Gandhi's Heroic March to Freedom Neal Bascomb,2024-09-03 The dramatic story of Gandhi and India s long march to freedom by award winning author Neal Bascomb In 1930 the Indian people long ruled by their British occupiers were at a breaking point No more could many stand the terrible demands of colonial rule At this pivotal moment Mohandas Gandhi who had suffered firsthand for decades the cruelty of his oppressors saw an opportunity to win his people s freedom And so Gandhi led a small band of his followers on a grueling march from his ashram in western India to the Arabian Sea After 24 days and 241 miles under a withering sun the marchers arrived on the Dandi seashore There Gandhi scooped up a handful of salt to protest the much hated British salt tax demonstrating to the world the injustice of Britain s yoke and setting the stage for a popular national uprising In the dramatic months that followed Gandhi led acts of nonviolent resistance against the British Raj across the country that would eventually culminate in a brutal crackdown But Gandhi and those who bravely stood with him faced arrest beatings and even bullets without ever raising a hand in retaliation These events inspired India to demand its liberty from Britain awakened the world to a movement that would forever change the course of history and inspired generations of freedom fighters all over the globe Award winning author Neal Bascomb chronicles what was arguably Gandhi s most notable campaign in his struggle for India s independence His focus on nonviolent protest and revolutionary action introduces young readers to a pivotal historical moment with timely implications for today s world Scholastic Focus is the premier home of thoroughly researched beautifully written and thoughtfully designed works of narrative nonfiction aimed at middle grade and young adult readers These books help readers learn about the world in which they live and develop their critical thinking skills so that they may become dynamic citizens who are able to analyze and understand our past participate in essential discussions about our present and work to grow and build our future
