Archaeology of the Early Islamic Settlement in Palestine Jodi Magness, 2003-06-30 There is a common perception that the Muslim conquest of Palestine in the seventh century caused a decline in the number and prosperity of settlements throughout the country The role played by archaeology in perpetuating this view claims Magness is particularly insidious because it is perceived rightly or wrongly as providing scientific and therefore objective data Thus archaeological evidence is frequently cited by scholars as proof or confirmation that Palestine declined after the Muslim conquest and especially after the rise of the Abbasids in the mid eighth century Instead Magness argues that the archaeological evidence freed insofar as possible of political and or religious biases supports the idea that Palestine and Syria experienced a tremendous growth in population and prosperity between the mid sixth and mid seventh centuries Such a radical shift in the interpretation of the evidence guarantees that this volume will be a benchmark with which future interpretations must reckon The book includes a CD with map and key which provides additional information regarding the sites studied and the area examined The Bloomsbury Handbook of Material Religion in the Ancient Near East and Egypt Nicola Laneri, Sharon R. Steadman, 2023-06-29 With contributions spanning from the Neolithic Age to the Iron Age this book offers important insights into the religions and ritual practices in ancient Egyptian and Near Eastern communities through the lenses of their material remains The book begins with a theoretical introduction to the concept of material religion and features editor introductions to each of its six parts which tackle the following themes the human body religious architecture the written word sacred images the spirituality of animals and the sacred role of the landscape Illustrated with over 100 images chapters provide insight into every element of religion and materiality from the largest building to the smallest amulet This is a benchmark work for further studies on material religion in the ancient Near East and Egypt An Investigation into Early Desert Pastoralism Steven A. Rosen, 2011-10-11 Negev focuses on two primary purposes one theoretical methodological and the second substantive Briefly stated the book comprises a case study of excavations at an early ca 2800 B C pastoral site in the Negev providing detailed analyses and a synthetic overview of a seasonal encampment from this early period in the evolution of desert pastoral societies It thus both demonstrates the feasibility of an archaeology of early mobile pastoralism and grapples with the basic anthropological and methodological issues surrounding the subject Substantively both the architectural and material culture assemblages uncovered constitute the first detailed analysis of this early desert culture and include materials previously unreported for the region and period Historically the Camel Site is placed in a larger perspective of the beginnings of multiresource nomadism in relation to the rise of complex societies Lonely Planet Israel & the Palestinian Territories Daniel Robinson, 2022-10 Lonely Planet s Israel all with your trusted travel companion Get to the heart of Israel it s in every traveller s hands It s on mobile phones It s on the Internet It s everywhere and it s telling entire generations of people how to travel the world Fairfax Media Australia A Companion to the Archaeology of the Ancient Near East D. T. Potts, 2012-08-15 A COMPANION TO THE ARCHAEOLOGY OF THE ANCIENT NEAR EAST A Companion to the Archaeology of the Ancient Near East is a comprehensive and authoritative overview of ancient material culture from the late Pleistocene to Late Antiquity This expansive two volume work includes 58 new essays from an international community of ancient Near East scholars With coverage extending from Asia Minor the eastern Mediterranean and Egypt to the Caucasus Central Asia and the Indo Iranian borderlands the book highlights the enormous variation in cultural developments across roughly 11 000 years of human endeavor In addition to chapters devoted to specific regions and particular periods many contributors concentrate on individual industries and major themes in ancient Near Eastern archaeology ranging from metallurgy and agriculture to irrigation and fishing Controversial issues including the nature and significance of the antiquities market ethical considerations in archaeological praxis the history of the foundation of departments of antiquities and ancient attitudes towards the past make this a unique collection of studies that will be of interest to scholars students and interested readers alike

The Byzantine-Islamic Transition in Palestine Gideon Avni, 2014 Using recent archaeological findings Avni addresses the transformation of local societies in Palestine and Jordan between the sixth and eleventh centuries AD arguing that the Byzantine Islamic transition was a much slower and gradual process than previously thought

Early Bronze Age Goods Exchange in the Southern Levant Ianir Milevski, 2016-09-17 The Southern Levant was a thriving centre of religious and cultural exchange during the Bronze Age Early Bronze Age Goods Exchange in the Southern Levant provides an overview of the sources and distribution of commodities The book presents a study of key production centres and the process of purchase and exchange The book establishes a theoretical framework based in political economy ethnoarchaeology and economic anthropology for understanding the exchange of commodities in a precapitalist society Early Bronze Age Goods Exchange in the Southern Levant is unique in presenting archaeological sources and prehistoric economics through modern notably Marxist theories of human development

Revolutions in the Desert Steven Rosen, 2016-11-25 Revolutions in the Desert investigates the development of pastoral nomadism in the arid regions of the ancient Near East challenging the prevailing notion that such societies left few remains appropriate for analytic study Few prior studies have approached the deeper past of desert nomadic societies which have been primarily recognized only as a complement to the study of sedentary agricultural societies in the region Based on decades of archaeological field work in the Negev of southern Israel both excavations and surveys and integrating materials from adjacent regions Revolutions in the Desert offers a deeper and more dynamic view of the rise of herding societies beyond the settled zone Rosen offers the first archaeological analysis of the rise of herding in the desert from the first introduction of domestic goats and sheep into the arid zones more than eight millennia ago to the evolution of more recent Bedouin societies The adoption of domestic herds by hunter gatherer societies contemporary with and peripheral to the first farming settlements revolutionized all aspects of desert life including subsistence trade cult social organization and ecology Inviting processual comparison to the agricultural revolution and the secondary spread of domestication beyond the Near East this volume traces the evolution of nomadic societies in the archaeological record and examines their ecological economic and social adaptations to the deserts of the Southern Levant With maps and illustrations from the author's own collection Revolutions in the Desert is a thoughtful and engaging approach to the archaeology of desert nomadic societies

Cyber-Archaeology and Grand Narratives Thomas E. Levy, Ian W. N. Jones, 2017-11-21 This volume asks how the current Information Technology Revolution influences archaeological interpretations of techno social change Does cyber archaeology provide a way to breathe new life into grand narratives of technological revolution and culture change or does it further challenge these high level theoretical explanations Do digital recording methods have the potential to create large regional scale databases to ease investigation of high level theoretical issues or have they simply exposed deeper issues of archaeological practice that prevent this In short this volume cuts beyond platitudes about the revolutionary potential of the Information Technology Revolution and instead critically engages both its possibilities and limitations The contributions to this volume are drawn from long term regional studies employing a cyber archaeology framework primarily in the southern Levant a region with rich archaeological data sets spanning the Paleolithic to the present day As such contributors are uniquely placed to comment on the interface between digital methods and grand narratives of long term techno social change Cyber Archaeology and Grand Narratives provides a much needed challenge to current approaches and a first step toward integrating innovative digital methods with archaeological theory

New Approaches to Old Stones Yorke M. Rowan, Jennie R. Ebeling, 2016-04-08 Ground stone artefacts were widely used in food production in prehistory However the archaeological community has widely neglected the dataset of ground stone artefacts until now New Approaches to Old Stones offers a theoretical and methodological analysis of the archaeological data pertaining to ground stone tools The essays draw on a range of case studies from the Levant Egypt Crete Anatolia Mexico and North America to examine ground stone technologies From medieval Islamic stone cooking vessels and late Minoan stone vases to the use of stone in ritual and as a symbol of luxury New Approaches to Old Stones offers a radical reassessment of the impact of ground stone artefacts on technological change production and exchange DK Eyewitness
