Gunzburg,1997-01-01 Healing Through Meeting explains Martin Buber s ideas in simple terms and shows how they can offer a philosophical framework within which to hold a therapeutic conversation John Gunzburg shares his skills in composing therapeutic stories and encourages therapists to formulate their own stories out of their and their clients experiences The Fall Albert Camus,2012-09-19 NOBEL PRIZE WINNING AUTHOR One of the most widely read novels of all time from one of the best known writers of all time about a lawyer from Paris who brilliantly illuminates the human condition Elegantly styled Camus profoundly disturbing novel of a Parisian lawyer s confessions is a searing study of modern amorality Straight Through the Heart Franz Birgel,Klaus Phillips,2004 In addition to the articles this volume includes an interview with Doris

Dorrie and the filmmaker's own English translation of her original script for Nobody Loves Me Jacket Transactions with the World Adam O'Brien, 2016-02-01 In their bold experimentation and bracing engagement with culture and politics the New Hollywood films of the late 1960s and early 1970s are justly celebrated contributions to American cinematic history. Relatively unexplored however has been the profound environmental sensibility that characterized movies such as The Wild Bunch, Chinatown and Nashville. This brisk and engaging study explores how many hallmarks of New Hollywood filmmaking such as the increased reliance on location shooting and the rejection of American self-mythologizing made the era such a vividly grounded cinematic moment. Synthesizing a range of narrative, aesthetic and ecocritical theories it offers a genuinely fresh perspective on one of the most studied periods in film history. Television's Strangest Moments Quentin Falk, Ben Falk, 2014-02-25 Ever since John Logie Baird first publicly demonstrated this now all pervasive medium in his small Soho laboratory the history of television has been littered with remarkable but true tales of the unexpected. Ranging from bizarre stories of actors' shenanigans to strange but true executive and marketing decisions and covering over one hundred shows, series and episodes from both behind and in front of the camera in British and American television studios Television's Strangest Moments is the ultimate tome of TV trivia. Why did the quintessential English sleuth The Saint drive a Swedish car? What happened when Michael Aspel met Nora Batty on the set of the 1960s drama documentary The War Game? Why is the Halloween chiller Ghostwatch still unofficially banned by the BBC? From live TV suicide to Ricky Martin's disastrous candid camera style episode involving a young female fan and several cans of dog food Television's Strangest Moments will keep you hooked when there's nothing worth watching on the box. The Moviegoing Experience, 1968-2001 Richard W. Haines, 2010-06-28 The experience of going to the movies be it a single screen theater, twin multiplex or drive in is affected by many different factors that have shifted over the years. Just as movies emerged from silent to talking, black and white to color, there has invariably been change in the way movies are made, copied, distributed and viewed. This change in the moviegoing experience for better or for worse is worth studying. This work examines the American moviegoing experience from 1968 to 2001, the way in which movies are made and regulated including the demise of the Production Code and the emergence of the ratings system as well as changes in lighting, cinematography and coloring techniques. The projection practices of the past and present during and after the presence of the Projectionists Union and the advent of the platter which allowed for automated projection are discussed. How home video and cable affected the content of films after the eighties and the history of computerized special effects leading to the development of digital cinema projection are included. The work also covers the changing types of venues over the last third of a century and other aspects that affect positively or negatively the entire moviegoing experience. LGBTQ America Today John Charles Hawley, 2008-11-30 Lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer culture is a vibrant and rapidly evolving segment of the American mosaic. This book gives students and general readers a current guide to the people and issues at the forefront of contemporary LGBTQ America.

The Art of American Screen Acting, 1960 to Today Dan Callahan,2019-01-31 Modern screen acting in English is dominated by two key figures Method acting guru Lee Strasberg who taught the the art of experiencing over the art of representing and English theater titan Laurence Olivier who once said of the Method s immersive approach try acting it s so much easier This book explores in detail the work of such method actors as Al Pacino Ellen Burstyn Jack Nicholson and Jane Fonda and charts the shift away from the more internally focused Strasberg based acting of the 1970s and towards the more external way of working exemplified by the career of Meryl Streep in the 1980s
