Paths Toward A Clearing Radical Empiricism And Ethnographic Inquiry:

Paths Toward a Clearing Michael Jackson, 1989 edition unseen 12 95 traditions bringing into being new modes of understanding Paper Anthropology and particularly ethnography is torn between two quests one to capture the diversity of social life and the other to discover universal principles structuring that diversity Jackson examines these quests within the context of ethnographic fieldwork focusing on the relationship between ethnographers and the people they study He is concerned with defining the anthropological project as something more than the projection of the anthropologist's traditions and concerns onto an alien culture Rather he would have the project open a genuine dialogue between people from different cultures or Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Paths Toward a Clearing Michael Jackson, 1989

Affective Dimensions of Fieldwork and Ethnography Thomas Stodulka, Samia Dinkelaker, Ferdiansyah Thajib, 2019-08-20 This book illustrates the role of researchers' affects and emotions in understanding and making sense of the phenomena they study during ethnographic fieldwork Whatever methods ethnographers apply during field research however close they get to their informants and no matter how involved or detached they feel fieldwork pushes them to constantly negotiate and reflect their subjectivities and positionalities in relation to the persons communities spaces and phenomena they study The book highlights the idea that ethnographic fieldwork is based on the attempt of communication mutual understanding and perspective taking on behalf of and together with those studied With regard to the institutionally silenced yet informally emphasized necessity of ethnographers' emotional immersion into the local worlds they research defined as emic perspective narrating through the eyes of the Other seeing the world from the informants point of view etc this book pursues the disentanglement of affect related disciplinary conventions by means of transparent vivid and systematic case studies and their methodological discussion The book provides nineteen case studies on the relationship between methodology intersubjectivity and emotion in qualitative and ethnographic research and includes six section introductions to the pivotal issues of role conflict reciprocity intimacy and care illness and dying failing and attuning and emotion regimes in fieldwork and ethnography Affective Dimensions of Fieldwork and Ethnography is a must have resource for post graduate students and researchers across the disciplines of social and cultural anthropology medical anthropology psychological anthropology cultural psychology critical theory cultural phenomenology and cultural sociology Dialogues with Ethnography Jan Blommaert, 2018-01-05 This book persuasively argues the case that ethnography must be viewed as a full theoretical system rather than just as a research method Blommaert traces the influence of his reading of classic works about ethnography on his thinking and discusses a range of authors who have influenced the development of a theoretical system of ethnography or whose work might be productively used to develop it further Authors examined include Hymes Scollon Kress Bourdieu Bakhtin and Lefebvre This book will be required reading for students and scholars involved in ethnographic research or those interested in the theory of ethnography How to Read Ethnography Paloma Gay y Blasco, Huon Wardle, 2019-04-08 How to Read Ethnography is an essential guide to approaching anthropological texts It helps students to cultivate the skills they need to critically examine and understand how ethnographies are built up as well as to think anthropologically and develop an anthropological imagination of their own The authors reveal how ethnographically informed anthropology plays a distinctive and valuable role in comprehending the complexity of the world we live in This fully revised second edition includes fresh excerpts from key texts for analysis and comparison along with lucid explanations In addition to concerns with argument authority and the relationship between theory and data the book engages with the purpose value and accountability of ethnographic texts as well as with their reception and usage A brand new chapter looks at the kinds of collaboration between informants consultants and anthropologists that go into the making of ethnographic writing

