Shifting Body Politics Gender Nation Sta:

Shifting Body Politics Shahnaz J. Rouse, 2004 The three essays in this volume explore the changing parameters of struggles over gender in Pakistan In the process the author attempts to theoretically traverse the boundaries between public and private domains the State and what is often referred to as civil society the individual and the collective and the local and international She does this through a discussion of sovereignty and citizenship the growing nexus between militarism masculinism and fundamentalism and the rapid shrinking of democratic spaces in the country State, Nationalism, and Islamization Raja M. Ali Saleem, 2017-07-11 This book argues that Islam's role in state nationalism is the best predictor of the Islamization of government using two most different cases Turkey which was an aggressively secular country until recently and Pakistan a country that is synonymous with Islamization It establishes a causal link between Islam's role in state nationalism and Islamization of government during various periods of the history of both countries The indicators used to establish the causal link between Islam's role in state nationalism and Islamization are the presence of Islamic provisions in the constitution Islam inspired national symbols Islamic images on the national currency Islamic basis of family law a Department of Religious Affairs and governmental support for religious education The book concludes by identifying three causal mechanisms legitimacy mobilization and authenticity that link Islam's role in state nationalism and the Islamization of government Gender, Nation, State in Pakistan Shahnaz Rouse, 2006 The ^AOxford Handbook of Transnational Feminist Movements Rawwida Baksh, Wendy Harcourt, 2015-03-25 The Oxford Handbook of Transnational Feminist Movements explores the historical political and economic context in which transnational feminist movements have emerged and spread and the contributions these movements have made to global knowledge policy and social change from the 1970s to the present As it includes contributions from scholars and practitioners from around the globe particularly from the Southern Hemisphere the chapters consider the interplay between the lived experience of transnational feminist movements and the way that women's rights and gender equality have been theorized in different locations and contexts Women in Executive Power Gretchen Bauer, Manon Tremblay, 2011-03-10 A comprehensive regional study of women in the political executive power The Globalization of Gender Ioana Cîrstocea, Delphine Lacombe, Elisabeth Marteu, 2019-07-04 This book provides an insightful approach to understanding the contemporary circulations of feminist repertoires and shows how the international transnational circulations of gender are interconnected even coextensive with the globalization process itself Fed by a shared reflexivity on relations among activist groups state institutions and international actors involved in the production and dissemination of contemporary norms dealing with gender each chapter shares methodological premises and studies the circulation of gender related norms and knowledge in situ and by varying standpoints Specifically the authors de compartmentalize the academic disciplines and go beyond classical geographic divisions in order to map social spaces and networks of actors involved in the production and circulation of gender related repertoires Last the book grasps circulatory processes and entangled social phenomena which are usually subject to disciplinary and thematic divisions separating collective action and public action development aid and feminism law and international relations Focused on collective and individual experiences within women s organizations activist careers unstable mobilizations public policies temporalities the chapters reveal the mechanisms through which these arrangements are made and shed light on strategies deployed by actors rooted in specific social and political contexts This book will be of key interest to students and scholars of gender studies and more broadly to politics International Relations sociology geography history and anthropology Political Spiritualities Ruth Marshall,2009-08-01 After an explosion of conversions to Pentecostalism over the past three decades tens of millions of Nigerians now claim that Jesus is the answer But if Jesus is the answer what is the question What led to the movement s dramatic rise and how can we make sense of its social and political significance In this ambitiously interdisciplinary study Ruth Marshall draws on years of fieldwork and grapples with a host of important thinkers including Foucault Agamben Arendt and Benjamin to answer these questions To account for the movement s success Marshall explores how Pentecostalism presents the experience of being born again as a chance for Nigerians to realize the promises of political and religious salvation made during the colonial and postcolonial eras Her astute analysis of this religious trend sheds light on Nigeria s contemporary politics postcolonial statecraft and the everyday struggles of ordinary citizens coping with poverty corruption and inequality Pentecostalism s rise is truly global and Political Spiritualities persuasively argues that Nigeria is a key case in this phenomenon while calling for new ways of thinking about the place of religion in contemporary politics

