Riding The Demon On The Road In West Africa:

Riding the Demon Peter Chilson, 2015-03-15 In Niger where access to rail and air travel requires overcoming many obstacles roads are the nation's lifeline For a year in the early 1990s Peter Chilson traveled this desert country by automobile to experience West African road culture He crisscrossed the same roads again and again with bush taxi driver Issoufou Garba in order to learn one driver's story inside and out He hitchhiked riding in cotton trucks and traveled with other bush taxi drivers truckers road engineers an anthropologist Niger's only licensed woman commercial driver and a customs officer The road in Africa says Chilson is more than a direction or a path to take Once you've booked passage and taken your seat the road becomes the center of your life Hurling along at eighty miles an hour in a bush taxi equipped with bald tires no windows and sometimes no doors travelers realize that they've surrendered everything Chilson uses the road not to reinforce Africa's worn image of decay and corruption but to reveal how people endure political and economic chaos poverty and disease The road has reflected the struggle for survival in Niger since the first automobile arrived there and it remains a useful metaphor for the fight for stability and prosperity across Africa

Riding the Demon Peter Chilson, 1999 On African roads car wrecks are as common as mile markers and the wreckage can stand in monument for months or years a minibus upended against a tree as if attempting escape a charred truck overturned in a ditch Chilson uses the road not to reinforce the worn image of Africa's decay but to reveal how people endure political and economic chaos poverty and disease

Riding the Demon Peter Chilson, 2015 For a year in the early 1990s Peter Chilson traveled across Niger by automobile to experience West African road culture In this compelling story he uses the road not to reinforce Africa's worn image of decay and corruption but to reveal how people endure political and economic chaos poverty and disease Pacific

Automobilism Gijs Mom, 2022-09-13 The beginning of the 21st century has seen important shifts in mobility cultures around the world as the West's media-driven car culture has contrasted with existing local mobilities from rickshaws in India and minibuses in Africa to cycling in China In this expansive volume historian Gijs Mom explores how contemporary mobility has been impacted by social political and economic forces on a global scale as in light of local mobility cultures the car as an adventure machine seems to lose cultural influence in favor of the car's status character Near Death in the Desert Cecil Kuhne, 2011-06-08 A travel anthology that gathers the best adventure stories from the world's most barren landscapes Ranging from 19th century explorers to modern day journalists these desert trekkers deal with everything from deserting men corrupt armed soldiers and Nigerian bush taxis to suspicious natives stubborn camels and debilitating sunburn These thirteen tales are more than suspenseful they also show how life can survive in the most punishing climates The night was heavy with foreboding The rain which had been spitting down on us during the late afternoon grew heavier It hurled into our faces borne by a wind that was now gusting between the dunes at full force It was the worst storm we had encountered and Ned was out in it alone Justin Marozzi South from Barbary Also featuring Robyn Davidson's Desert Places Robyn Davidson

Luning, Klaas Van Walraven, 2009 In the early 1900s the motor vehicle car bus lorry or motor cycle was introduced in sub Saharan Africa Initially the plaything and symbol of colonial domination the motor vehicle transformed the economic and social life of the continent Indeed the motor vehicle is arguably the single most important factor for change in Africa in the twentieth century A factor for change that thus far has been neglected in research and literature Yet its impact extends across the totality of human existence from ecological devastation to economic advancement from cultural transformation to political change through to a myriad of other themes This edited volume of eleven contributions by historians anthropologists and social and political scientists explores aspects of the social history and anthropology of the motor vehicle in Africa

