The Betrayal of Faith chronicles the subtle and not so subtle shifts in Evangelical teachings from the rejection of biblical authority to the embrace of social justice as the ultimate goal. It exposes the hollowing out of spiritual truth replaced by a distorted gospel that conforms to secular dictates. But this is not merely a tale of disappointment. It is a call to action urging Christians to reclaim their faith from those who have subverted it. The book empowers readers to discern truth from falsehood to stand firm in the face of deceptive doctrines and to rebuild a Christianity that is rooted in the unyielding principles of Scripture.

learners and they can't achieve mastery until and unless they truly decide that inside them there is a person who can make and difference and learn to be a better leader than they are right now. Aspire to Excel To become an exemplary leader people must determine what they care most about and why they want to lead. Leaders with values based motivations are the most likely to excel. They also must have a clear image of the kind of leader they want to be in the future and the legacy they want to leave for others. Challenge Yourself Challenging oneself is critical to learning leadership. Leaders must seek new experiences and test themselves. There will be inevitable setbacks and failures along the way that require curiosity, grit, courage and resilience to persist in learning and becoming the best. Engage Support One can't lead alone and one can't learn alone. It is essential to get support and coaching on the path to achieving excellence. Whether it's family managers at work or professional coaches, leaders need the advice, feedback, care and support of others. Practice Deliberately No one gets better at anything without continuous practice. Exemplary leaders spend more time practicing than ordinary leaders. Simply being in the role of a leader is insufficient. To achieve mastery, leaders must set improvement goals, participate in designed learning experiences, ask for feedback and get coaching. They also put in the time every day and make learning leadership a daily habit. Kouzes and Posner offer unrivaled insights into what it means to become an exemplary leader in today's world with their original research and over 30 years of experience studying the practices of extraordinary leadership. They show that anyone can become a better leader if they believe in themselves, aspire to excel, challenge themselves to grow, engage the support of others and practice deliberately. Learning Leadership challenges readers to do the meaningful and disciplined work necessary to becoming the best they can using a new mindset and toolkit that can make extraordinary things happen. It's not the once in a while transformational acts that demonstrate leadership. It's the little things that one does day in and day out that pave the path to greatness.
