Leaders in Japan's Christian Century, 1549-1650 Haruko Nawata Ward, 2016-12-05 Meticulously researched and drawing on original source materials written in eight different languages this study fills a lacuna in the historiography of Christianity in Japan which up to now has paid little or no attention to the experience of women Focusing on the century between the introduction of Christianity in Japan by Portuguese Jesuit missionaries in 1549 and the Japanese government's commitment to the eradication of Christianity in the mid seventeenth century this book outlines how women provided crucial leadership in the spread nurture and maintenance of the faith through various apostolic ministries The author's research on the religious backgrounds of women from different schools of late medieval Japanese Shinto Buddhism sheds light on individual women's choices to embrace or reject the Reformed Catholicism of the Jesuits and explores the continuity and discontinuity of their religious expressions The book is divided into four sections devoted to an in depth study of different types of apostolates nuns women who took up monastic vocations witches the women leaders of the Shinto Buddhist tradition who resisted Jesuit teachings catechists women who engaged in ministries of persuasion and conversion and sisters women devoted to missions of mercy Analyzing primary sources including Jesuit histories letters and reports especially Lu's Fr is Hist ria de Jap o hagiography and family chronicles each section provides a broad understanding of how these women in the context of misogynistic society and theology utilized resources from their traditional religions to new Christian adaptations and specific religio social issues creating unique hybrids of Catholicism and Buddhism The inclusion of Portuguese Spanish Italian and Japanese texts many available for the first time in English and the dramatic conclusion that women were largely responsible for the trajectory of Christianity in early modern Japan makes this book an essential reading for scholars of women's history, religious history, history of Christianity and Asian history. History of the Far East Hutton Webster, 1923 Faith and Power in Japanese Buddhist Art, 1600-2005 Patricia J. Graham, 2007-09-30 Faith and Power in Japanese Buddhist Art explores the transformation of Buddhism from the premodern to the contemporary era in Japan and the central role its visual culture has played in this transformation. Although Buddhism is generally regarded as peripheral to modern Japanese society, this book demonstrates otherwise. Its chapters elucidate the thread of change over time in the practice of Buddhism as revealed in temple worship halls and other sites of devotion and in imagery representing the religion's most popular deities and religious practices. It also introduces the work of modern and contemporary artists who are not generally associated with institutional Buddhism and its canonical visual requirements but whose faith inspires their art. The author makes a persuasive argument that the neglect of these materials by scholars results from erroneous presumptions about the aesthetic superiority of early Japanese Buddhist artifacts and an asserted decline in the institutional power of the religion after the sixteenth century. She demonstrates that recent works constitute a significant contribution to the history of Japanese art and architecture, providing evidence of Buddhism's compelling presence at all levels of Japanese society and its evolution in response to the needs of new generations of supporters. Retired, 2015-06-22 The Art of Buddhism Denise Leidy, 2009-10-06 As its teachings spread from the Indian subcontinent in all directions across Asia, Buddhism influenced every culture it touched, from Afghanistan to Korea, from Mongolia to Java. Buddhist art is a radiant reflection of the encounter of the Buddha's teachings with the diverse civilizations that came under their sway. It is also an intriguing visual record of the evolution of Buddhist practice and philosophy over a period of more than two millennia. More than two hundred photographs provide the visual context for this tour of the world of Buddhist art. Included in the rich variety of forms are architecture and monumental art, statuary, paintings, calligraphy, fresco, brushwork, and textile arts. Denise Leidy's guide is the perfect introductory text for all those intrigued by this splendid aesthetic tradition. It is also an essential resource for all who seek to understand Buddhist art as teaching. Art of the Samurai Morihiro Ogawa, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2009 This extensively illustrated catalogue is published in conjunction with the first comprehensive exhibition devoted to the arts of the samurai, including the finest examples of swords, the spirit of the samurai as well as sword mountings and fittings, armor, and helmets, saddles, textiles, and paintings. The works in the catalogue, drawn from public and private collections in Japan, include 34 officially designated National Treasures and 64 Important Cultural Properties, the largest number ever to be shown together at one time. Dating from the 5th to the early 20th century, these majestic objects offer a complete picture of samurai culture and its unique blend of the martial and the refined. Many of the greatest Japanese swordsmiths are represented in this volume, from early masters such as Yasuie (12th century) and Tomomitsu (14th century) to the Edo period smiths Nagasone Kotetsu and Kiyomaro. The blades by these and other masters are cherished as much for their beauty as for their cutting efficiency were equipped with elaborate hilts and scabbards prized for their exquisite craftsmanship and fine materials such as silk rayskin gold lacquer and certain alloys unique to Japan Japanese armor is also fully surveyed from the rarest iron armor of the Kofun period 5th century to the inventive ceremonial helmets made toward the end of the age of the samurai Book Jacket Historical Dictionary of Shinto Stuart D. b.
