Reading and Writing Ourselves into Being Claire White Putala, 2004-12-01

This text is a study of literacy based upon a set of correspondence the Osborne Family Papers 1812-1968 housed in the Special Collections Research Center of Syracuse University A collection of some 358 boxes it is particularly well suited for a study on literacy In addition to the voluminous public and private correspondence of prison reformer Thomas Mott Osborne 1859-1926 a vast and rich store of the family's literacy works have been carefully preserved In addition to hundreds of letters many between and among the women of the family it also abounds with other literacy documents of interest such as ledgers account books travelogues verse diaries and notes Unusually and quite valuably even scraps of children's writing have been preserved making possible studies regarding emergent literacy practices of the times
