Mapping the Empty William L. Fox, 1999 Eight Artists and Nevada      Mapping the Empty William L. Fox, 2022-11-08
Foreword by Jeff Kelley Nevada's open spaces have long inspired complex responses from a population largely shaped by European sensibilities toward land and its uses In Mapping the Empty Fox considers how eight of the state's most distinguished and innovative contemporary artists have responded to the harsh enigmatic landscapes of the Great Basin and how through their work they have expressed and helped to define our attitudes toward the space we call the West The artists are Jim McCormick Rita Deanin Abbey Dennis Parks Walter McNamara Robert Beckmann Michael Heizer Bill Barker and Mary Ann Bonjorni      Michael Heizer: The Once and Future Monuments William L. Fox, 2019-09-24 The most comprehensive account available of Michael Heizer's art by a writer and curator who has critical experience with the artist and his work Michael Heizer is among the greatest and often least accessible American artists As one of the last living figures who launched the Land Art movement his legacy of works that are literally and metaphorically monumental has an incalculable influence on the world of sculpture and environmental art But his seclusion in the remote Nevada desert as well as his notorious obduracy have resulted in significant gaps in our critical understanding Michael Heizer The Once and Future Monuments spans the breadth of Heizer's career uniquely combining fieldwork personal narrative and biographical research to create the first major assessment in years of this titan of American art Author William L. Fox founding director of the Center for Art Environment at the Nevada Museum of Art has alternately been a sponsor advocate and critic of Heizer's work for decades Fox's understanding of the artist's history and connection to landscape his time spent with Heizer at the remote ranch where Heizer is finishing his magnum opus the mile long sculpture City and his access to some of Heizer's key associates give him a unique position from which to discuss the artist's work Fox has also made numerous site visits to Heizer's work including early pieces in the Nevada desert now largely lost to the elements to correct the often inconsistent accounts of their locations Last Fox imparts a crucial new understanding of Heizer's work by elaborating on the artist's bond with his father the famed archaeologist and cultural ecologist Robert Heizer who enlisted his son on important digs in Mexico and Peru providing the young man with an appreciation of site landscape and geology that would thoroughly inform his work Michael Heizer The Once and Future Monuments is a long overdue addition to the critical and biographical literature of this major figure in American art      Aereality William Fox, 2009-05-01 William Fox's writing for the last several years has been focused on how we construct aerial views either physically by flying or in our imaginations In Aereality he flies over earthworks in Nevada and Utah soars through the world's largest open pit mine and surveys Los Angeles circumnavigating large swaths of true American urban sprawl On the East Coast he examines the elevated art of the Hudson River Valley and New York City And finally in Australia Fox examines the history and current practice of both Euro Australian and Aboriginal aerial views and searches for the cognitive roots of our aerial imagination Accompanying Fox throughout his travels is a rolling cast of enlightened fliers geographers museum curators landscape photographers anthropologists and artists He traverses the sky in prop planes helicopters and hot air balloons all with the ultimate goal of knowing and experiencing the earth from the air     A Great Basin Mosaic James W. Hulse, 2017-03-01 The Nevada of lesser known cities towns and outposts deserve their separate chronicles and here Hulse fills a wide gap He contributes in a text rich with memories tramping through rural Nevada as a child then as a journalist seeking news and gossip then later as an academic historian and a parent trying to share the wonders of the high desert with his family Nobody is more qualified to write about the cultural nuances of rural Nevada than Hulse who retired after 35 years as a professor of history at University of Nevada Reno Robert Laxalt wrote an article in National Geographic in 1974 entitled The Other Nevada in which he referred to the Nevada that has been eclipsed by the tinsel trimmings of Las Vegas the round the clock casinos the ski slopes of the Sierra It is a Nevada that few tourists see With this book Hulse reflects on Laxalt's insights and shows changes often slow moving and incremental that have occurred since then Much of the terrain of rural Nevada has not changed at all while others have adapted to technological revolutions of recent times Hulse states that there is no single other Nevada but several subcultures with distinct features He offers a tour of sorts to what John Muir called the bewildering abundance of the Nevada landscape

