

Rollicking Recollections

The rip-roaring teenage memoirs of an English Boy in Kenya

More humorous snapshots of a boy growing up in Kenya, and the people he meets on his way to adulthood form a poyous and often engrossing celebration of life in general.

"The book covers the emergence of the young adult years of my life from 1940, the attitudes I adopted, and events I and my family experienced, together with tales about some of the famous and infamous characters we met. My own adventures in which I faced serious injury and even death didn't make me more circumspect.

I walked through life confident in my immortality, like a cat with twenty-nine lives, and with a sense of fun and growing responsibility.

Hesitant steps toward youthful romance were met with mild disappointment and an arrogant belief that girls were of little value beyond being useful targets for pranks."
