Jette, 2020-12-16 How many times do we wonder why we are ill prepared for the darkness that tries to assail us daily and become victims instead of victors It is all based on the soil ground into which the seed of knowledge the promise the revelation is sown that determines what is done during the darkness and the results of our harvest This book will disclose an understanding that the soil in which the seeds are sown is the condition of our heart at any given moment We will learn how to always harvest a crop that will bring forth fruit some thirtyfold some sixty and some a hundred Presently some of us are in a storm and it is pounding furiously We feel undone Have we allowed the cares of the world the deceitfulness of riches our finances our children our job our country s unrest politics etc to overwhelm us Have we forgotten our God is infinite unlimited and able to perform his word God s word is efficacious If it is not performing God s will in our life it is time to understand the importance of our heart s condition at the time the seed of knowledge is sown The Dublin University Magazine ,1873 University Magazine ,1873 Narcissus and the Invention of Personal History Kenneth J.

Knoespel, 2015-08-14 Originally published in 1985 This investigation of Ovid s fable takes a different tack to previous studies of the love lyric or the themes but looks at the creation of narrative strategies to explain Narcissus experience The story has always been understood as literally impossible but invites readers to ask what is meant by the puzzling tale of deception and death The limits placed on the fable by the commentaries of the medieval period allow us to appreciate the narrative expansion of the fable in twelfth and thirteenth century poetry Themes in this book are the way the fable is used as a means for knowledge of physical nature and the development of science the importance of language in the fable and in its settings when rewritten in other texts and psychoanalytic aspects of Echo and Narcissus The fable has the capacity to represent mental life and psychological crisis within other narratives and this is also an important discussion point based around the medieval text Roman de la Rose The book also considers the wider Metamorphoses and Ovid s importance for literature

Now ,1903 Catherin & Alexander Love on the Internet T.R. Espinola, 2013-01-31 Catherin Alexander Love on the Internet is about two romantically driven people that have been for the greatest part of their lives unlucky in love They see the romance in the rose opening its bloom for the world to see the beauty held within as well as in the ability for two people with romantic hearts to find each other enjoying the poetic beauty of the world around them However each feels disappointed in the fact that they have not found the person that brings loves star into focus Catherin a hopeful romantic is a woman that craves romance enjoys being a woman and loves being feminine She envisions herself in romantic scenarios with a man that can hold her heart in his hands capable of loving her for the rest of her life On the other hand Alexander is not only a man of action an individual that has always enjoyed adventure never missing an opportunity to feel the adrenaline run through his veins but also a true romantic and a Southern gentleman He believes strength is best found in the way in which a man loves the woman in his life and in the way he lives his life as an example for others to follow After experiencing another bad date he decides to follow the advice of a friend and join an Internet dating site Catherin experiencing a similar situation over six thousand miles away does the same allowing them both to find a love that bridges two completely different worlds uniting their hearts forever together One Layman'S Contemporary Theology Michael S. K. Toh, 2014-07-17 The credential of the author is based upon the fact that he is a trained psychologist a biologist and a scientist and has been in management business fields for many years having been exposed in all aspects of commerce and finance He has a Master degree in Industrial Psychology from the University of Sydney Bachelor of Science degree with a double major in psychology from Australian National University and a major in Biology from RMIT Was awarded the Elizabeth and Martin Summit Prize in Psychology an annual award given to the most outstanding student in Psychology at Sydney University He has been teaching in a university for several years and was involved in politics for some time but voluntarily chose to pursue a different path because of the incompatible sets of values that are required against what he believed in He has a background of Buddhist and Confucian upbringing and was converted to being a follower of Jesus as a Catholic However he had been battling with what the churches taught and his knowledge and understanding in the fields of biology and psychology new discoveries of physical sciences in which he was trained against the background of his upbringing in a culture that was homogenous and has survived for more than 5000 years of history and his life experiences in the modern commercial materialistic world culture He believes in doing Gods work in whatever circumstances he was placed to be guided by the principles of what he believed Jesus has taught in establishing a consistent logical framework that is universal and more holistic the result of which is the writing of this book One of his greatest gifts is his ability to analyze things logically and he has been a good debater when he was at school He has thus put all his thoughts down gathered from his training life experiences and his wide exposure in the modern world environment to establish an overall consistent logical framework in understanding the meaning of life in the order of things and the role religion plays in assisting each individuals to achieve the universal objective of a salvation and the conflicts that are generated as a result of different derivatives of history and culture of the world
