OLD TIME ROCK & ROLL

TRUMPET 4

Words and Music by
GEORGE JACKSON and THOMAS E. JONES III

Arranged by PAUL MURTHA

Musical score for Trumpet 4, featuring measures 1 through 46. The score is written in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 4/4 time signature. The music is characterized by a driving, rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes, typical of rock and roll. Dynamics range from mezzo-forte (mf) to forte (f). The score includes several performance instructions and markings:

- (ROCK): Marked above measures 1-4.
- (21): A circled measure number above measure 21.
- (29) (OPEN FOR SOLOS): A circled measure number above measure 29, indicating a section for solo performance.
- 6: A circled measure number above measure 30.
- MORE SOLOS: A boxed instruction above measure 31.
- LAST TIME: A boxed instruction above measure 37.
- (38): A circled measure number above measure 38.
- (46): A circled measure number below measure 46.

The score concludes with a final measure (46) marked with a double bar line.

this fabulous Guitar Player Magazine contest The Power of Black Music Samuel A. Floyd Jr.,1995-07-27 When Jimi Hendrix transfixed the crowds of Woodstock with his gripping version of The Star Spangled Banner he was building on a foundation reaching back in part to the revolutionary guitar playing of Howlin Wolf and the other great Chicago bluesmen and to the Delta blues tradition before him But in its unforgettable introduction followed by his unaccompanied talking guitar passage and inserted calls and responses at key points in the musical narrative Hendrix s performance of the national anthem also hearkened back to a tradition even older than the blues a tradition rooted in the rings of dance drum and song shared by peoples across Africa Bold and original The Power of Black Music offers a new way of listening to the music of black America and appreciating its profound contribution to all American music Striving to break down the barriers that remain between high art and low art it brilliantly illuminates the centuries old linkage between the music myths and rituals of Africa and the continuing evolution and enduring vitality of African American music Inspired by the pioneering work of Sterling Stuckey and Henry Louis Gates Jr author Samuel A Floyd Jr advocates a new critical approach grounded in the forms and traditions of the music itself He accompanies readers on a fascinating journey from the African ring through the ring shout s powerful merging of music and dance in the slave culture to the funeral parade practices of the early new Orleans jazzmen the bluesmen in the twenties the beboppers in the forties and the free jazz rock Motown and concert hall composers of the sixties and beyond Floyd dismisses the assumption that Africans brought to the United States as slaves took the music of whites in the New World and transformed it through their own performance practices Instead he recognizes European influences while demonstrating how much black music has continued to share with its African counterparts Floyd maintains that while African Americans may not have direct knowledge of African traditions and myths they can intuitively recognize links to an authentic African cultural memory For example in speaking of his grandfather Omar who died a slave as a young man the jazz clarinetist Sidney Bechet said Inside him he d got the memory of all the wrong that s been done to my people That s what the memory is When a blues is good that kind of memory just grows up inside it Grounding his scholarship and meticulous research in his childhood memories of black folk culture and his own experiences as a musician and listener Floyd maintains that the memory of Omar and all those who came before and after him remains a driving force in the black music of America a force with the power to enrich cultures the world over China in the Mix Ying Xiao,2017-08-09 Scarce attention has been paid to the dimension of sound and its essential role in constructing image culture and identity in Chinese film and media China in the Mix fills a critical void with the first book on the sound languages scenery media and culture in post Socialist China In this study Ying Xiao explores fascinating topics including appropriations of popular folklore in the Chinese new wave of the 1980s Chinese rock n roll and youth cinema in fin de si cle China the political economic impact of free market imperatives and Hollywood pictures on Chinese film industry and filmmaking in the late twentieth century the reception and adaptation of hip hop and the emerging role of Internet popular culture and social media in the early twenty first century Xiao examines the articulations and representations of mass culture and everyday life concentrating on their aural oral manifestations in contemporary Chinese cinema and in a wide spectrum of media and cultural productions China in the Mix offers the first comprehensive investigation of Chinese film expressions and culture from a unique cohesive acoustic angle and through the prism of global media cultural exchange It shows how the complex evolving uses of sound popular music voice over silence noise and audio mixing in film and media reflect and engage the important cultural and socio historical shifts in contemporary China and in the increasingly networked world Xiao offers an innovative new conception of Chinese film and media and their audiovisual registers in the historiographical frame of China amid the global landscape

Ritual and Music of North China Stephen Jones, 2016-12-05 This second volume of Stephen Jones work on ritual and musical life in north China again with accompanying downloadable resources gives an impression of music making in daily life in the poor mountainous region of Shaanbei northwest China It conveys some of the diverse musical activities there around 2000 from the barrage of pop music blaring from speakers in the bustling county towns to the life cycle and calendrical ceremonies of poor mountain villages Based on the practice of grass roots music making in daily life not merely on official images the main theme is the painful maintenance of ritual and its music under Maoism its revival with the market reforms of the 1980s and its modification under the assaults of TV pop music and migration since the 1990s The text is in four parts Part One gives background to the area and music making in society Parts Two and Three discuss the lives of bards and shawm bands respectively describing modifications in their ceremonial activities through the twentieth century Part Four acclimatizes us to the modern world with glimpses of various types of musical life in Yulin city the regional capital illustrating the contrast with the surrounding countryside The 44 minute downloadable resources with its informative commentary is intended both to illuminate the text and to stand on its own It shows bards performing at a temple fair and to bless a family in distress and shawm bands performing at a wedding at funerals and a shop opening including their pop repertory with the big band Also featuring as part of these events are opera troupes geomancers and performing beggars by contrast the film shows a glimpse of the official image of Shaanbei culture as presented by a state ensemble in the regional capital The publication will appeal to ethnomusicologists anthropologists and all those interested in modern Chinese history and society
