Critical Rhetorics of Race Kent A. Ono, 2011-07-11 According to many pundits and cultural commentators the U S is enjoying a post racial age thanks in part to Barack Obama's rise to the presidency This high gloss of optimism fails however to recognize that racism remains ever present and alive spread by channels of media and circulated even in colloquial speech in ways that can be difficult to analyze In this groundbreaking collection edited by Michael G Lacy and Kent A Ono scholars seek to examine this complicated and contradictory terrain while moving the field of communication in a more intellectually productive direction An outstanding group of contributors from a range of academic backgrounds challenges traditional definitions and applications of rhetoric From the troubling media representations of black looters after Hurricane Katrina and rhetoric in news coverage about the Columbine and Virginia Tech massacres to cinematic representations of race in Crash Blood Diamond and Quentin Tarantino's films these essays reveal complex intersections and constructions of racialized bodies and discourses critiquing race in innovative and exciting ways Critical Rhetorics of Race seeks not only to understand and navigate a world fraught with racism but to change it one word at a time

Dixie Heretic Tennant McWilliams, Tennant S. McWilliams, 2023-09-22 Dixie Heretic is a life and times biography of the minister and social reformer Renwick C Kennedy 1900 1985 an impassioned tortured man who strove ardently to make his white Alabama congregants more Christian by acknowledging their own racism and greed and who not only lived but chronicled carefully many of the forces culminating in the right wing conservative movement today As McWilliams relates Kennedy came from upcountry South Carolina a place rife with Scotch Irish Associate Reformed Presbyterians They lived by biblical infallibility and a strain of individual piety and salvation focused on the hereafter In the early 1920s however his ministerial studies took him to Princeton Theological Seminary There he encountered the Presbyterian Conflict over science fundamentalism and the social gospel and he emerged a radical Christian socialist Like a few other articulate practitioners of Neo orthodoxy young Kennedy stayed true to the literalist Bible and the salvation and piety allegiances of his youth But he embraced not only the Social Gospel's mandate to solve earthly problems of poverty and prejudice but many cardinal tenets of modern science as well To Kennedy this posed no contradiction In 1927 Kennedy moved to Camden Alabama the seat of Wilcox County where he soon married and started a family Meanwhile his ministry for social change dominated his Wilcox pastorates filled with the very people from whom he derived the Scotch Irish Quietly he came to believe that God had a mandate for him to confront and change the behaviors and beliefs of his congregations notably their attitudes about race and poverty And to do this he found he had to attack what he considered traditionalist Christian hypocrisy half Christianity or non social gospel Christianity some of which he came to see as a form of proto fascism if not fascism itself He soon turned to penning confrontational short stories many published in Christian Century and some in the New Republic and set in his fictitious Yaupon County In some of these stories he overtly revealed his allegiances as a Social Gospel Christian and as an adamant supporter of Franklin Roosevelt's Democratic party He spared no one not even members of his own congregation He also abandoned his pacifism and urged US intervention in World War II he hoped that the defeat of racial fascism abroad might somehow grow white hearts at home Ultimately to help eliminate the anti Christ the mad dog Hitler Kennedy joined the U S Army As a chaplain with the famed 102nd Evacuation Hospital he experienced some of the most horrific chapters of the conflict Saint Lo the Battle of the Bulge and arrived at Dachau a mere week after German soldiers fled The postwar world gave Kennedy periods of optimism and hope He returned from the war believing America might deal with its own racial issues the way it had treated Europe and Japan's His own children grew into educated enlightened and thriving adults And new developments in his professional life brought considerable increases to his family income easing his wife's long financial insecurities Yet these years also offered a great many frustrations Even by 1948 he knew his Social Gospel hopes about racism fascism and white entitlement especially among his fellow Scotch Irish were naive at best The rise of the Dixiecrat movement a key Dixiecrat leader Alabama State senator J Miller Bonner was a member of his own congregation only deepened his sense of personal defeat Even so the rise of the civil rights movement in the 1950s and 1960s and occasional developments in state and national politics rekindled at least some of his old Neo orthodox hope and drive He played a significant role in desegregating Troy State University for instance but the gratifications of even small victories proved fleeting dashed by the assassinations of Dr King JFK and RFK and the growing numbers of southern white Republicans and Wallaceites In Kennedy's increasing down times he was privately the self professed Christian and a Democrat seeing national Republicans as sinners for their growing embrace of white southern racial conservatives A long term functional alcoholic this privately persistent Neo orthodox Christian never ceased agonizing over the growing half Christianity around him Indeed he died worrying about what it portended for the role of white supremacist proto fascists in modern America aware of having made few inroads on God's mandate and what he considered white Christian wrongs in Alabama While Renwick Kennedy was front loaded for the failure he indeed found still in the values and social norms he pondered and challenged at every stage of his life and today so badly in need of recommitment he stands as a good citizen a non hypocritical Christian and an emblem of hope MOVING CAMERAS AND LIVING MOVIES STEVE ESOMBA, Dr.,2013-03-12 I can say with absolute certainty that everybody enjoys watching movies cinema films and television But few if any know how a film is made a film has inbuilt special effects or tricks to make it appealing to audiences MOVING CAMERAS AND LIVING MOVIES reveals to you ALL about films it is a hard and tasking enterprise involving tens of thousands of workers and millions of investment dollars After reading MOVING CAMERAS your love for movies will triple Movie technicians and camera gurus have a license to mould alter and manipulate the screen to produce or induce rain sunlight snow fire or fly any object in space in defiance of gravity or even cause accidents or raise the dead to life Learn the fascinating exciting world of film actresses actors fashion and fictional entities The Cinematic Eighteenth Century Srividhya Swaminathan,Steven W. Thomas,2017-07-28 This collection explores how film and television depict the complex and diverse milieu of the eighteenth century as a literary historical and cultural space Topics range from adaptations of Austen s Sense and Sensibility and Defoe s Robinson Crusoe The Martian to historical fiction on the subjects of slavery Belle piracy Crossbones and Black Sails monarchy The Madness of King George and The Libertine print culture Blackadder and National Treasure and the role of women Marie Antoinette The Duchess and Outlander This interdisciplinary collection draws from film theory and literary theory to discuss how film and television allows for critical re visioning as well as revising of the cultural concepts in literary and extra literary writing about the historical period Ecology and Popular Film Robin L. Postmodern Film brings this unlikely pair into sustained dialogue arguing that the interdisciplinary body of scholarship currently emerging under the rubric of affect theory may be unexpectedly enriched by an encounter with the field that has become its critical other Across a series of radical re appraisals of canonical postmodern texts from Fredric Jameson s Postmodernism to David Cronenberg s Crash Duncan shows that the same postmodern archive that has proven resistant to strongly subject based and object oriented emotions like anger and sadness proves all too congenial to a series of idiosyncratic borderline emotions from knowingness fascination and bewilderment to boredom and euphoria The analysis of these emotions in turn promises to shake up scholarly consensus on two key counts On the one hand it will restructure our sense of the place and role of emotion in a critical enterprise that has long cast it as the stodgy subjective sister of a supposedly more critically interesting and politically productive affect On the other it will transform our perception of postmodernism as a now historical aesthetic and theoretical moment teaching us to acknowledge more explicitly and to name more clearly the emotional life that energizes it
