Rogha Danta:

Selected Poems Nuala Ni Dhomhnaill, 1989 Rogha Dánta Nuala Ní Dhomhnaill, 1988 Now regarded as a landmark in contemporary Irish literature Rogha dánta Gabriel Rosenstock, 2005 This book is a selection of the best of Gabriel

Rosenstock's poetry with English translations by Paddy Bushe Continuity and Change in Irish Poetry, 1966-2010

Eric Falci, 2012-07-30 This work reshapes our understanding of contemporary Irish poetry and offers a new account of poetic form Haiku Gabriel Rosenstock, 2009-05-27 In Haiku the Gentle Art of Disappearing a renowned Irish poet shows us how haiku may be used as a powerful tool for spiritual interpenetration This implies that we divest ourselves of the ever chattering mind shed the voracious ego and enjoy momentary glimpses of unity with natural phenomena In the companion volume Haiku Enlightenment he further explores these thoroughly delightful experiences and invites us to disappear Haiku is dynamically focussed on the present from season to season from day to day from hour to hour from second to second But how illusory how fleeting is that present moment How caught up is it with the past with the future Can we stop its flow Are there more ways than one of experiencing its essence If we experience a moment intensely enough might we disappear Surprises await those readers who may have considered haiku to be nothing more than an innocuous three line poem A renowned poet shares his experience of haiku and its potential to surprise us again and again into a sudden awakening and thus to a deeper sense of what it is to be truly alive His remarkably refreshing insights have delighted confreres around the world

Modern Irish Writers Alexander G. Gonzalez, 1997-08-26 While the Irish Literary Revival began around 1885 and ended somewhere between 1925 and 1940 the Irish Renaissance has continued to the present day and shows no sign of abating The period has produced some of the most important and influential figures in Irish literature some of whom are counted among the world's greatest authors The Revival saw a reestablishment of Ireland's literary connections with its Celtic heritage and writers such as William Butler Yeats and Lady Gregory drew heavily on the myths and legends of the past James Joyce boldly reshaped the novel and wrote short fiction of enduring value Contemporary Irish writers continue to be leading figures and include such authors as Brian Frigl Seamus Heaney and Eavan Boland Included in this reference book are alphabetically arranged entries for more than 70 modern Irish writers including Samuel Beckett William Trevor Patrick Kavanagh Medbh McGuckian Sean O'Casey J. M. Synge and Nuala Ni Dhomhnaill Entries are written by expert contributors and reflect a broad range of perspectives Each entry contains a brief biography that summarizes the author's career a discussion of major works and themes an overview of the author's critical reception and a bibliography of primary and secondary works An introductory essay reviews the large and growing body of scholarship on modern Irish literature while an extensive bibliography concludes the volume

Confessionalism and Mobility in Early Modern Ireland Tadhg Ó hAnnracháin, 2021-06-17 The period between c. 1580 and c. 1685 was one of momentous importance in terms of the establishment of different confessional identities in Ireland as well as a time of significant migration and displacement of population Confessionalism and Mobility in Early Modern Ireland provides an entirely new perspective on religious change in early modern Ireland by tracing the constant and ubiquitous impact of mobility on the development and maintenance of the island's competing confessional groupings Confessionalism and Mobility in Early Modern Ireland examines the dialectic between migration and religious adherence paying particular attention to the pronounced transnational dimension of clerical formation which played a vital role in shaping the competing Catholic Church of Ireland and non-conformist clergies It demonstrates that the religious transformation of the island was mediated by individuals with very significant migratory experiences and the importance of religion in enabling individuals to negotiate the challenges and opportunities created by displacement and settlement in new environments The volume investigates how more quotidian practices of mobility such as pilgrimage and inter-parochial communions helped to elaborate religious identities and analyses the extraordinary importance of migratory experience in shaping the lives and writings of the authors of key confessional identity texts Confessionalism and Mobility in Early Modern Ireland demonstrates that Irish society was enormously influenced by migratory experiences and argues that a case study of the island also has important implications for understanding religious change in other areas of Europe and the rest of the world

Anamorphic Texts and Reconfigured Visions Maryna Romanets, 2012-02-10 In Anamorphic Texts Maryna Romanets turns a discriminating lens on a still liminal Ukrainian cultural space and through its relation to the experiences of one of the earliest decolonized nations Ireland puts it on the discursive postcolonial map thereby destabilizing the paradigm of homogeneous Eurocentricity adopted by much postcolonial critique Bringing together two peripheral European literatures Romanets uses Irish and Ukrainian histories as a shared point of reference charting an essentially untouched area of comparative typology in postcolonial cultural politics Returning to the chiaroscuro terrain of respective nineteenth century Revivalist movements she projects their volatile energies onto contemporary struggles of the two cultures to represent their occluded traumatic pasts and ever evasive presents In five linked essays Romanets explores in their sociocultural contexts the works of Kostenko N Dhomhnaill Zabuzhko Pokalchuk Vynnychuk Poderviansky Longley Heaney Murphy Carson Montague Banville and Izdryk She examines the ways these authors evoke the signficatory powers of their traditions to forge imaginary ones interrogate the boundaries and slippages among personal national social gendered and historical disjunctions and make every history open to revision and contestation Drawing on postcolonial intertextual representation and gender theories Anamorphosic Texts reveals the mechanisms of conversion whereby Ukrainian and Irish writers by engaging in epistemic dialogues with their own traditions colonial discourses and multicultural influxes devise political strategies of empowerment and enunciation

Irish Literature Patricia Coughlan, Tina O'Toole, 2008 Feminist perspectives on Irish literature

My Self, My Muse Patricia Boyle Haberstroh, 2001-07-01 A unique look into the minds and creative processes of contemporary Irish women poets this book focuses on the transformation of their life experiences into poetry that blends personal identity with national identity It assembles many voices around common themes that are emerging to change Irish poetry permanently Patricia Boyle Haberstroh whose book Women Creating Women Contemporary Irish Women Poets was a Choice Outstanding Academic book in 1996 shows in this new work how nine of the most prolific Irish women writers generate their poetry broadening our understanding of the context of the poems She pairs each author's verse with a companion and often autobiographical prose piece to illuminate the ways in which the poetry expresses the poet's personal experience As women in a politically and religiously charged male dominated genre and country these poets feel compelled to transcend daily life by articulating against the norm In this book they describe the issues they confronted in their growth as poets and the strategies they developed to translate life into art In linking these poets drawn from Northern Ireland and England as well as the Republic of Ireland Haberstroh throws into relief the characteristics that define their unique individual subjects themes and styles

Cleary, 2014-08-11 The story of Irish modernism constitutes a remarkable chapter in the movement's history. This volume serves as an incisive and accessible overview of that brilliant period in which Irish artists not only helped to create a distinctive nationalist literature but also changed the face of European and anglophone culture. This Companion surveys developments in modernist poetry, drama, fiction, and the visual arts. Early innovators such as Oscar Wilde, George Bernard Shaw, Jack B. Yeats, and James Joyce, as well as late modernists including Elizabeth Bowen, Samuel Beckett, Flann O'Brien, M. J. O'Riordan, and Francis Bacon, all appear here. Significantly, however, this volume ranges beyond such iconic figures to open up new ground with chapters on Irish women modernists, Irish American modernism, Irish language modernism, and the critical reception of modernism in Ireland.
