Map To The End Of Time Wayfarings With Friends And Philosophers:

A Map to the End of Time Ronald J. Manheimer, 1999 Manheimer relates the lessons he learned while teaching philosophy to a diverse group of retired people

Aging and the Art of Living Jan Baars, 2012-08-20 In this deeply considered meditation on aging in Western culture Jan Baars argues that in today's world living longer does not necessarily mean living better He contends that there has been an overall loss of respect for aging to the point that understanding and dealing with aging people has become a process focused on the decline of potential and the advance of disease rather than on the accumulation of wisdom and the creation of new skills To make his case Baars compares and contrasts the works of such modern era thinkers as Foucault Heidegger and Husserl with the thought of Plato Aristotle Sophocles Cicero and other Ancient and Stoic philosophers He shows how people in the classical period less able to control health hazards had a far better sense of the provisional nature of living which led to a philosophical and religious emphasis on cultivating the art of living and the idea of wisdom This is not to say that modern society's assessments of aging are insignificant but they do need to balance an emphasis on the measuring of age with the concept of living in time Gerontologists philosophers and students will find Baars discussion to be a powerful perceptive conversation starter

Critical perspectives on ageing societies Miriam Bernard, Thomas Scharf, 2007-05-16 This important book brings together some of the best known international scholars working within a critical gerontology perspective Together they review and update our understanding of how the field has developed over the last twenty five years and through the lens of passionate scholarship provide a challenging assessment of the complex practical and ethical issues facing older people and those who conduct research on ageing in the 21st century The contributions extend the critical gerontological approach conceptually methodologically and practically They offer close and scholarly analysis of policies affecting the lives of older people and provide insights into why research is done in particular ways Special attention is paid to feminist contributions and new approaches to working in partnership with older people age discrimination and ageism the impact of neo liberal policies and the passage of various human rights instruments the re medicalisation of later life the participation of older people in research and justice between generations The editors and contributors offer suggestions for promoting change and an exciting set of visions and perspectives for the renewal and development of critical gerontology in the years ahead Critical Perspectives on Ageing Societies will be a valuable resource for all students academics and practitioners interested in ageing and the life course

AARP® Crash Course in Finding the Work You Love Samuel Greengard, 2011-02-01 Boomers reinvented society Now they re reinventing themselves and AARP wants to facilitate that process AARP Crash Course in Finding the Work You Love explores both the motivations and the methods of those taking part in the social phenomenon known as recareering Whether they are old enough to have earned their AARP card or not a new generation of American workers is no longer counting the days until retirement instead they re seeking greater fulfillment in their personal lives by tackling new and often much more socially significant work Switching careers is a challenge at any age yet boomers may have more to overcome than their younger counterparts They must beef up their education or seek out retraining cope with seismic lifestyle shifts such as less income and a new circle of friends and reconcile themselves to the fact that even the most rewarding position is no panacea for life s problems Author Sam Greengard brings a wealth of knowledge to this timely topic Since 1981 he has written about career issues for publications as diverse as The Chicago Tribune Family Circle The Los Angeles Times MSNBC MSN Online Wired and Workforce Management Here Greengard shows readers how to sort out their feelings about their existing career successfully transition to a new one and work toward a greater sense of balance in their daily lives Profiles of recareering veterans show how others have attained their own goals These are rounded out by tips quizzes worksheets how to sidebars and other practical resources With this handbook to guide them readers of any age can finally make the leap to finding the life s work they will truly love

Ageing, Insight and Wisdom Ricca Edmondson, 2015-06-29 This book focuses on older people as makers of meaning and insight highlighting the evolving values priorities and ways of communicating that make later life fascinating It explores what creating meaning in later life really implies for older people themselves for how to conceptualise older people and for relationships between generations The book offers a language for discussing major types of lifecourse meaning not least those concerning ethical and temporal aspects of the ways people interpret their lifecourses the ways older people form part of social and symbolic landscapes and the types of wisdom they can offer It will appeal to students of gerontology sociological methodology humanistic sociology philosophy psychology and health promotion and medicine

Writing as Inquiry Towards Being and Becoming Joanne Yoo, 2025-03-04 Writing as Inquiry Towards Being and Becoming provides a guide to the different phases of growth experienced when undertaking creative forms of academic writing and inquiry It describes how embodied aesthetic and poetic forms of academic inquiry can be a catalyst for both personal and professional growth In the author s trademark thoughtful lyrical writing style this book moves beyond the technical skills of writing to exploring the reasons why we should engage in creative inquiry It raises fundamental questions regarding the expansive and ontological possibilities of qualitative inquiry and how it can help us to exist meaningfully in this world This book is suitable for students and scholars of creative and qualitative inquiry who are interested in the writing process and how it shapes our identities as researchers in education the social sciences and communication studies Valuing Older People Edmondson, Ricca, von Kondratowitz, Hans-Joachim, 2009-07-20 This collection offers a lively and creative response to contemporary challenges of ageing and how to understand it The Encyclopedia of Aging Linda S. Sprott, Ph.D., 2006-03-17 A COMPREHENSIVE RESOURCE ON GERONTOLOGY AND GERIATRICS Since its inception in 1987 The Encyclopedia of Aging has proven to be the definitive resource for scholars and students across the burgeoning and increasingly interdisciplinary fields of gerontology and geriatrics Like its three esteemed predecessors the fourth edition contains concise readable explorations of hundreds of terms concepts and issues related to the lives of older adults as well as timely coverage of the many new programs and services for the elderly Updated under the distinguished stewardship of editor in chief Richard Schulz to reflect the infusion of new information across the scientific disciplines this new edition brings readers up to the moment significant advances in biology physiology genetics medicine psychology nursing social services sociology economics technology and political science While retaining the format and standard of excellence that marked the first three editions the fourth edition encompasses a wealth of new information from the social and health sciences It contains the most current bibliography of an expanding literature an exhaustive index and extensive cross references This much anticipated update of the field's most authoritative resource will take its place as an indispensable reference for specialists and non specialists across a broad range of disciplines that now comprise the field of aging SPRINGER SERVING THE HEALTHCARE AND HELPING PROFESSIONS FOR MORE THAN 55 YEARS

