Shipowners Of Cardiff:

Shipowners of Cardiff David Jenkins, 2013-07-15 From 1875 to the present day the Cardiff and Bristol Channel Incorporated Shipowners Association has been the representative body for shipowners in Cardiff and other Bristol Channel ports This study looks at some of the most representative periods in its history the reaction of the Association to the proposal to build new docks in Barry in the 1880s the Seaman s Strike in 1911 and the schism which split the Association in 1912 14 David Jenkins also reveals that a barrage across the estuary of the rivers Taff and Ely was first proposed as early as 1920 Nothing came of that proposal but in 1929 a similar scheme was once more under consideration comprising a dam with two locks across the tidal channel between Penarth Head and Queen Alexandra lock British Tramp Shipping, 1750-1914

Robin Craig, 2017-10-18 This study explores the history of tramp shipping in the United Kingdom between 1750 and 1914 It defines tramp as steamships exclusively hulled with iron or steel The purpose of the journal is to keep the history of tramp shipping from fading into obscurity as the author believes the tramp steamer does not invoke sentimentality nor provide enough glamour to sustain the same level of maritime interest enjoyed by sailing ships or ocean liners The study is split into four major sections the first concerning tramp shipping ownership and capital formation the second concerning trade specifically copper ore and African guano the third studies tramp seamen particularly sea masters and the final and largest section considers individual tramp shipping regions further subdivided by region Wales the Northwest the West Country the Northeast the Southeast and Canada The volume is punctuated with statistics tables charts glossaries and concludes with a bibliography of author Robin Craig s further maritime writing

Tramp Ships Roy Fenton, 2013-11-13 With 300 stunning photographs this pictorial history of tramp trade ships illustrates the evolution of these charming itinerant merchant vessels The tramp ship was the taxi of the seas With no regular schedules it voyaged anywhere and everywhere picking up and dropping off cargoes mainly bulk cargoes such as coal grain timber china clay and oil Older and slower vessels tended to find their way into this trade hence the tag tramp but new tramps were also built for the purpose In this beautiful volume featuring 300 photographs Roy Fenton illustrates the Tramp Ship s evolution over the course of more than 100 years from the 1860s when the steam tramp developed from the screw collier until it was largely replaced by the specialist bulk carrier in the 1980s Fenton offers fascinating background information on the design and building of tramps He describes the machinery from simple triple expansion turbines to diesel engines Their operation and management and the life of the officers and crews are also covered This illustrated history journeys through the last years of the 19th century the two world wars and the postwar years Photo captions provide each ship s dimensions owners and builder Each ship s career is outlined with notes on trades and how they changed over a ship s lifetime

From Ship's Cook to Baronet David Jenkins, 2011-09-15 Sir William Reardon Smith 1856 1935 was one of the foremost figures in south Wales in the early twentieth century His was a classic story of rags to riches starting life as a deck hand and ship s cook sailing from his native

Appledore in 1870 he was a master mariner at the age of twenty two and subsequently commanded many of the fine sailing ships owned by Hugh Hogarth this school provided an opportunity for aspiring deck officers to learn the essential skills appropriate to their chosen careers He also funded hospital developments in Cardiff and Bideford and endowed the chair of geography at Exeter University At the time of his death in December 1935 fulsome tributes were paid to him both by his fellow shipowners and by the principals of those organisations which had benefitted from his generosity many of those who live in south Wales and the West country today still enjoy that legacy