Women and TV Culture in Pakistan Munira Cheema,2018-07-30 The television broadcasting culture of Pakistan was changed dramatically in 2002 The President General Pervez Musharraf introduced a policy of liberalisation that enabled controversial issues such as honour killings adultery stoning to death domestic violence marriage after divorce and homosexuality to be increasingly depicted on screen Women and TV Culture in Pakistan is the first in depth analysis of this change in television content Munira Cheema focuses on how gender issues are dealt with on TV and examines the impact this has on female viewers In Pakistan television is often the only way in which women can access the public sphere except through male guardians and this book evaluates how TV content allows them to navigate their intersecting identities as Muslims women and Pakistanis At a time when religious conservatism is on the rise in the country this book investigates why producers choose to focus on gender based issues and the extent to which religion dictates social behaviour and broadcasting choices Based on interviews with women viewers in Karachi as well as industry professionals including writers directors and ratings experts the research is a much needed and original contribution to global television studies and gender studies Women's History in Global Perspective Bonnie G. Smith,2004 The American Historical Association s Committee on Women Historians commissioned some of the pioneering figures in women s history to prepare essays in their respective areas of expertise This volume the second in a series of three collects their efforts As a counterpoint to the broad themes discussed in the first volume Volume 2 is concerned with issues that have shaped the history of women in particular places and during particular eras It examines women in ancient civilizations including women in China Japan and Korea women and gender in South and South East Asia Medieval women women and gender in Colonial Latin America and the history of women in the US to 1865 Authors included are Sarah Hughes and Brady Hughes Susan Mann Barbara N Ramusack Judith M Bennett Ann Twinam and Kathleen Brown Incorporating essays from top scholars ranging over an abundance of regions dates and methodologies the three volumes of Women s History in Global Perspective constitute an invaluable resource for anyone interested in a comprehensive overview on the latest in feminist scholarship Gender and Nationalism Gauri Mishra,2022-12-30 This book studies negotiations of gender politics in the process of nation formation in the aftermath of the Partition One of the most traumatic events in South Asian history the Partition forms the basis of numerous literary and cinematic interpretations Drawing on Hindi English Urdu and Punjabi fiction it shows how gender is irrevocably woven into the idea of the nation and the politics of it It focuses on the works of Saadat Hasan Manto Rajinder Singh Bedi Ismat Chughtai Yashpal Khushwant Singh Abdullah Hussein Mumtaz Shah Nawaz and Attia Hosain to delve into the horrors of the Partition toward women in particular and their representations in literary and cinematic imaginations As an important contribution to the study of the Partition of India this volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of literature culture studies film studies politics gender studies and South Asian studies Women's Movements in Asia Mina Roces,Louise Edwards,2010-06-10 Written by leading international experts this book provides an overview of the history and current context of feminism in 12 Asian countries This breadth of coverage together with suggestions for further study and an integrated cross national timeline makes Women s Movements in Asia ideal for use on courses looking at women and feminism in Asia Routledge Handbook of Gender in South Asia Leela Fernandes,2014-02-24 Providing a comprehensive overview of the study of gender in South Asia this Handbook covers the central contributions that have defined this area and captures innovative and emerging paradigms that are shaping the future of the field It offers a wide range of disciplinary and interdisciplinary perspectives spanning both the humanities and social sciences focussing on India Pakistan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka The Handbook brings together key experts in the field of South Asia and gender women and sexuality Chapters are organised thematically in five major sections Historical formations of gender and the significance of colonialism and nationalism Law Citizenship and the Nation Representations of Culture Place Identity Labour and the Economy Inequality Activism and the State This timely survey is essential reading for scholars who research and teach on South Asia as well as for scholars in related interdisciplinary fields that focus on women and gender from comparative and transnational perspectives Domestic Violence in Pakistan Daanika Kamal,2025-05-22 Pakistani women are increasingly pursuing legal avenues against acts of domestic violence Their claims however are often dismissed through character allegations that label them as bad women in need of control or mad women not to be trusted Domestic Violence in Pakistan explores why the subjectivities of women victims are constructed in particular ways and how these subjectivities are captured and negotiated in the Pakistani legal system Drawing on feminist poststructuralist accounts relating to the use of gendering strategies in institutional and disciplinary settings and based on an analysis of over a hundred case files and judgements seventy two interviews and court observations in three cities of Pakistan this book shadows the experiences of women victims of domestic violence in both criminal law and family law proceedings It captures and offers empirical insights in relation to gendered subject formation in discursive spaces ranging from the use of societal narratives that minimise and silence women s harms to the deployment of police mechanisms that assist in maintaining the secrecy of familial violence and the application and enactment of boilerplate lawyerly strategies to present alternative legal truths Amidst regulations of the public versus the private and understandings of rights versus duties Domestic Violence in Pakistan explores how these practices construct the victim subject of domestic violence in a way that not only subjectivise her but also secure her within the field of that subjectification setting her up to be viewed by the judiciary through the lens of the allegations applied to her

