Ascetic Practices in Japanese Religion Tullio Federico Lobetti, 2013-09-11 Ascetic practices are a common feature of religion in Japan practiced by different religious traditions This book looks at these ascetic practices in an inter sectarian and inter doctrinal fashion in order to highlight the underlying themes common to all forms of asceticism It does so by employing a multidisciplinary methodology which integrates participant fieldwork the author himself engaged extensively in ascetic practices with a hermeneutical interpretation of the body as the primary locus of transmission of the ascetic embodied tradition By unlocking this bodily data the book unveils the human body as the main tool and text of ascetic practice This book includes discussion of the many extraordinary rituals practiced by Japanese ascetics

The Phenomenology and the Philosophy of Running Tapio Koski, 2015-03-16 This book describes and analyzes the levels of experience that long distance running produces It looks at the kinds of experiences caused by long distance running the dimensions contained in these experiences and their effects on the subjective life world and well being of an individual Taking a philosophical approach the analysis presented in this book is founded on Maurice Merleau Ponty's phenomenology of the body and Martin Heidegger's fundamental ontology Running is a versatile form of physical exercise which does not reveal all of its dimensions at once These dimensions escape the eye and are not revealed to the runner conceptually but rather as sensations and emotions Instead of concentrating on conceptual analysis this book explores the emotions and experiences and examines the meaning that running has in runners' lives Using the participative method in which the author is both the research subject and the researcher the book contributes to the philosophy of physical exercise
