

A cinematic still from a film. In the foreground, a woman with dark hair is seen in profile, looking towards a man. Her right hand is raised, palm facing him, with a ring on her ring finger. The man, in the background, is looking at her. They appear to be in a car, with the interior and a window visible. The lighting is soft and dramatic.

broad sections the first remaking as industrial category deals with issues of production including commerce and authors the second remaking as textual category considers genre plots and structures and the third remaking as critical category investigates issues of reception including audiences and institutions The film remake emerges as a particular case of repetition a function of cinematic and discursive fields that is maintained by historically specific practices such as copyright law and authorship canon formation and media literacy film criticism and re viewing These points are made through the lively discussion of numerous historical and contemporary examples including the remaking of classics Double Indemnity All That Heaven Allows Psycho foreign art films Yojimbo Solaris Le Samourai cult movies Gun Crazy Planet of the Apes Dawn of the Dead and television properties Batman The Addams Family Charlie's Angels
