viewer's innate psycho-physiological perceptive abilities, sensual and intuitive understandings of composition, form, and space are emphasized. These aspects are especially significant because Modern Architecture lacks the traditional stylistic signs. Including building analyses, it shows how, by visually reducing cubical forms and spaces to linear configurations, the exteriors and interiors of Modern buildings can be interpreted via human perceptive abilities as dynamic movement systems commensurate with the new industrial transportation age This reveals an inner necessity these buildings express about themselves and their culture rather than just an explanation of how they are assembled and how they should be used The case studies highlight the contrasts between buildings designed by different architects rather than concentrating on the few features that relate them to the zeitgeist It analyses the buildings directly as the objects of study not indirectly as designs filtered through a philosophical or theoretical discourse The book demonstrates that with technology and science affecting culture

Classification of Desires in St. Thomas and in Modern Sociology ... Henry Ignatius Smith, 1915      Theological Aesthetics Richard Viladesau, 1999-03-25

This book explores the role of aesthetic experience in our perception and understanding of the holy Richard Viladesau's goal is to articulate a theology of revelation examined in relation to three principal dimensions of the aesthetic realm feeling and imagination beauty or taste and the arts After briefly considering ways in which theology itself can be imaginative or beautiful Viladesau concentrates on the theological significance of aesthetic data provided by each of the three major spheres of aesthetic perception and response Throughout the work the underlying question is how each of these spheres serves as a source however ambiguous of revelation Although he frames much of his argument in terms of Catholic theology from the Church Fathers to Karl Rahner Hans Urs von Balthasar Bernard Lonergan and David Tracy Viladesau also makes extensive use of ideas from the Protestant theologian of the arts Gerardus

van der Leeuw and draws insights from such diverse thinkers as Hans Goerg Gadamer Wolfhart Pannenberg and Iris Murdoch His analysis is enlivened by the artistic examples he selects the music of Mozart as contemplated by Karl Barth Schoenbergs opera Moses und Aron the sculptures of Chartres Cathedral poems by Rilke and Michelangelo and many others What emerges from this study is what Viladesau terms a transcendental theology of aesthetics In Thomistic terms he finds that beauty is not only a perfection but a transcendental That is any instance of beauty rightly perceived and rightly understood can be seen to imply divinely beautiful things as well In other words Viladesau argues God is the absolute and necessary condition for the possibility of beauty

Early Modern Aesthetics J. Henry Miller: The Inhuman Artist Indrek Männiste, 2013-06-20 Against skeptics Männiste argues that Miller does indeed have a philosophy of his own which underpins most of his texts It is demonstrated that this philosophy as a metaphysical sense of life forms a system the understanding of which is necessary to adequately explain even some of the most basic of Miller's ideas Building upon his notion of the inhuman artist Miller's philosophical foundation is revealed through his literary attacks against the metaphysical design of the modern age It is argued that by repudiating some of the most potent elements of late modernity such as history modern technology and an aesthetisized view of art Miller paves the way for overcoming Western metaphysics Finally it is showed that philosophically this aim is governed by Miller's idiosyncratic concept of art in which one is led towards self liberation through transcending the modern society and its dehumanizing pursuits
