SPIRITUAL WARFARE: A Struggle for Truth Russell Sharrock, 2007-03-01 Much in the Church is being touted as biblical spiritual warfare even to changing it from being spiritual to be geographical This book critics spiritual warfare teaching comparing it to the Bible and offers a biblically reasoned discussion on spiritual warfare Developing a Christian Apologetics Educational Program Douglas E. Potter, 2010-02-18 Many are expressing concern about the future of Christian youth today What can we do to help ensure they will keep their evangelical faith once they graduate from high school Can Christian apologetics provide an educational solution Developing A Christian Apologetics Educational Program explores issues certain to be encountered by secondary school educators who want to teach apologetics as a distinct subject of study either as a part of a Christian institutional or home school curriculum This book helps the apologist and educator blend their skills to soundly integrate the two subjects A solution is sought by providing a background and rationale for implementing an age level appropriate apologetics course at this critical level of Christian education This book is designed as a text to supplement those used in Christian education or applied apologetics courses each chapter successively builds upon the other to help develop an educational philosophy that supports the inclusion of apologetics in the curriculum A model is explained and materials are given to support the development of a curriculum in Christian Apologetics Education at the secondary level Practical ideas are explored and a sample unit of instruction is supplied to help the educator develop an evangelical approach to education that is in the classical apologetic tradition Unmasking the Cults Alan W. Gomes, 2009-12-15 In this introduction to the Zondervan Guide to Cults and Religious Movements Dr Gomes defines the characteristics of a cult of Christianity and why such a group subverts the search for spiritual truth He explains the emotional and spiritual appeal of cults who is susceptible and the techniques cult leaders use to attract members This book in dealing with a wide range of issues relating to cults and religious movements in general complements the other books in the series all of which focus on specific religious groups Why this series This is an age when countless groups and movements old and new mark the religious landscape in our culture leaving many people confused or uncertain in their search for spiritual truth and meaning Because few people have the time or opportunity to research these movements fully these books provide essential information and insights for their spiritual journeys Except for this book each book in the series has five sections A concise introduction to the group An overview of the group s theology in its own words Tips for witnessing effectively to members of the group A bibliography with sources for further study A comparison chart that shows the essential differences between biblical Christianity and the group The writers of these volumes are well qualified to present clear and reliable information and help us discern religious truth from falsehood

Who Are You To Judge? Erwin W. Lutzer, 2008-09-01 A church that has made its peace with the world can no longer affect it As 21st century Christians we have settled down to a complacent form of faith that demands very little of us and thus makes very little impact on the world When secular values infiltrate the church we accept them without a twinge of conscience and congratulate ourselves on our tolerance We believe that we no longer have the right to challenge secular trends and decisions in or out of the church Erwin Lutzer looks at today s world and confronts us with our responsibility as believers in the church of Jesus Christ to again be a force for what is right
