Right Toys A Guide To Selecting The Best Toys For Children:

The Right Toys Helen F. Boehm, 1986 Toys R Us Toy Guide to Choosing the Right Toys for Your Child Sandy MacDonald, 1996 An essential resource for making informed decisions when it comes to toy purchases this guide includes information on safety standards cost parameters and toy manufacturing and how they affect today's hottest toys Divided into categories such as dolls games and puzzles and infant preschool each section reviews products safety issues buying advice suggestions for safe use suggestions for parental interaction and much much more Encyclopedia of Early Childhood Education Doris Pronin Fromberg, Leslie R. Williams, 2012-05-23 This Encyclopedia is a reference work about young children in the USA designed for use by policy makers community planners parents of young children teacher and early childhood educators programme and school administrators among others The field of early childhood education has been affected by changes taking place in the nation's economy demographics schools communities and families that influence political and professional decisions These diverse historical political economic socio cultural intellectual and educational influences on early childhood education have hindered the development of a clear definition of the field The Encyclopedia provides an opportunity to define the field against the background of these influences and relates the field of early childhood education to its diverse contexts and to the cultural and technological resources currently affecting it Childhoods & Leisure Utsa Mukherjee, 2023-09-12 This edited volume brings together interdisciplinary scholarship on children's everyday leisure from across the globe addressing key questions around children's agency rights child adult relations and social change It is positioned to inaugurate a new frontier of research within leisure studies Leisure theory has historically been adult centric and based in the global north and consequently children's lived experiences of leisure have remained marginal to theory building exercises within leisure studies since its inception As the call for decolonizing leisure studies grows this book champions a cross cultural and social justice agenda that does not privilege global north childhoods but acknowledges the multiplicity of lived childhoods across the globe and their inter connections By drawing attention to children's leisure across multiple genres such as organized leisure sports play and digital leisure among others this edited volume drives a new wave of research that speaks simultaneously to leisure studies and childhood studies and thereby advances the intellectual remit of global leisure studies Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science Allen Kent, Harold Lancour, Jay E. Daily, 1981-06-01 The Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science provides an outstanding resource in 33 published volumes with 2 helpful indexes This thorough reference set written by 1300 eminent international experts offers librarians information computer scientists bibliographers documentalists systems analysts and students convenient access to the techniques and tools of both library and information science Impeccably researched cross referenced alphabetized by subject and generously illustrated the Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science integrates the essential theoretical and practical information accumulating in this rapidly growing field Parenting Across the Digital Divide Dr. Helen

Boehm,2018-01-15 My purpose for doing this book is to open a dialogue with parents to gain a deeper understanding of the internet and its effects on their childrens behavior I hope to shine a light on the impact of digital exposure to the modeling of prosocial and antisocial behavior the blurring of fantasy and reality the virtual victimization of youngsters and the sexualization and pornification of the media Masks and Human Connections Luísa Magalhães,Cândido Oliveira

Martins,2023-01-31 This interdisciplinary collection explores four distinct perspectives about the mask as object of use for protection identity and disguise In part I contributors address human identities within collective social performance with chapters on performativity and the far right and masked identities in political resistance and communication Part II focuses on the mask as a signifying object with strong representational challenges exploring representations in festivals literature and film Part III investigates the ambiguous use of the mask as a protective and concealing element delving into visual culture and digital social media contexts Finally Part VI draws on the work of Levinas and Deleuze to investigate a philosophical view of the mask that addresses memory and ethics within intersubjective relationships Questioning the contemporary world using communication sociology visual culture and philosophical theory the volume provides a pedagogical and formative perspective on the mask Big Questions and Great Answers in Entrepreneurship Research

Alain Fayolle,Sandrine Le Pontois,R. D.M. Pelly,2024-10-03 Big Questions and Great Answers in Entrepreneurship Research underscores the progress that has been made and the challenges that remain within the field of entrepreneurship research by considering the field s rapid expansion over the last thirty years Play in a Covid Frame Anna Beresin,Julia

Bishop,2023-06-01 During the international coronavirus lockdowns of 2020 2021 millions of children youth and adults found their usual play areas out of bounds and their friends out of reach How did the pandemic restrict everyday play and how did the pandemic offer new spaces and new content This unique collection of essays documents the ways in which communities around the world harnessed play within the limiting frame of Covid 19 Folklorists Anna Beresin and Julia Bishop adopt a multidisciplinary approach to this phenomenon bringing together the insights of a geographically and demographically diverse range of scholars practitioners and community activists The book begins with a focus on social and physical landscapes before moving onto more intimate portraits of play among the old and young including coronavirus themed games and novel toy inventions Finally the co authors explore the creative shifts observed in frames of play ranging from Zoom screens to street walls This singular chronicle of coronavirus play will be of interest to researchers and students of developmental psychology childhood studies education playwork sociology anthropology and folklore as well as to toy museum and landscape designers This book will also be of help to parents professional organizations educators and urban planners with a postscript of concrete suggestions advocating for the essential role of play in a post pandemic world
