Environmental Impact of Present Land Use Jose Tomas Mulleady,1994 Federal Register ,1975-04-21 Tell the Truth as It Is Revd A.A. Harriott,2014-05-01 As a youth born and raised in Jamaica and through some African history we were taught in school we acquired very little knowledge of the history of black nations I also learned and accepted a Christ like way of life which up to this present time remains the major force in my life on this planet and has also given me a great feeling of passion for all people We were financially poor but always had plenty of food and drink As a country boy when I left school I had no real concept of time but was acutely aware of day and night We did not know anything about slavery but one of the homes in which I was brought up was one of many slavery camps Some of the chains that were used to bind young children to their parents whilst they were working on the plantations later became our childhood toys The manner in which many of us were chastised was an indication of the upbringing that our parents were handing down to us because they knew of no other way

The Tourmaline Expedition Albert Gybbon-Spilsbury,1906 It was in the autumn of 1896 that my attention was first drawn to the opening of the Sus country In my earlier travels I had visited Morocco and had heard as every other visitor to that country no doubt has heard in his time wonderful accounts of the wealth of those regions to the south of the Atlas Mountains which supply Morocco with its finest cattle and its most adventurous men As acrobats the Susi have long enjoyed a reputation without rival throughout Europe and America and in Morocco proper nearly all the schoolmasters hail from that land of mystery To me there was always a strange fascination in the fact that within five days steam from England there was a land as little known and as completely fenced in from the outer world as Thibet In these days of rapid and easy communication it seemed a complete anomaly that a land so near to our own shores should be shut out from all commercial or social communication with the civilised world and that not only by the natural difficulties of access but by the will of its assumed suzerain the Sultan of Morocco and the supine toleration of the Powers p 7
