

An engraving in a sepia tone. A winged figure, possibly representing a personification of Geography or Truth, stands on a rocky outcrop. The figure holds a large, rectangular map or parchment that stretches across the middle of the image. Below the map, two globes are visible, showing the Eastern and Western Hemispheres. The background features a landscape with rolling hills and a cloudy sky. The overall style is characteristic of 17th or 18th-century book illustrations.
