Gerald Cantor Center for Visual Arts at Stanford University, Auguste Rodin, Albert Edward Elsen, Bernard Barryte, 2003 Rodin : Sculpture from the Iris and B. Gerald Cantor Collection Kirk Varnedoe, 2001 The work of the master French sculptor Auguste Rodin 1840 1917 is instantly recognizable throughout the world This is due in no small part to the proselytizing efforts of B Gerald Cantor 1916 1996 widely acknowledged as the preeminent collector and proponent of Rodin in America during the second half of the twentieth century He purchased his first piece a bronze of The Hand of God in 1946 after being profoundly moved by seeing a marble version of it at the Metropolitan Museum of Art New York For five decades Cantor focused all of his efforts on researching and acquiring works by Rodin Joined by his wife Iris in 1977 they built the largest and most comprehensive private collection of Rodin sculpture drawings prints photographs and memorabilia Of the approximately 750 works that the Cantors collected including casts of each of Rodin's major monuments The Monument to Balzac The Gates of Hell The Burghers of Calais and The Monument to Victor Hugo 450 have been given away to over 70 museums around the world Lavishly illustrated accompanying a worldwide touring exhibition Rodin A Magnificent Obsession chronicles the growth of the collection offering a comprehensive overview that includes works bequeathed to the Cantor Foundation from the Cantor personal collection as well as new insights into Rodin's working methods and the histories of his most famous masterpieces

Sculpture and the Museum Christopher R. Marshall, 2017-07-05 Sculpture and the Museum is the first in depth examination of the varying roles and meanings assigned to sculpture in museums and galleries during the modern period from neo classical to contemporary art practice It considers a rich array of curatorial strategies and settings in order to examine the many reasons why sculpture has enjoyed a position of such considerable importance and complexity within the institutional framework of the museum and how changes to the museum have altered in turn the ways that we perceive the sculpture within it In particular the contributors consider the complex issue of how best to display sculpture across different periods and according to varying curatorial philosophies Sculptors discussed include Canova Rodin Henry Moore Flaxman and contemporary artists such as Rebecca Horn Rachel Whiteread Mark Dion and Olafur Eliasson with a variety of museums in America Canada and Europe presented as case studies Underlying all of these discussions is a concern to chart the critical importance of the acquisition placement and display of sculpture in museums and to explore the importance of sculptures as a forum for the expression of programmatic statements of power prestige and the museum's own sense of itself in relation to its audiences and its broader institutional aspirations

The Central Liberal Truth Lawrence E. Harrison, 2008-07-08

Which cultural values beliefs and attitudes best promote democracy social justice and prosperity How can we use the forces that shape cultural change such as religion education and political leadership to promote these values in the Third World and for underachieving minorities in the First World In this book Lawrence E Harrison offers intriguing answers to these questions in a valuable follow up to his acclaimed Culture Matters Drawing on a three year research project that explored the cultural values of dozens of nations from Botswana Sweden and India to China Egypt and Chile Harrison offers a provocative look at values around the globe revealing how each nation s culture has propelled or retarded their political and economic progress The book presents 25 factors that operate very differently in cultures prone to progress and those that resist it including one s influence over destiny the importance attached to education the extent to which people identify with and trust others and the role of women in society Harrison pulls no punches and many of his findings are controversial

Contradicting the arguments of multiculturalists this book contends that when it comes to promoting human progress some cultures are clearly more effective than others It convincingly shows which values beliefs and attitudes work and how we can foster them Harrison takes up the question that is at the center of politics today Can we self consciously change cultures so they encourage development and modernization David Brooks New York Times I can think of no better entrance to the topic both for what it teaches and the way it invites and prepares the reader to continue A gateway study David S Landes author of The Wealth and Poverty of Nations Rodin Joan Vita Miller, Gary Marotta, 1986 Arts America: Enjoying the Best Art

Museums, Theater, Classical Music, Opera, Jazz, Dance, Film, and Summer Festivals in America , 2014-03-17 Timesong is the inspirational story of a three legged coyote named j b who befriends Tom an autistic boy Following his father s death Tom retreats into a shell of isolation j b counters Tom s despair with an uplifting explanation of immortality For those trying to reconcile the loss of a loved one Timesong may be the key that opens the door to acceptance and peace of mind Playing with Earth and Sky James Housefield, 2016-07-05 Playing with Earth and Sky reveals the significance astronomy geography and aviation had for Marcel Duchamp widely regarded as the most influential artist of the past fifty years Duchamp transformed modern art by abandoning unique art objects in favor of experiences that could be both embodied and cerebral