Religion and Women in India Tanika Sarkar,2024-08-01 In Religion and Women in India Tanika Sarkar provides an account of gender prescriptions and proscriptions and their operation among various Indian religious communities beginning with early British rule and concluding in the late twentieth century Tracking various shifts and displacements in doctrinal thought and practice she argues that Indian modernity was initiated largely through debates on gender scripture custom and caste which shaped ideal forms of masculine and feminine conduct She demonstrates the organization of a modern public sphere around the controversies cultural imaginaries and political agitations over such issues as the age of consent child marriage widow remarriage rape laws and intercaste and interfaith relations Gender norms are shown leaching into social attitudes labor processes and legal rights leading eventually to modern Indian feminism Closely analyzing the interpenetration and co constitution of religion politics and gender in India while also comparing parallel developments in Pakistan and Bangladesh this pioneering work offers a brilliant and synthesizing account of the battles between orthodoxy and its opponents over two hundred years No historian no feminist no student of politics can afford to miss it

Violence Against Women in South Asian Communities Ravi K. Thiara,Aisha K. Constructing the Pluriverse Bernd Reiter,2018-08-23 The contributors to Constructing the Pluriverse critique the hegemony of the postcolonial Western tradition and its claims to universality by offering a set of pluriversal approaches to understanding the coexisting epistemologies and practices of the different worlds and problems we inhabit and encounter Moving beyond critiques of colonialism the contributors rethink the relationship between knowledge and power offering new perspectives on development democracy and ideology while providing diverse methodologies for non Western thought and practice that range from feminist approaches to scientific research to ways of knowing expressed through West African oral traditions In combination these wide ranging approaches and understandings form a new analytical toolbox for those seeking creative solutions for dismantling Westernization throughout the world Contributors Zaid Ahmad Manuela Boatc Hans J rgen Burchardt Raewyn Connell Arturo Escobar Sandra Harding Ehsan Kashfi Venu Mehta Walter D Mignolo Ulrich Oslender Issiaka Ouattara Bernd Reiter Manu Samnotra Catherine E Walsh Aram Ziai Partition and the South Asian Diaspora Papiya Ghosh,2014-03-21 Preface Acknowledgements Introduction 1 Negotiating nations 2 Claiming Pakistan 3 Resisting Hindutva 4 Redoing South Asia 5 Conclusion Bibliography Index

Dynasties and Female Political Leaders in Asia Claudia Derichs,Mark R. Thompson,2013 This book is the first comprehensive academic effort to examine the phenomenon of top female political leaders in Asia It portrays prime ministers presidents and opposition leaders but it is not a conventional biographical volume Rather it analyzes female politicians by means of case studies that are based on a common theoretical framework The case studies were conducted over three years of field research which included interviews with the female leaders themselves and members of their inner circle Each chapter explores the similarities but also points to the distinctiveness of each female leader arising from political and social systems cultural and religious conditions and economic parameters Series Political Science Perspectives
