Adam Leong Kok Wey

Ring Of Fire Australian Guerrilla Operations Against The Japanese In The Second World War:

The British Empire and the Second World War Ashley Jackson, 2006-03-09 In 1939 Hitler went to war not just with Great Britain he also went to war with the whole of the British Empire the greatest empire that there had ever been In the years since 1945 that empire has disappeared and the crucial fact that the British Empire fought together as a whole during the war has been forgotten All the parts of the empire joined the struggle and were involved in it from the beginning undergoing huge changes and sometimes suffering great losses as a result The war in the desert the defence of Malta and the Malayan campaign and the contribution of the empire as a whole in terms of supplies communications and troops all reflect the strategic importance of Britain's imperial status Men and women not only from Australia New Zealand and India but from many parts of Africa and the Middle East all played their part Winston Churchill saw the war throughout in imperial terms The British Empire and the Second World War emphasises a central fact about the Second World War that is often forgotten

Ring of Fire Dick Crofton Horton, 1983 Killing the Enemy Adam Leong Kok Wey, 2015-09-28 During World War II the British formed a secret division the SOE or Special Operations Executive in order to support resistance organisations in occupied Europe It also engaged in targeted killing the assassination of enemy political and military leaders The unit is famous for equipping its agents with tools for use behind enemy lines such as folding motorbikes miniature submarines and suicide pills disguised as coat buttons But its activities are now also gaining attention as a forerunner to today's extra legal killings of wartime enemies in foreign territory for example through the use of unmanned drones Adam Leong's work evaluates the effectiveness of political assassination in wartime using four examples Heydrich's assassination in Prague Operation Anthropoid the daring kidnap of Major General Kreipe in Crete by Patrick Leigh Fermor the failed attempt to assassinate Rommel known as Operation Flipper and the American assassination of General Yamamoto Soldiers and Aliens June Factor, 2022-06-15 Four thousand Australian soldiers in World War II who signed up for service were never to fire a weapon Their work was essential for the war effort but they were aliens non British subjects many born in other countries Scholars and peasants musicians and factory workers communists and royalists Jews and Catholics animists and atheists they all laboured under standard strict Army regulations living in tents and huts loading and unloading trains working the wharves cutting timber and transporting goods They raised money for good causes gave public concerts and staged theatre performances And every day they feared for loved ones caught up in the horror of occupied Europe and Asia They were a multicultural force in the Army long before the term multicultural was coined Largely forgotten their contribution to Australia during World War II makes for an engrossing story and provides new insights into a critical period of Australian history Ring of Fire Dick Crofton Horton, 1983 Somewhere in Asia Prue Torney-Parlicki, 2000 From 1941 to 1975 as a series of military conflicts gripped Asia and the Pacific Australian journalism was dominated by war reporting from the region Torney Parlicki history U of Melbourne argues that the reporting
