Ngos In Indonesia Popular Movement Or Arm Of Government:

NGOs in Indonesia Philip John Eldridge,1989 The Politics of NGOs in Indonesia Bob S. Hadiwinata,2003-08-29 This book deals with two major issues how Indonesian NGOs survived under Suharto's authoritarian rule and how NGOs contributed to the promotion of democracy in the post Suharto era If NGOs are to change from development to movement in democratic post Suharto Indonesia they must adjust not only their management and working style but also their very ideology This comprehensive study will be an important book for scholars interested in Asian studies Indonesian politics and development studies Government-NGO Relations in Asia Noeleen Heyzer,1996-01-12 Governments and NGOs non governmental organizations in Asia face critical development challenges This volume examines ways to improve the policy environment for NGOs in Asia so that they may contribute more effectively to the development process The contributors identify the main factors which influence the policy environment for NGOs characterize and compare the political space for NGOs examine the roles that governments and international development agencies can play in supporting NGOs and propose possible strategies and policy guidelines for improving government NGO relations in Asia The State and NGOs Shinichi Shigetomi,2002 This volume examines the state NGO relationships in fifteen Asian countries State & NGOs Shinichi Shigetomi,2003-08-01 There is already much literature on the significance of NGOs in the development process However there has been little discussion on why the NGOs take on different forms in different countries This volume examines the state NGO relationships in fifteen countries It is not however a pot pourri of country reports All the contributors use the same analytical framework and focus on the key concept of the economic and political space for NGOs Readers will find that the analysis of the various NGO forms is well synthesized in this volume Women and Sharia Law in Northern Indonesia Dina Afrianty,2015-05-01 This book examines the life of women in the Indonesian province of Aceh where Islamic law was introduced in 1999 It outlines how women have had to face the formalisation of conservative understandings of sharia law in regulations and new state institutions over the last decade or so how they have responded to this forming non governmental organisations NGOs that have shaped local discourse on women's rights equality and status in Islam and how these NGOs have strategised demanded reform and enabled Acehnese women to take active roles in influencing the processes of democratisation and Islamisation that are shaping the province The book shows that although the formal introduction of Islamic law in Aceh has placed restrictions on women's freedom paradoxically it has not prevented them from engaging in public life It argues that the democratisation of Indonesia which allowed Islamisation to occur continues to act as an important factor shaping Islamisation's current trajectory that the introduction of Islamic law has motivated women's NGOs and other elements of civil society to become more involved in wider discussions about the future of sharia in Aceh and that Indonesia's recent decentralisation policy and growing local Islamism have enabled the emergence of different religious and local adat practices which do not necessarily correspond to overall national trends Women's Empowerment in Indonesia Sri Wiyanti Eddyono, 2018-10-26 The idea that development projects in poor countries are most effective when they harness the agency of women is a well known theme Most studies of women s agency in such projects however focus on the role of non governmental organizations in facilitating women s agency This book on the other hand based on extensive original research explores how women can effectively mobilize themselves on their own initiative The book considers poor people in informal settlements in Jakarta where government schemes for modernizing the city have often led to forced evictions The book examines different groups of women analyzes how they have challenged oppressive authority their husbands community leaders and local governments and provides detailed insights into women s attitudes and what has motivated them Overall the book provides a rich picture of women s empowerment and disempowerment The Politics of NGOs in Southeast Asia Gerard Clarke, 2006-05-17 The Politics of NGOs in Southeast Asia traces the history of the emergence of NGOs in the Philippines and southeast Asia and the political factors which encouraged this The main focus is on the period from the mid 1990s when NGOs first became a notable force in the region It documents the complex relations between NGOs and other political actors including the state organised religion foreign donors the business sector and underground insurgent groups and their impact on NGO strategy Popular Contention, Regime, and Transition Eitan Y. Alimi, Avraham Sela, Mario Sznajder, 2016-07-11 Through a diverse array of case studies from countries around the world Popular Contention Regime and Transition places the Arab Spring uprisings in comparative perspective demonstrating the similarities and parallels between contentious events in democratic and authoritarian like regimes By analyzing factors such as the set of initial conditions