A Short Biographical Dictionary of Foreign Literature Robert Farquharson Sharp, 1933 A Short Biographical Dictionary of Foreign Literature Robert Farquharson SHARP (Keeper of Printed Books, British Museum.), 1933 A Short Biographical Dictionary of Foreign Literature R. Farquharson Sharp, 2007-10

PREFACE THE Author of this very practical treatise on Scotch Loch Fishing desires clearly that it may be of use to all who had it He does not pretend to have written anything new but to have attempted to put what he has to say in as readable a form as possible Everything in the way of the history and habits of fish has been studiously avoided and technicalities have been used as sparingly as possible The writing of this book has afforded him pleasure in his leisure moments and that pleasure would be much increased if he knew that the perusal of it would create any bond of sympathy between himself and the angling community in general This section is interleaved with blank sheets for the readers notes The Author need hardly say that any suggestions addressed to the care of the publishers will meet with consideration in a future edition We do not pretend to write or enlarge upon a new subject Much has been said and written and well said and written too on the art of fishing but loch fishing has been rather looked upon as a second rate performance and to dispel this idea is one of the objects for which this present treatise has been written Far be it from us to say anything against fishing lawfully practised in any form but many pent up in our large towns will bear us out when we say that on the whole a days loch fishing is the most convenient One great matter is that the loch fisher is dependent on nothing but enough wind to curl the water and on a large loch it is very seldom that a dead calm prevails all day and can make his arrangements for a day weeks beforehand whereas the stream fisher is dependent for a good take on the state of the water and however pleasant and easy it may be for one living near the banks of a good trout stream or river it is quite another matter to arrange for a days river fishing if one is looking forward to a holiday at a date some weeks ahead Providence may favour the expectant angler with a good day and the water in order but experience has taught most of us that the good days are in the minority and that as is the case with our rapid running streams such as many of our northern streams are the water is either too large or too small unless as previously remarked you live near at hand and can catch it at its best A common belief in regard to loch fishing is that the tyro and the experienced angler have nearly the same chance in fishing the one from the stern and the other from the bow of the same boat Of all the absurd beliefs as to loch fishing this is one of the most absurd Try it Give the tyro either end of the boat he likes give him a cast of ally flies he may fancy or even a cast similar to those which a crack may be using and if he catches one for every three the other has he may consider himself very lucky Of course there are lochs where the fish are not abundant and a beginner may come across as many as an older fisher but we speak of lochs where there are fish to be caught and where each has a fair chance Again it is said that the boatman has as much to do with catching trout in a loch as the angler Well we dont deny that In an untried loch it is necessary to have the guidance of a good boatman but the same argument holds good as to stream fishing A Short

An Analytical Bibliography of Universal Collected Biography Phyllis M. Riches,Library Association,1934 A Printing History of Everyman's Library 1906-1982 Terry Seymour,2011 The total number of Everyman's Library volumes that still survive somewhere in the world exceeds 70 million Since the inception of the Library in 1906 nearly 1200 unique volumes have been published constantly placing the world's greatest books before a large public A few of these titles proved unpopular and were never reprinted But most were reprinted dozens of times packaged in numerous ways and benefited from updated editorial work and book design over the last century Terry Seymour has studied and researched every aspect of this great mass of books He now captures and distills this knowledge in A Printing History of Everyman's Library 1906-1982 A critical feature of course is to update the various collecting factoids that have emerged since 2005 when his Guide to Collecting Everyman's Library was published The meat of the new book however is the Bibliographical Entries section Each volume that has ever been printed receives its own entry detailing every printing each dust jacket variation any new introductions updated scarcity numbers and all relevant notes Typically an entry contains at least six lines of information but often much more In essence each entry is a story written exclusively about each volume Armed with this resource collectors and booksellers can know reliably everything about the Everyman's Library volume that sits on their shelf or is ready to be purchased or sold They will see how a book fits into the total printing history of that title and be able to describe and value the book with precision To further enhance the value of this book color images illustrate all of the key collecting points An extensive index of editors translators and artists is now included Not just a solo effort the Printing History has been vetted by other expert collectors ensuring greater accuracy and comprehensiveness A Short History of France Victor

Duruy,1928 Biographical Dictionaries and Related Works Robert B. Slocum,1986 Poems of Guido Gezelle Paul Vincent,2016-11-14 The Bruges born poet priest Guido Gezelle 1830-1899 is generally considered one of the masters of nineteenth century European lyric poetry At the end of his life and in the first two decades of the twentieth century Gezelle was hailed by the avant garde as the founder of modern Flemish poetry His unique voice was belatedly recognised in the Netherlands and often compared with his English contemporary Gerard Manley Hopkins 1844-1889 In this bilingual anthology award winning translator Paul Vincent selects a representative picture of Gezelle's output from devotional through narrative to celebratory and expressionistic Gezelle's favourite themes are childhood the Flemish landscape friendship nature religion and the Flemish vernacular and his apparently simple poems conceal a sophisticated prosody and a dialogue with spiritual and literary tradition However an important barrier to wider international recognition of his lyric genius up to now has been the absence of translations that do justice to the vigour and musicality of Gezelle's West Flemish idiom Two of the translations included go some way to redressing the balance The Watter Sciever by Scotland's national poet Edwin Morgan and A Little Leaf by Francis Jones Both translators make brilliant use of their own vernaculars Glaswegian and North Yorkshire respectively to bring Gezelle to life for the non Dutch speaking reader

The Life and Letters of William Sharp and "Fiona Macleod". Volume 1: 1855-1894 William F. Halloran, 2018-11-27 William Sharp 1855 1905 conducted one of the most audacious literary deceptions of his or any time Sharp was a Scottish poet novelist biographer and editor who in 1893 began to write critically and commercially successful books under the name Fiona Macleod This was far more than just a pseudonym he corresponded as Macleod enlisting his sister to provide the handwriting and address and for more than a decade Fiona Macleod duped not only the general public but such literary luminaries as William Butler Yeats and in America E C Stedman Sharp wrote I feel another self within me now more than ever it is as if I were possessed by a spirit who must speak out This three volume collection brings together Sharp's own correspondence a fascinating trove in its own right by a Victorian man of letters who was on intimate terms with writers including Dante Gabriel Rossetti Walter Pater and George Meredith and the Fiona Macleod letters which bring to life Sharp's intriguing second self With an introduction and detailed notes by William F Halloran this richly rewarding collection offers a wonderful insight into the literary landscape of the time while also investigating a strange and underappreciated phenomenon of late nineteenth century English literature It is essential for scholars of the period and it is an illuminating read for anyone interested in authorship and identity