The Making of the African Road, 2017-02-06 The Making of the African Road offers an account of the long distance road in Africa Being a latecomer to automobility and far from saturated mass mobility the African road continues to be open for diverging interpretations and creative appropriations The road regime on the continent is thus still under construction and it is made in more than one sense physically socially politically morally and cosmologically The contributions to this volume provide first hand anthropological insights into the infrastructural economic historical as well as experiential dimensions of the emerging orders of the African road Contributors are Kurt Beck Amiel Bize Michael Borge Luca Ciabbarri Gabriel Klaeger Mark Lamont Tilman Musch Michael Stasik Rami Wadelnour The Rough Guide to First-Time Africa Emma Gregg, Richard Trillo, 2011-04-01 The Rough Guide First Time Africa tells you everything you need to know before you go to Africa from visas and vaccinations to budgets and packing It will help you plan the best possible trip with advice on when to go and what not to miss and how to avoid trouble on the road You ll find insightful information on what tickets to buy where to stay what to eat and how to stay healthy and save money in Africa The Rough Guide First Time Africa includes insightful overviews of each African country highlighting the best places to visit with country specific websites clear maps suggested reading and budget information Be inspired by the things not to miss section whilst useful contact details will help you plan your route All kinds of advice and anecdotes from travellers who ve been there and done it will make travelling stress free The Rough Guide First Time Africa has everything you need to get your journey underway Burkina Faso Katrina Manson, James Knight, 2006 The first English language guide to Burkina Faso brings to life some of Africa's most exciting cultural celebrations and best wildlife experience while also covering this stable country's varied history architecture and stunning artisanship Matatu Kenda Mutongi, 2017-06-26 This prize winning study takes a unique ethnographic approach to reconstructing the history of Nairobi's privately owned urban transport Martin A Klein Prize Committee American Historical Association Drive the streets of Nairobi and you are sure to see many matatus colorful minibuses that transport huge numbers of people around the city Once ramshackle affairs held together with duct tape matatus today are name brand vehicles maxed out with aftermarket detailing They can be stately black or extravagantly colored sporting names slogans and airbrushed portraits of everyone from Kanye West to Barack Obama In this richly interdisciplinary book Kenda Mutongi explores the history of the matatu from the 1960s to the present As Mutongi shows matatus offer a window onto the socioeconomic and political conditions of late twentieth century Africa In their diversity of idiosyncratic designs they reflect divergent aspects of Kenyan life from rapid urbanization and the transition to democracy to organized crime entrepreneurship social insecurity and popular culture Offering a shining model of interdisciplinary analysis Mutongi mixes historical ethnographic literary linguistic and economic approaches to tell the story of the matatu and explore the entrepreneurial aesthetics of the postcolonial world Writing Abroad Peter Chilson, Joanne B. Mulcahy, 2017-10-13 Tell me all about your trip It's a request that follows travelers as they head out into the world and one of the first things they hear when they return When we leave our homes to explore the wider world we feel compelled to capture the experiences and bring the story home But for those who don't think of themselves as writers putting experiences into words can be more stressful than inspirational Writing Abroad is meant for travelers of all backgrounds and writing levels a student embarking on overseas study a retiree realizing a dream of seeing China a Peace Corps worker in Kenya All can benefit from documenting their adventures whether on paper or online Through practical advice and adaptable exercises this guide will help travelers hone their observational skills conduct research and interviews choose an appropriate literary form and incorporate photos and videos into their writing Writing about travel is more than just safeguarding memories it can transform experiences and tease out new realizations With Writing Abroad travelers will be able to deepen their understanding of other cultures and write about that new awareness in clear and vivid prose Postcolonial Automobility Lindsey B. Green-Simms, 2017-10-24 For more than a century cars have symbolized autonomous unfettered mobility and an increasingly global experience And yet they are often used differently outside the centers of global capitalism This pioneering book considers how through the lens of the automobile we can assess the pleasures dangers and limits of global modernity in West Africa Through new and provocative readings of famous plays novels and films as well as recent popular videos Postcolonial Automobility reveals the surprising ways in which automobility in the region is at once an everyday practice an ethos a fantasy of autonomy and an affective activity intimately tied to modern social life Lindsey B Green Simms begins with the history of motorization in West Africa from the colonial era to the decolonizing decades after World War II and addresses the tragedy of car accidents through a close reading of Wole Soyinka's 1965 postindependence play The Road Shifting to screen media she discusses Ousmane Sembene's Xala and Jean Pierre Bekolo's Quartier Mozart and reviews popular low budget Nollywood films Finally Green Simms considers how feminist texts rewrite and work in dialogue with the male centered films and novels where the car stands in for patriarchal power and capitalist achievement Providing a unique perspective on technology in Africa one refusing to be confined to narratives of either underdevelopment or inevitable progress and covering a broad range of interdisciplinary material Postcolonial Automobility will appeal not only to scholars and students of African literature and cinema but also to those in postcolonial and globalization studies African,

American David Peterson del Mar, 2017-06-15 Africa has long gripped the American imagination From the Edenic wilderness of Edgar Rice Burroughs's Tarzan novels to the black Zion of Garvey's Back to Africa movement all manner of Americans whether white or black male or female have come to see Africa as an idealized stage on which they can fashion new more authentic selves In this remarkable panoramic work David Peterson del Mar explores the ways in which American fantasies of Africa have evolved over time as well as the role of Africans themselves in subverting American attitudes to their continent Spanning seven decades from the post war period to the present day and encompassing sources ranging from literature film and music to accounts by missionaries aid workers and travel writers African American is a fascinating deconstruction of Africa as it exists in the American mindset The Fine Art of Literary Fist-Fighting Lee Gutkind, 2024-01-01 An account of