Films and Contemporary Anthropology Lorraine Mortimer,2019-09-12 A look at a prize winning documentarian whose work with aboriginal Australians and others united the fields of film and anthropology in the 1960s and 70s In Roger Sandall s Films and Contemporary Anthropology Lorraine Mortimer argues that while social anthropology and documentary film share historic roots and goals particularly on the continent of Australia their trajectories have tended to remain separate This book reunites film and anthropology through the works of Roger Sandall a New Zealand born filmmaker and Columbia University graduate who was part of the vibrant avant garde and social documentary film culture in New York in the 1960s Mentored by Margaret Mead in anthropology and Cecile Starr in fine arts Sandall was eventually hired as the one man film unit at the newly formed Australian Institute of Aboriginal Studies in 1965 In the 1970s he became a lecturer in anthropology at the University of Sydney Sandall won First Prize for Documentary at the Venice Film Festival in 1968 yet his films are scarcely known even in Australia now Mortimer demonstrates how Sandall s films continue to be relevant to contemporary discussions in the fields of anthropology and documentary studies She ties exploration of the making and restriction of Sandall s aboriginal films and his nonrestricted films made in Mexico Australia and India to the radical history of anthropology and the resurgence today of an expanded existential phenomenological anthropology that encompasses the vital connections between humans animals things and our environment The Ashgate Research Companion to Anthropology Andrew J. Strathern,2016-03-03 This companion provides an indispensable overview of contemporary and classical issues in social and cultural anthropology Although anthropology has expanded greatly over time in terms of the diversity of topics in which its practitioners engage many of the broad themes and topics at the heart of anthropological thought remain perennially vital such as understanding order and change diversity and continuity and conflict and co operation in the reproduction of social life Bringing together leading scholars in the field the contributors to this volume provide us with thoughtful and fruitful ways of thinking about a number of contemporary and long standing arenas of work where both established and more recent researchers are engaged The companion begins by exploring classic topics such as Religion Rituals Language and Culture Violence and Gender This is followed by a focus on current developments within the discipline including Human Rights Globalization and Diasporas and Cosmopolitanism It provides an interesting and challenging look at the state of current thinking in anthropology serving as a rich resource for scholars and students alike

The Varieties of Magical Experience Lynne L. Hume Ph.D.,Nevill Drury,2013-01-24 A rare combination of personal and academic this book showcases the myriad avenues for transcending the boundaries of reality through direct sensory experience The Varieties of Magical Experience Indigenous Medieval and Modern Magic provides a comprehensive volume that examines magic in all its aspects Through detailed case studies verbatim accounts of personal experiences and first hand experience from the authors own active participation in many alternative religious rituals and ceremonies this unique book reveals how magic can be a universal phenomenon that crosses cultural historical and spatial boundaries The work is organized in five sections that embrace several broad themes indigenous magical and shamanic practices medieval witchcraft sorcery and hermetic magic and contemporary Western magical practices including the role of sexuality trance and meditation The introductory section explores the idea of magic other realities and the employment of all the senses while the final section discusses contemporary issues of ecology and cybermagic The authors give voice to the powerful emotions and feelings that result from a magical encounter providing engaging and accessible information to general readers while those well versed in the opaque world of magic and occultism consciousness studies and imaginal and disembodied realms will appreciate the book s content at a deeper level Practitioner-Based Research Dawn Freshwater,John Lees,2018-03-26 Practitioner Based Research is concerned in particular with the research which is undertaken by healthcare practitioners and the evidence which they generate as a result of investigating their practice In so doing it recognizes that as well as working in academic life practitioner researchers are often working as practitioners outside the Academy It argues that the work of practitioner researchers has a significant contribution to make to healthcare research and so needs to be disseminated further in order to create balanced research communities within the healthcare professions This book will help academic researchers to broaden the limited ontological and epistemological perspectives of their research It will also encourage healthcare practitioners who have not been trained academically to develop their research skills and to realize that they are actually researching in their practice on a day to day basis Finally it will provide a degree of transparency about therapeutic processes to help clients and patients to see aspects of professional practice and development which are usually hidden from them

Building Communication Theories Fred L. Casmir, 2013-10-16 Concern with various matters related to humans as they communicate has led to an increase in both research and theorizing during the second half of the 20th century As a matter of fact so many scholars and so many disciplines have become involved in this process that it is virtually impossible to understand and appreciate all that has been accomplished so far This book focuses on one important aspect of human sense making theory building and strives to clarify the thesis that theories do not develop in some sort of social intellectual or cultural vacuum They are necessarily the products of specific times insights and mindsets Theories dealing with the process of communication or communicating are tied to socio cultural value systems and historic factors that influence individuals in ways often inadequately understood by those who use them The process orientation of this book inevitably leads to an emphasis on the perceptions of human beings Thus the focus shifts from the subject or area called communication to the act of communicating Finally this volume offers insight into how the process of human sense making has evolved in those academic fields commonly identified as communication rhetoric speech communication or speech within specific socio cultural settings
