Rock Climbs In Verdon:

Rock Climbs in the Verdon Rick Newcombe, 1988-01-01 This little guide is meant to complement the existing guides to the area offering a different approach to the route descriptions Topos are great but occasionally one word is worth a thousand pictures English style route notes can save precious holiday time in pinpointing abseils locating starts unusual pitches and quality It is written especially for those who are first time visitors to the area All the route descriptions were written immediately after an ascent and most rely on a consensus achieved by discussion concerning several such ascents
