Risk And Resilience Adults Who Were The Children Of Problem Drinkers:

Risk and Resilience Richard Velleman, Jim Orford, 2013-01-11 Risk and Resilience looks at the issue of young adults who grew up in families where a parent and sometimes both had a drinking problem Alcohol related problems are now recognized as being near the very top of the world league table of health and social problems Since the large majority of problem drinkers are adults aged between 22 and 55 many are parents with children or adolescents in their care In the USA alone there are estimated to be over six million children under the age of 18 living with a parent with a drinking problem and over 22 million adults one in every eight American adults who were brought up with a parent who had a drinking problem Clearly many children who grow up in this sort of environment have a difficult childhood Velleman and Orford examine the question of what happens to such children when they grow up Risk and Resilience focuses on three main themes What is the likelihood of such young adults developing drinking problems themselves What are the risks to children of growing up in such families? Adult Drug and Alcohol Problems, Children's Needs, Second Edition Joy Barlow, Di Hart, Jane Powell, 2016-07-21 Parental drug use can cause serious harm to children Adult Drug and Alcohol Problems Children's Needs supports practitioners in their work with families where parental drug use leads to concerns about children's welfare The training resource contains summaries of the key messages for practitioners tools and tips to support effective practice training and development activities practice examples from around the UK This second edition has an increased focus on alcohol misuse and reflects recent changes to both policy and practice The book will be useful for all individuals and agencies involved with families where parents are struggling with substance abuse including children's social workers substance misuse workers primary care and school staff criminal justice agencies obstetric and paediatric teams substitute carers and a range of voluntary and community services Addiction Dilemmas Jim Orford, 2011-10-17 Addiction Dilemmas Professor Orford is one of the most distinguished researchers of addictions today In this book he aims to counter the neglect and misunderstanding faced by families affected by addiction an estimated one hundred million worldwide and to highlight the personal professional and public policy dilemmas By drawing on personal accounts from fiction autobiography and Professor Orford and his colleagues own international research programme the voices of children wives grandparents and friends spring to life The penetrating and sensitive commentary and thought provoking questions and exercises make this book invaluable for practitioners researchers and family members It demonstrates the many shared experiences of family members across continents and over time whether alcohol drug misuse or gambling is involved Judith Harwin Professor of Social Work Brunel University UK Addiction Dilemmas explores the impact of addiction on those closest to the individuals affected their families Many barriers can stand in the way of family members receiving help not least a lack of available services and a failure on the part of professionals and their organisations to fully appreciate the nature of the dilemmas which they face This book is based on a combination of personal interviews from scientific research accounts from biography and autobiography featuring well known names both past and present and excerpts from well informed works of literature The book s core theme is the stress faced by family members when a close relative has an addiction problem and the struggles they experience in deciding how to cope By tracing the same dilemmas through a range of contexts Jim Orford offers unique insights to professionals who deal with people with addictions and their families researchers policy makers and ultimately family members themselves Sources include The Tenant of Wildfell Hall by Anne Bront A Chancer by James Kelman Long Day s Journey into Night by Eugene O Neill and biographies of close relatives of Dylan Thomas and Samuel Taylor Coleridge
