Free Radicals Zeke Teflon,2012-06-01 Set in a dystopian society in the not too distant future this sci fi novel follows the misadventures of a bar musician and army vet who s set up on terrorism charges and deported to a single continent prison planet After a fight in which he nearly kills a neo Nazi the antihero main character flees to the other end of the continent with a prisoner he knew from Earth a Mexican anarchist and fellow musician on a Gulliver s Travels type journey through a number of political and religious cult compounds With comical depictions of the various cults they encounter on the way Free Radicals insightfully explores the often failed attempts at utopia and the day to day life of two traveling musicians South

Carolina Women Marjorie Julian Spruill,Valinda W. Littlefield,Joan Marie Johnson,2010-01-25 The biographical essays in this volume provide new insights into the various ways that South Carolina women asserted themselves in their state and illuminate the tension between tradition and change that defined the South from the Civil War through the Progressive Era As old rules including gender conventions that severely constrained southern women were dramatically bent if not broken these women carved out new roles for themselves and others The volume begins with a profile of Laura Towne and Ellen Murray who founded the Penn School on St Helena Island for former slaves Subsequent essays look at such women as the five Rollin sisters members of a prominent black family who became passionate advocates for women s rights during Reconstruction writer Josephine Pinckney who helped preserve African American spirituals and explored conflicts between the New and Old South in her essays and novels and Dr Matilda Evans the first African American woman licensed to practice medicine in the state Intractable racial attitudes often caused women to follow separate but parallel paths as with Louisa B Poppenheim and Marion B Wilkinson Poppenheim who was white and Wilkinson who was black were both driving forces in the women s club movement Both saw clubs as a way not only to help women and children but also to showcase these positive changes to the wider nation Yet the two women worked separately as did the white and black state federations of women s clubs Often mixing deference with daring these women helped shape their society through such avenues as education religion politics community organizing history the arts science and medicine Women in the mid and late twentieth century would build on their accomplishments Catalogue of books ... presented to the free (or rate-aided) libraries of

Cinema Inferno Robert G. Weiner,John Cline,2010-07-17 Cinema Inferno Celluloid Explosions from the Cultural Margins addresses significant areas and eras of transgressive filmmaking including many subgenres and styles that have not yet received much critical attention This collection of essays covers both contemporary films and those produced in the last 50 years to provide a theoretical framework for looking at transgressive cinema and what that means This volume begins with a number of essays that examine the aesthetic of realism tracing it through the late Italian Neo Realism of Pasolini the early films of Melvin Van Peebles and Canadian filmmaker Guy Maddin Another section focuses on 70s Italian horror and thrillers including a substantially different examination of filmmaker Dario Argento as well as essays on critically underrepresented directors Lucio Fulci and Sergio Martino A section on New York looks at both radical independents like Troma and Andy Milligan as well as the social context from which a view of the metropolis in decay emerged Sections also cover the experimental work of the Vienna Action Group and controversial filmmaker Michael Haneke as well as films and genres too idiosyncratic and disturbing to fit anywhere else including analyses of Nazi propaganda films fundamentalist Christian scare movies and postwar Japanese youth films The final essays try to come to terms with a mainstream flirtation with transgressive film and Grindhouse aesthetics

Free Trade and its Enemies in France, 1814–1851 David Todd,2015-04-30 In the aftermath of the French Revolution advocates of protection against foreign competition prevailed in a fierce controversy over international trade This groundbreaking study is the first to examine this protectionist turn in full Faced with a reaffirmation of mercantile jealousy under the Bourbon Restoration Benjamin Constant Jean Baptiste Say and regional publicists advocated the adoption of the liberty of commerce in order to consolidate the new liberal order But after the Revolution of 1830 a new generation of liberal thinkers endeavoured to reconcile the jealousy of trade with the discourse of commercial society and political liberty New justifications for protection oscillated between an industrialist reinvention of jealousy and an aspiration to self sufficiency as a means of attenuating the rise of urban pauperism A strident denunciation of British power and social imbalances served to defuse the internal tensions of the protectionist discourse and facilitated its dissemination across the French political spectrum
