These verse and prose fictional narratives as well as stories that are grounded in some degree of historical truth are the foundation of what readers, scholars and enthusiasts often point to as signifiers of the medieval age. These tales from the skillfully crafted to the more rudimentary and plain often make familiar to modern readers what seems so distant and foreign about the Middle Ages. This volume of essays focuses on the tale and its ability to create mirth what modern audiences would often define as happiness or joy and the significance that the book has had on the transference of this mirth to audiences. This volume also celebrates the scholarship of Thomas H Ohlgren a medievalist whose work encompasses a number of different areas but at its center lives the power of the tale and its ability to create a lasting impression on readers both medieval and modern. The Christian Advocate, 1913 New England Journal of Education, 1915 Popular Educator, 1918 Robin Hood and his merry men, stories from old ballads Mary Macleod, 1909 Bookseller & Stationer and Office Equipment Journal, 1923 Books for Christmas for the Children Corinne Bacon, 1914 Graded and Annotated Catalog of Books in the Public Library of the District of Columbia for Use in the Schools of the City District of Columbia.