Spirituality and Aging Robert C. Atchley, 2009-03-01 Winner 2009 Richard Kalish Innovative Publication Award Gerontological Society of America A spiritual life one focused on personal growth and deep human experience is a major focus and motivator for people over the age of forty Yet there is a marked lack of rigorous academic study of spirituality's importance in the lives of aging people Noted gerontologist Robert C Atchley remedies this problem by developing complex concepts and language about spirituality Spirituality and Aging incorporates material from two decades of interviews observations study and reflection to illustrate ways of thinking about and discussing spirituality what it is why it is important and how it influences the experience of aging This book provides a nuanced view of spirituality and the richness it brings to the lives of older people The book is divided into three sections with the first providing basic frames of reference for examining spirituality and aging such as the nature of spirituality spiritual development and the spiritual self Atchley next focuses on two dimensions of spirituality that are likely to manifest later in life becoming a sage developing the capacity to bring spiritual light to everyday issues and serving from spirit creating opportunities for service that are rooted in spirituality

The last section illustrates how spirituality informs other aspects of late life such as psychological coping and the experience of dying and death Separating spirituality from religion something few books on this topic do Spirituality and Aging offers a plan for incorporating spirituality into gerontological scholarship research education and practice Gerontology Janet May Wilmoth, Kenneth F. Ferraro, 2007 Print CourseSmart Boomers and Beyond Pauline Rothstein, Diantha Dow Schull, 2010-05-10 Supporting this growing population is a concern of many and this book will help you find ways to be creative and take the initiative to build a better service model for these customers Aging, Spirituality, and Religion Melvin Kimble, Susan H. McFadden, 2002-12-01 Volume II picks up where Volume I left off with practical advice and tools for ministry with the aging in a variety of settings Gerontological and theological perspectives undergird the practical guidance and a final section treats of the unique ethical issues involved in ministry with the aging What Color Is Your Parachute? for Retirement, Second Edition John E. Nelson, Richard N. Bolles, 2011-09-21 Plan Now for the Life You Want Today s economic realities have reset our expectations of what retirement is yet there s still the promise for what it can be a life stage filled with more freedom and potential than ever before Given the new normal how do you plan for a future filled with prosperity health and happiness As a companion to What Color Is Your Parachute the world s best selling career book What Color Is Your Parachute for Retirement offers both a holistic big picture look at these years as well as practical tools and exercises to help you build a life full of security vitality and community This second edition contains updates throughout including a section on Social Security an in depth exercise on values and how they inform your retirement map and the one of a kind resource for organizing the sea of information on finances and mental and physical health the Retirement Well Being Profile More than a guide on where to live how to stay active or which investments to choose What Color Is Your Parachute for Retirement helps you develop a detailed picture of your ideal retirement so that whether you re planning retirement or are there already you can take a comprehensive approach to make the most of these vital years Life Gets Better Wendy Lustbader, 2011-08-18 The acclaimed author of What s Worth Knowing reveals the truth about aging Old age often offers a richer better and more self assured life than youth From our earliest lives we are told that our youth will be the best time of our lives that the energy and vitality of youth are the most important qualities a person can possess and that everything that comes after will be a sad decline But in reality says Wendy Lustbader youth is not the golden era it is often made out to be For many it is a time riddled with anxiety angst confusion and the torture of uncertainty Conversely the media often feeds us a vision of growing older as a journey of defeat and diminishment They are dead wrong As Lustbader counters Life gets better as we get older on all levels except the physical Life Gets Better is not a precious or whimsical tome on the quirky wisdom of the elderly Lustbader who has worked for several decades as a social worker specializing in aging issues conducted firsthand research with aging and elderly people in all walks of life and she found that they overwhelmingly spoke of the mental and emotional richness they have drawn from aging Lustbader discovered that rather than experiencing a decline from youth aging people were happier more courageous and more interested in being true to their inner selves than were young people Life Gets Better examines through first person stories as well as Lustbader's own observations how a lifetime of lessons learned can yield one of the most personally and emotionally fruitful periods of anyone's life As an eighty six year old who contributed her story to the book noted For me being old is the reward for outlasting all the big and little problems that happen to all of us along life's pathway The collected stories in Life Gets Better provide a hopeful corrective to the fear of aging aggressively instilled in us by the media Don't dread the future The best years of our lives just may be ahead
