Discover Your Journey with Tailored Travel Guides Lights of Two Centuries Edward Everett Hale (Sr.), 1887 Lights of Two Centuries Edward Everett Hale, 1887 The East in the West Jack

Goody, 1996-03-21. The East in the West reassesses Western views of Asia. Traditionally many European historians and theorists have seen the societies of the East as static or backward. Jack Goody challenges these assumptions beginning with the notion of a special Western rationality which enabled us and not them to modernise. He then turns to book keeping which several social and economic historians have seen as intrinsic to capitalism, arguing that there was in fact little difference between East and West in terms of mercantile activity. Other factors said to inhibit the East's development such as the family and forms of labour have also been greatly exaggerated. This Eurocentrism both fails to explain the current achievements of the East and misunderstands Western history. The East in the West starts to redress the balance and so marks a fundamental shift in our view of Western and Eastern history and society. The Kaiser's Escapees Philip D. Chinnery, 2018-05-30

Following on from his first well received book The Kaisers First POWs Philip Chinnery now turns his attention to the attempts by allied prisoners of war to escape the Kaiser's clutches and return to their homeland. As the war progressed the treatment of allied prisoners worsened as the blockade of Germany reduced the amount of food and material coming into the country. The majority of the prisoners were too weak or ill equipped to attempt to escape but there were others who were determined to pit their wits against their jailers. These included the officers at Holzminden prison who dug a tunnel allowing twenty eight of their number to escape. Men like Canadian Private Simmons who escaped and was recaptured twice before his third attempt saw him gain his freedom. Men who jumped from moving trains or marched brazenly out of the camp gates disguised as German officers. Although Holland and Switzerland were neutral countries during the First World War escaping from their camps, crossing miles of enemy territory and outwitting the sentries guarding the frontiers taxed even the strongest individuals. But many men did make the attempt and more than a few of them were successful. This is their story.