This illuminating study offers new interpretations of Duchamp s momentous works from readymades to the early performance art of shaving a comet in his hair It demonstrates how the immersive spaces and narrative environments of popular science from museums to the modern planetarium prepared paths for Duchamp s nonretinal art By situating Duchamp s career within the transatlantic cultural contexts of Dadaism and Surrealism this book enriches contemporary debates about the historical relationship between art and science This truly original study will appeal to a broad readership in art history and cultural studies Rodin Claudine Mitchell, 2017-08-04 The expression the Zola of Sculpture was coined in the circles of the Royal Academy in the 1880s as a term of abuse Rodin The Zola of Sculpture reveals how the appraisal of Rodin in British culture was shaped by controversies around the literary models of Zola and Baudelaire in a period when negative notions about French culture were being progressively transformed into positive expressions of modern sculpture. Embedded within this collaborative book is the editor's proposition that Rodin came to play an important role in the cultural politics of the Entente Cordiale at a critical juncture of European history. Encompassing new scholarship in several disciplines drawn from both sides of the Channel, Rodin: The Zola of Sculpture offers the first in-depth account of Rodin's career in Britain in the period 1880-1914 and weaves this historical trajectory into a complex investigation of the interactions between French and British cultures. The authors examine the cultural agencies in which conceptions of Rodin's practice played a defining role, dealing in turn with artists' professional associations, art criticism, private and public collectors, and the education of women sculptors. Manuel Neri Bruce Nixon, Manuel Neri, 2006. A new monograph of relief sculptures and related drawings by this celebrated contemporary artist. Neri is the 2006 recipient of the Lifetime Achievement Award presented by the International Sculpture Center.

The Political Philosophy of the European City Ferenc Hörcher, 2021-06-03. The Political Philosophy of the European City is a courageous and wide-ranging panorama of the political life and thought of the European city. Its novel hypothesis is that modern Western political thought, since the time of Hobbes and Locke, underestimated the political significance and value of the community of urban citizens, called civitas, united by local customs or even a formal or informal urban constitution at a certain location which had a recognizable countenance with natural and man-made architectural marks called urbs. Recalling the golden age of the European city in ancient Greece and Rome and offering a detailed description of its turbulent life in the Renaissance, Italian city states, it makes a case for the city not only as a hotbed of modern democracy but also as a remedy for some of the distortions of political life in the alienated, contemporary, centralized Weberian bureaucratic state. Overcoming the north-south divide or the core and periphery partition, the book's material is particularly rich in Central European case studies. All in all, it is an enjoyable read which offers sound arguments to revisit the offer of the small and middle-sized European town in search of a more sustainable future for Europe.

Migrants shaping Europe, past and present Helen Solterer, Vincent Joos, 2022-11-08. This pioneering volume explores the contribution of migrants to European culture from the early modern era to today. It takes culture as an aesthetic and social activity of making one practised by migrants on the move and also by those who represent their lives in an act of support. Adopting a multilingual approach, the book interprets the aesthetics and political practices developed by and with migrants in Spain, Italy, and France. It juxtaposes early modern and modern work with contemporary reconceiving migrants as crucial agents of change. Scholars and artists track people on the move within the continent and without drawing a significant map for the cultural history of migration around Europe.

French Master Drawings from the Collection of Muriel Butkin Carter E. Foster, Sylvain Bellenger, Patrick Shaw Cable, Cleveland Museum of Art, 2001 Accompanying an exhibition at the Cleveland Museum of Art last fall and now at the Dahesh Museum in New York this catalog focuses upon the French drawings in Muriel Butkin s highly specialized collection which she has promised to the Cleveland Museum To assemble her diverse yet nicely integrated set of drawings Butkin started buying 18th century French drawings when they were affordable In the mid 1970s with the guidance of art historian Gabriel Weisberg she expanded her collection to include 19th century French drawings These drawings were counter to the mainstream impressionist and postimpressionist taste of the time and focused more on academic French subject matter such as life drawings portraits or compositional studies In the preface Butkin herself reinforces her taste by saying that drawings are much more personal and spontaneous than paintings often demonstrating the artistic process Foster curator of drawings at the Cleveland Museum and other scholars present a well researched volume that contributes new information to a very specialized field of art history It is greatly disappointing however that the bulk of the reproductions are in black and white often missing the subtly colored tones in many of the drawings Nonetheless this is recommended for museum and academic libraries that support graduate programs in art history 183 b w illustrations
