Ripley Bogle Robert McLiam Wilson,2014-02-18 Ripley Bogle one of the most memorable Irish characters since Leopold Bloom roamed Dublin is a self-proclaimed bum an excoriating and expectorating Irish expatriate from Belfast and a Cambridge dropout Penniless but unbowed he wanders the streets of London treating the reader to the ruminations of his teeming romping imagination Here lies the mystery and wonder of this book How could anyone of Bogle's prodigious intelligence and powers of perception end up in vagabondage Winner of the Irish Book Award Ripley Bogle spreads before us a fabulous beggar's banquet a running commentary of bawdy brilliance and dyspeptic hilarity No cow is too sacred for Bogle After acquainting us with his birth and family the usual cast from subhuman Gaelic scumbuckets he relives his past the bathetic dribble of error and reparation describes his first experiences with love the silken clock that backs the witless levitation of the penis and analyzes his Irishness crap promoted by Americans and professors of English literature Though he gnaws at the fringes of society Bogle's keen mind can skewer its fat heart Chain smoking his way around London young Bogle looks to stitch together the pieces of his ragged life to forgive himself his sins and to find a place of warmth within his own dark thoughts Skyhorse Publishing as well as our Arcade Yucca and Good Books imprints are proud to publish a broad range of books for readers interested in fiction novels novellas political and medical thrillers comedy satire historical fiction romance erotic and love stories mystery classic literature folklore and mythology literary classics including Shakespeare Dumas Wilde Cather and much more While not every title we publish becomes a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller we are committed to books on subjects that are sometimes overlooked and to authors whose work might not otherwise find a home

Literary Representations of Precarious Work, 1840 to the Present Michiel Rys,Bart Philipsen,2022-01-03 Literary Representations of Precarious Work 1840 to the Present sheds new light on literary representations of precarious labor from 1840 until the present With contributions by experts in American British French German and Swedish culture this book examines how literature has shaped the understanding of socio economic precarity a concept that is mostly used to describe living and working conditions in our contemporary neoliberal and platform economy This volume shows that authors tried to develop new poetic tools and literary techniques to translate the experience of social regression and insecurity to readers While some authors critically engage with normative models of work by zooming in on the physical and affective backlash of being a precarious worker others even find inspiration in their own situations as writers trying to survive Furthermore this volume shows that precarity is not an exclusively contemporary phenomenon and that literature has always been a central medium to critically register forms of social insecurity By retrieving parts of that archive this volume paves the way to a historically nuanced view on contemporary regimes of precarious work

Sub-versions Ciaran Ross, 2010 From Swift's repulsive shit flinging Yahoos to Beckett's dying but never quite dead moribunds Irish literature has long been perceived as being synonymous with subversion and all forms of subversiveness But what constitutes a subversive text or a subversive writer in twenty first century Ireland The essays in this volume set out to redefine and rethink the subversive potential of modern Irish literature Crossing three central genres one common denominator running through these essays whether dealing with canonical writers like Yeats Beckett and Flann O'Brien or lesser known contemporary writers like Sebastian Barry or Robert McLiam Wilson is the continual questioning of Irish identity Irishness going from its colonial paradigm and stereotype of the subaltern in MacGill to its uneasy implications for gender representation in the contemporary novel and the contemporary drama A subsidiary theme inextricably linked to the identity problematic is that of exile and its radical heritage for all Irish writing irrespective of its different genres Sub Versions offers a cross cultural and trans national response to the expanding interest in Irish and postcolonial studies by bringing together specialists from different national cultures and scholarly contexts Ireland Britain France and Central Europe The order of the essays is by genre This study is aimed both at the general literary reader and anyone particularly interested in Irish Studies

Postcolonial and Gender Perspectives in Irish Studies Marisol Morales Ladrón, 2007 This book represents an attempt to tackle questions related to fragmented and often conflicting ideologies within Irish studies Although a collective outcome with contributions in English and Spanish its unifying concern has been the appliance of postcolonial and gender perspectives to the analysis of Irish literature prose drama and verse and cinema as well as to the aesthetic production of both the Republic of Ireland and Northern Ireland Along the volume while some authors have chosen to delve into the broad theoretical debate concerning the position of Irish studies within postcolonial and feminist theories others offer detailed examinations of specific literary pieces and authors that fit in this panorama All in all the chapters are wide and diverse enough to trace a spatial and temporal map of the evolution of these paradigms within contemporary Irish studies North and South of the border

Twenty-first-century British and Irish Novelists Michael R. Molino,2003 This award winning multi volume series is dedicated to making literature and its creators better understood and more accessible to students and interested readers while satisfying the standards of librarians teachers and scholars Dictionary of Literary Biography provides reliable information in an easily comprehensible format while placing writers in the larger perspective of literary history Dictionary of Literary Biography systematically presents career biographies and criticism of writers from all eras and all genres through volumes dedicated to specific types of literature and time periods For a listing of Dictionary of Literary Biography volumes sorted by genre click here 01 Eureka Street Robert McLiam Wilson,1997 Romantic Ireland is definitely dead and gone With the exhilarating Eureka Street Robert McLiam Wilson cheerfully and obscenely sends it to its grave Jake Jackson his thoughtful anti hero finds Belfast's tragedies are built on comedy Catholics and Protestants so intent on declaring their differences resembled no one now as much as they resembled each other That was what I liked about Belfast hatred It was a lumbering hatred that could survive completely on the memories of things that never existed in the first place He spends a certain amount of time worrying about seeming too Catholic and an equal amount worrying about not seeming sufficiently Catholic Sometimes after several drinks Jake forgets that he's not a Protestant Each position is as dangerous and absurd as the other His best friend is less torn up Chuckie Lurgan is a chubby Methodist whose only accomplishments so far have been shaking Reagan's hand appearing in the same photo as the Pope and having an intense and troubling relationship with mail order catalogues But Chuckie suddenly surprises Jake with his first entrepreneurial scheme Though he's placed an ad for an enormous sex toy in Northern Ireland's only mucky paper he hasn't any intention of ever fulfilling an order Instead he follows legal protocol and sends each disappointed customer a refund check in the proper amount stamped GIANT DILDO REFUND The gamble is that most people will be too embarrassed to cash them Chuckie smiled the smile of the just published poet And soon he has more than 40 000 pounds in the bank and a lust for big money He also has a rich new girlfriend He hoped his dreams wouldn't suffer from all this reality Jake is more preoccupied with the day to day His construction site job gives him ample opportunity to consider his romantic failures and the ever present symbols of war There's also a new graffito that has sprouted among the various deadly acronyms IRA UVF and UDA make no more sense than OTG but at least everyone knows what they stand for OTG becomes a puzzle to all of Belfast is it the authorities wonder a new terrorist group Jake also notes several other phrases FTP FTQ and FTNP the T stands for the and P and Q for Pope and Queen The N is for Next Despite his love for Belfast Jake loses heart with its zealots and fanatics and halfway through Eureka Street threatens to slide into windy bathos It's only a momentary lapse amid energetic colloquial poetry and comic realism
