Marcia Clark Voice For The Victims:

Marcia Clark, Voice for the Victims Katherine E. Krohn, 1996 Traces the life and career of Marcia Clark the Los Angeles prosecutor assigned to the O J Simpson trial and describes her other memorable cases The O.J. Simpson Murder Trial, 1996 Contemporary Authors Terrie M. Rooney, 1998 Your students and users will find biographical information on approximately 300 modern writers in this volume of Contemporary Authors Authors in this volume include Charles Frazier Joshua Henkin Gabrielle Reece Arthur Stringer Contemporary Authors Scot Peacock, 2002-04 In response to the escalating need for up to date information on writers Contemporary Authors New Revision Series brings researchers the most recent data on the world's most popular authors These exciting and unique author profiles are essential to your holdings because sketches are entirely revised and up to date and completely replace the original Contemporary Authors entries For your convenience a soft cover cumulative index is sent biannually While Gale strives to replicate print content some content may not be available due to rights restrictions Call your Sales Rep for details Rapport, 1995 Newsweek, 1995 When the State Kills Austin Sarat, 2018-06-05 Is capital punishment just Does it deter people from murder What is the risk that we will execute innocent people These are the usual questions at the heart of the increasingly heated debate about capital punishment in America In this bold and impassioned book Austin Sarat seeks to change the terms of that debate Capital punishment must be stopped Sarat argues because it undermines our democratic society Sarat unflinchingly exposes us to the realities of state killing He examines its foundations in ideas about revenge and retribution He takes us inside the courtroom of a capital trial interviews jurors and lawyers who make decisions about life and death and assesses the arguments swirling around Timothy McVeigh and his trial for the bombing in Oklahoma City Aided by a series of unsettling color photographs he traces Americans evolving quest for new methods of execution and explores the place of capital punishment in popular culture by examining such films as Dead Man Walking The Last Dance and The Green Mile Sarat argues that state executions once used by monarchs as symbolic displays of power gained acceptance among Americans as a sign of the people's sovereignty Yet today when the state kills it does so in a bureaucratic procedure hidden from view and for which no one in particular takes responsibility He uncovers the forces that sustain America's killing culture including overheated political rhetoric racial prejudice and the desire for a world without moral ambiguity Capital punishment Sarat shows ultimately leaves Americans more divided hostile indifferent to life's complexities and much further from solving the nation's ills In short it leaves us with an impoverished democracy The book's powerful and sobering conclusions point to a new abolitionist politics in which capital punishment should be banned not only on ethical grounds but also for what it does to Americans and what we cherish O. J. Simpson Murder Case Todd Kortemeier, 2019-12-15 The O J Simpson Murder Case explores all sides of these unsolved murders and the famous man suspected of committing them It discusses police investigations conspiracy theories the history behind how a beloved ex football star became a murder

Law's Stories Peter Brooks, Paul Gewirtz, 1996-01-01 The law is full of stories ranging from the competing narratives presented at trials to the Olympian historical narratives set forth in Supreme Court opinions How those stories are told and listened to makes a crucial difference to those whose lives are reworked in legal storytelling The public at large has increasingly been drawn to law as an area where vivid human stories are played out with distinctively high stakes And scholars in several fields have recently come to recognize that law's stories need to be studied critically This notable volume inspired by a symposium held at Yale Law School brings together an exceptional group of well known figures in law and literary studies to take a probing look at how and why stories are told in the law and how they are constructed and made effective Why is it that some stories confessions victim impact statements can be excluded from decisionmakers hearing How do judges claim the authority by which they impose certain stories on reality Law's Stories opens new perspectives on the law as narrative exchange performance explanation It provides a compelling encounter of law and literature seen as two wary but necessary interlocutors Contributors J M Balkin Peter Brooks Harlon L Dalton Alan M Dershowitz Daniel A Farber Robert A Ferguson Paul Gewirtz John Hollander Anthony Kronman Pierre N Leval Sanford Levinson Catharine MacKinnon Janet Malcolm Martha Minow David N Rosen Elaine Scarry Louis Michael Seidman Suzanna Sherry Reva B Siegel Robert Weisberg