involved in the protest prospects of contention and forms of protest the volume generates powerful insights into the impetus dynamics and consequences of contention in all contexts Islam and the State in Indonesia Bahtiar Effendy, 2003 This book explains the relationship between Islam and the state and politics in contemporary Indonesia President Soeharto s departure from office in May 1998 brought tremendous and far reaching impacts to Indonesia s political landscape At least 181 new political parties came into being a sizeable portion of which use Islam as their symbol and ideological basis Indonesia William H. Frederick, Robert L. Worden, 1993 Restructuring World Politics Sanjeev Khagram, James V. Riker, Kathryn Sikkink, A comprehensive look at the global movements that are transforming international relations NGOs in Indonesia Kastorius Sinaga, 1994 Regionalism in Post-Suharto Indonesia Maribeth Erb, Carol Faucher, Priyambudi Sulistiyanto, 2013-01-11 Since the fall of the Suharto regime forces pressing for regional autonomy have strengthened in Indonesia with some people arguing that the country is in danger of disintegrating This book examines a range of issues connected with decentralization and regional autonomy in Indonesia especially focusing on various local contexts The multiple issues that are dealt with in this volume include ethnic revival and violence corruption collusion and nepotism the complexities of administrative reorganization and the forging of new networks reshaping of cultural identity new emerging social hierarchies and new conflicts over the use of environment Indonesia William C. Younce, 2001

Indonesia Issues Historical Background Bibliography Continuity and Change after Indonesia's Reforms Max Lane, 2019-04-09 This book addresses one of the most crucial questions in Southeast Asia did the election in Indonesia in 2014 of a seemingly populist oriented president alter the hegemony of the political and economic elites Was it the end of the paradox that the basic social contradictions in the country s substantial capitalist development were not reflected in organized politics by any independent representation of subordinated groups in spite of democratization Beyond simplified frameworks grounded scholars have now come together to discuss whether and how a new Indonesian politics has evolved in a number of crucial fields Their critical insights are a valuable contribution to the study of this question Professor Olle T rnuquist Department of Political Science University of Oslo A most valuable book for understanding the underpinnings of Indonesian politics in 2019 and beyond A great range of themes are included political parties ideologies political Islam leadership legitimacy the political middle class the politics of centre local relations corruption limited foreign policy reform Papua and youth activism The book has eleven chapters mostly by Indonesia based analysts plus a couple of wise old hands Max Lane s overview chapter is excellent Professor David Reeve School of Humanities and Languages University of New South Wales Non-government Organizations and Democratic Participation in Indonesia Philip John Eldridge, 1995 This book explores the complex relations between the Indonesian government and groups working for change in fields as diverse as health mobilization of women human rights and environment In the Realm of the Diamond Queen Anna Lowenhaupt Tsing, 2021-04-13 In this highly original and much anticipated ethnography Anna Tsing challenges not only anthropologists and feminists but all those who study culture to reconsider some of their dearest assumptions By choosing to locate her study among Meratus Dayaks a marginal and marginalized group in the deep rainforest of South Kalimantan Indonesia Tsing deliberately sets into motion the familiar and stubborn urban fantasies of self and other Unusual encounters with her remarkably creative and unconventional Meratus friends and teachers however provide the opportunity to rethink notions of tradition community culture power and gender and the doing of anthropology Tsing s masterful weaving of ethnography and theory as well as her humor and lucidity allow for an extraordinary reading experience for students scholars and anyone interested in the complexities of culture Engaging Meratus in wider conversations involving Indonesian bureaucrats family planners experts in international development Javanese soldiers American and French feminists Asian Americans right to life advocates and Western intellectuals Tsing looks not for consensus and coherence in Meratus culture but rather allows individual Meratus men and women to return our gaze Bearing the fruit from the lively contemporary conversations between anthropology and cultural studies In the Realm of the Diamond Queen will prove to be a model for thinking and writing about gender power and the politics of identity State-NGO Relations and the Politics of Sustainable Development in Indonesia James V. Riker, 1994 State and Civil Society in Indonesia Arief Budiman, 1990 Due to its popularity this collection of conference papers has been reprinted The text s title was also the focus of the conference which was held in 1988 at the Monash University in Australia The articles collected in this book are quite heterogeneous although they share the same concern namely democratization process in Indonesia