Nevada Historical Society Quarterly Nevada Historical Society, 2001     In the Mind's Eye Elizabeth Caroline Dodd, 2008-01-01 In this collection of exquisite essays Elizabeth Dodd explores the natural and human history of sites in the American Southwest the caves of southern France the Kansas grasslands and the forests of the Pacific Northwest In the Mind's Eye considers the artistic and creative impulses of those who preceded us making sense of the different ways in which they and we express our experiences of landscape in words and images     Nevada Michael S. Green, 2015-03-23 Nevada A History of the Silver State has been named a CHOICE Outstanding Title Michael S Green a leading Nevada historian provides a detailed survey of the Silver State's past from the arrival of the early European explorers to the predominance of mining in the 1800s to the rise of world class tourism in the twentieth century and to more recent attempts to diversify the economy Of the numerous themes central to Green's analysis of Nevada's history luck plays a significant role in the state's growth The miners and gamblers who first visited the state all bet on luck Today the biggest contributor to Nevada's tourist economy gaming still relies on that same belief in luck Nevada's financial system has generally been based on a one industry economy first mining and more recently gaming Green delves deeply into the limitations of this structure while also exploring the theme of exploitation of the land and the overuse of the state's natural resources Green covers many more aspects of the Silver State's narrative including the dominance of one region of the state over another political forces and corruption and the citizens often tumultuous relationship with the federal government The book will appeal to scholars students and other readers interested in Nevada history     The End of Night Paul Bogard, 2013-07-09 A deeply panoramic tour of the night from its brightest spots to the darkest skies we have left A starry night is one of nature's most magical wonders Yet in our artificially lit world three quarters of Americans eyes never switch to night vision and most of us no longer experience true darkness In The End of Night Paul Bogard restores our awareness of the spectacularly primal wildly dark night sky and how it has influenced the human experience across everything from science to art From Las Vegas Luxor Beam the brightest single spot on this planet to nights so starlit the sky looks like snow Bogard blends personal narrative natural history science and history to shed light on the importance of darkness what we've lost what we still have and what we might regain and the simple ways we can reduce the brightness of our nights tonight Nevada Highways and Parks, 1999 Ceramics Monthly, 1999-06 Western American Literature, 1999 Driving by Memory William L. Fox, 1999 Road trips to Las Vegas are the occasion for this entertaining meditation on the quintessentially American experience of driving across the desert William Fox successively exiled from California Nevada and New Mexico has spent more time than most of us driving to Las Vegas and he has taken notes on three recent trips his own way of bringing cohesion to the vast and mind numbing aspects of the freeway Approaching the most postmodern city on the planet from three directions he examines the landscape and what we do to it while also trying to figure out who he is what that means and the nature of the transformations of land into landscape through art and architecture landscape design and advertising Fox's history of the region both natural and cultural highlights the creep of the urban supergrid across the most extensively traveled desert in the world This is a profoundly personal even idiosyncratic book about the most public of subjects living in the postmodern West at the end of the millennium and what the cities the freeways the open spaces and the billboards tell us about ourselves Ends of the Earth Miwon Kwon, 2012 This catalogue to accompany the museum exhibition traces the emergence of the artistic impulses to use the earth as material land as medium and to locate works in remote sites beyond familiar art contexts Significantly Ends of the Earth challenges many myths about Land art that it was primarily a North American phenomenon that it was foremost a sculptural practice and that it exceeds the confines of the art system Featuring over 100 artists hailing from countries including Great Britain Germany Iceland Israel Japan the Netherlands and the United States the exhibition constitutes the most comprehensive survey of Land art to date Provided by publisher Land Arts of the American West Chris Taylor, Bill Gilbert, 2009-04 A wide ranging exploration of human interactions with the land over thousands of years as well as a model for teaching art and design in the field Making Time William L. Fox, 2007 William L. Fox is a longtime explorer of cognition and landscape the notion of what makes a space into a place In this book he turns his gaze on Los Angeles a city dominated by the movie industry which specializes in bringing places from far away in time into what we experience as here and now making time in essence Time Fox tells us is the most invisible nature of all its effects are always and everywhere around us The five essays of this collection take us to the Le Brea Tar Pits and local oilfields the telescopes and telecommunication towers of Mt Wilson massive landfills the Forest Lawn Memorial and Griffith parks a Hollywood special effects firm and the Jet Propulsion Laboratory All of these facilities are devoted to manipulating time on our behalf be it how we represent prehistory attempt to maintain an identity after death or make movies on Mars A master of combining science history and his own experiences into a riveting read Fox will make you look at L A and any urban landscape in an entirely new way Annual Bibliography of Modern Art Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.). Library,2000 America, History and Life ,2001 Article abstracts and citations of reviews and dissertations covering the United States and Canada American Book Publishing Record ,1999 Los Carpinteros Paulo Herkenhoff,2010 This monograph presents a comprehensive survey of Los Carpinteros work since 2003 their most critically acclaimed period
