ShockDecember 21 Horror Movies In 48 Hours:

ShockJuly , Subversive Horror Cinema Jon Towlson,2014-04-03 Horror cinema flourishes in times of ideological crisis and national trauma the Great Depression the Cold War the Vietnam era post 9 11 and this critical text argues that a succession of filmmakers working in horror from James Whale to Jen and Sylvia Soska have used the genre and the shock value it affords to challenge the status quo during these times Spanning the decades from the 1930s onward it examines the work of producers and directors as varied as George A Romero Pete Walker Michael Reeves Herman Cohen Wes Craven and Brian Yuzna and the ways in which films like Frankenstein 1931 Cat People 1942 The Woman 2011 and American Mary 2012 can be considered subversive Dad Made Dirty Movies Jordan Todorov,Joe Blevins,2020-10-05 Strippers zombies fugitives and jewel thieves These were just some of the characters who inhabited the weird wild films of director Stephen C Apostolof in the 1960s and 1970s But Apostolof's own life was every bit as improbable as the plots of his lurid movies Escaping the clutches of the communists in his native Bulgaria he came to America in 1952 and decided on a whim to reinvent himself as a Hollywood filmmaker right down to the cigars sunglasses and Cadillacs He produced a string of memorable sexploitation classics including the infamous Orgy of the Dead Along the way he married three times fathered five children and forged a personal and professional relationship with the notorious Ed Wood Jr Drawing on rare archival material and interviews with those who knew him best this first biography of Apostolof chronicles the life and career of a cult film legend Hardcore Horror Cinema in the 21st Century James Aston,2018-09-04 The first of its kind this study examines the exemplars of hardcore horror Fred Vogel's August Underground trilogy Shane Ryan's Amateur Porn Star Killer series and Lucifer Valentine's vomit gore films The author begins with a definition and critical overview of this marginalized subgenre before exploring its key aesthetic convention the pursuit of realist horror Production practices exhibition and marketing strategies are discussed in an in depth interview with filmmaker Shane Ryan Audience reception is covered with a focus on fan interaction via the Internet Television Horror Movie Hosts Elena M. Watson,2013-05-03 Midnight 1954 A striking woman in a torn black dress slinks down a cobwebbed candelabra'd corridor She stops shrieks hysterically into the camera then solemnly says Good evening I am Vampira Her real name is Maila Nurmi and she was the first in a long line of television horror movie hosts commonly seen on independent stations late night grade Z offerings dressed as some zany ghoul or mad scientist This book covers the major hosts in detail along with styles and show themes Merchandise tie in and fan reactions are also chronicled The appendices list film and record credits Rediscovering U.S. Newsfilm Mark Garrett Cooper,Sara Beth Levavy,Ross Melnick,Mark Williams,2018-06-14 The twentieth century generated tens of thousands of hours of American newsfilm but not the scholarly apparatus necessary to analyze and contextualize them Assembling new approaches to the study of U S newsfilm in cinema and television this book makes a long overdue critical intervention in the field of film and media studies by addressing the format's inherent intermediality its mediation of events for local national and transnational communities its distinctive archival legacies and consequently its integral place in film and television studies more broadly This collection brings fresh contemporary methodologies and analysis to bear on a vast amount of material that has languished in relative obscurity for far too long

Rape-Revenge Films Alexandra Heller-Nicholas,2014-11-21 Often considered the lowest depth to which the cinema can plummet the rape revenge film has been dismissed as exploitative and sensational catering to a demented demographic Only on such rare occasions as Ingmar Bergman's The Virgin Spring John Boorman's Deliverance and Quentin Tarantino's Death Proof has the rape revenge movie transcended what is commonly assumed to be its intrinsically exploitative nature and moved into the mainstream This critical overview reassesses that viewpoint by exploring a variety of themes as well as the elements that this type of film has in common The author discusses an array of films directed by noteworthy directors from several countries demonstrating that diverse and often contradictory treatments of sexual violence can exist simultaneously

The Turn to Gruesomeness in American Horror Films, 1931-1936 Jon Towlson,2016-09-27 Critics have traditionally characterized classic horror by its use of shadow and suggestion Yet the graphic nature of early 1930s films only came to light in the home video DVD era Along with gangster movies and sex pictures horror films drew audiences during the Great Depression with sensational content Exploiting a loophole in the Hays Code which made no provision for on screen gruesomeness studios produced remarkably explicit films that were recut when the Code was more rigidly enforced from 1934 This led to a modern misperception that classic horror was intended to be safe and reassuring to audiences The author examines the 1931 to 1936 happy ending horror in relation to industry practices and censorship Early works like Murders in the Rue Morgue 1932 and The Raven 1935 may be more akin to The Texas Chain Saw Massacre 1974 and Hostel 2005 than many critics believe

East Asian Cinemas V. Lee,2011-04-12 This book is an original volume of essays that sheds new and critical light on current and emerging filmmaking trends and practices in China Taiwan Hong Kong Japan and South Korea A timely and important contribution to existing scholarship in the field

Horror Films of the 1980s John Kenneth Muir,2010-07-28 John Kenneth Muir is back This time the author of the acclaimed Horror Films of the 1970s turns his attention to 300 films from the 1980s From horror franchises like Friday the 13th and Hellraiser to obscurities like The Children and The Boogens Muir is our informative guide Muir introduces the scope of the decade's horrors and offers a history that draws parallels between current events and the nightmares unfolding on cinema screens Each of the 300 films is discussed with detailed credits a brief synopsis a critical commentary and where applicable notes on the film's legacy beyond the 80s Also included is the author's ranking of the 15 best horror films of the 80s

the actual buildings that served as the inspiration for Psycho's infamous Bates Motel. Her analysis of North by Northwest uncovers the Frank Lloyd Wright underpinnings for Robert Boyle's design of the modernist house from the film's celebrated Mount Rushmore sequence and ingeniously establishes the Vandamm House as the prototype of the cinematic trope of the villain's lair. She also shows how the widespread unemployment of the 1930s resulted in a surge of gifted architects transplanting their careers into the film industry. These practitioners created sets that drew from contemporary design schools of thought and referenced real structures both modern and historic. The Architecture of Suspense is the first book to document how these great architectural minds found expression in Hitchcock's films and how the director used their talents and his own unique vision to create an enduring and evocative cinematic world. Publication of this volume was assisted by a grant from Furthermore, a program of the J. M. Kaplan Fund.

Terror Television John Kenneth Muir, 2013-02-25 Although horror shows on television are popular in the 1990s thanks to the success of Chris Carter's The X-Files, such has not always been the case. Creators Rod Serling, Dan Curtis, William Castle, Quinn Martin, John Newland, George Romero, Stephen King, David Lynch, Wes Craven, Sam Raimi, Aaron Spelling, and others have toiled to bring the horror genre to American living rooms for years. This large-scale reference book documents an entire genre from the dawn of modern horror television with the watershed Serling anthology Night Gallery (1970), a show lensed in color and featuring more graphic makeup and violence than ever before seen on the tube, through more than 30 programs including those of the 1998-1999 season. Complete histories, critical reception, episode guides, cast, crew, and guest star information as well as series reviews are included along with footnotes, a lengthy bibliography, and an in-depth index. From Kolchak: The Night Stalker to Millennium, from The Evil Touch to Buffy the Vampire Slayer and Twin Peaks, Terror Television is a detailed reference guide to three decades of frightening television programs, both memorable and obscure.
