Fashionable Fictions and the Currency of the Nineteenth-Century British Novel Lauren Gillingham, 2023-05-25 Revealing how a modern notion of fashion helped to transform the novel and its representation of social change and individual and collective life in nineteenth century Britain Lauren Gillingham offers a revisionist history of the novel With particular attention to the fiction of the 1820s through 1840s this study focuses on novels that use fashion s idiom of currency and obsolescence to link narrative form to a heightened sense of the present and the visibility of public life It contends that novelists steeped their fiction in date stamped matters of dress manners and media sensations to articulate a sense of history as unfolding not in epochal change but in transient issues and interests capturing the public s imagination Reading fiction by Mary Shelley Letitia Landon Edward Bulwer Lytton W H Ainsworth Charles Dickens Mary Elizabeth Braddon and others Fashionable Fictions tells the story of a nineteenth century genre commitment to contemporaneity that restyles the novel itself
