Phantom Formations Marc Redfield, 2018-03-15 No detailed description available for Phantom Formations Body Politics in Contemporary Irish Women's Fiction Ellen Scheible, 2024-12-12 Exploring twentieth and twenty first century texts that wrestle with the Irish domestic interior as a sexualized and commodified space this book provides readings of the power and authority of the feminized body in Ireland Scheible dissects the ways that the woman as symbol remains consistent in Irish literary representations of national experience in Irish fiction and shows how this problematizes the role of women in Ireland by underscoring the oppression of sexuality and gender that characterized Irish culture during the twentieth century Examining works by Elizabeth Bowen Pamela Hinkson Emma Donoghue Tana French Sally Rooney and James Joyce this book demonstrates that the definition of Irish nationhood in our contemporary experience of capitalism and biopolitics is dependent on the intertwining and paradoxical tropes of a traditional yet equally sexual feminine identity which has been quelled by violence and reproduction Configurations of the Real in Chinese Literary and Aesthetic Modernity Peter Button, 2009 Tracing the formation of the modern concept of literature in 20th century China this book examines the emergence of the Chinese socialist realist novel in relation to the literary and philosophical currents globalized in the wake of capitalist modernity Provided by publisher Theoretical Perspectives on Human Rights and Literature Elizabeth Swanson Goldberg, Alexandra Schultheis Moore, 2013-03-01 What can literary theory reveal about discourses and practices of human rights and how can human rights frameworks help to make sense of literature How have human rights concerns shaped the literary marketplace and how can literature impact human rights concerns Essays in this volume theorize how both literature and reading literarily can shape understanding of human rights in productive ways Contributors to Theoretical Perspectives on Human Rights and Literature provide a shared history of modern literature and rights theorize how trauma ethics subjectivity and witnessing shape representations of human rights violations and claims in literary texts across a range of genres including poetry the novel graphic narrative short story testimonial and religious fables and consider a range of civil political social economic and cultural rights and their representations The authors reflect on the imperial and colonial histories of human rights as well as the cynical mobilization of human rights discourses in the name of war violence and repression at the same time they take seriously Gayatri Spivak's exhortation that human rights is something that we cannot not want exploring the central function of storytelling at the heart of all human rights claims discourses and policies The Politics of Aesthetics Marc Redfield, 2003 This book suggests that modern cultural and critical institutions have persistently associated questions of aesthetics and politics with literature theory technics and Romanticism Its first section examines aesthetic nationalism and the figure of the body focusing on writings by Benedict Anderson J G Fichte and Matthew Arnold and arguing that uneasy acts of aestheticization of media technology and abjection of the maternal body undergird the production of the national body as imagined community Subsequent chapters on Paul de Man Friedrich Schlegel and

Percy Shelley explore the career of the gendered body in the aesthetic tradition and the relationship among aesthetics technics politics and figurative language The author accounts for the hysteria that has characterized media representations of theory explains why and how Romanticism has remained a locus of extravagant political hopes and anxieties and in a sequence of close readings uncovers the anaesthetic condition of possibility of the politics of aesthetics Rereading Romanticism ,2021-11-15 The Cambridge Companion to George Eliot George Levine,2001-05-10 This volume of essays is comprehensively scholarly and lucidly written and at the same time offers original insights into the work of one of the most important Victorian novelists and into her complex and often scandalous career Critical Keywords in Literary and Cultural Theory Julian Wolfreys,2017-03-14 This book is an invaluable reference guide for students of literary and cultural studies which introduces over forty of the complex terms motifs and concepts in literary and cultural theory today Critical Keywords in Literary and Cultural Theory Gives students a brief introduction to each concept together with short quotations from the work of key thinkers and critics to stimulate discussion and guide genuine comprehension Supplies helpful glosses and annotations for each term concept or keyword which is discussed Offers reflective practical questions at the end of each entry to direct the student to consider a particular aspect of the quotations and the concept they address Provides explanatory notes and bibliographies to aid further research This essential volume is ideal as both a dip in reference book and a guide to literary theory for practical classroom use A Modern Coleridge A. Timár,2015-06-24 A Modern Coleridge shows the interrelatedness of the discourses of cultivation addiction and habit in Coleridge s poetry and prose and argues that these all revolve around the problematic nexus of a post Kantian idea of free will essential to Coleridge s eminently modern idea of the human Freedom Inc.: Gendered Capitalism in New Indian Literature and Culture Mukti Lakhi Mangharam,2023-06-15 While globalization is often credited with the eradication of traditional constraints tied to gender and caste in reality the opening up of the Indian economy in the 1990s has led to a decline in freedom for many female Dalit and lower class Indians This book explores the contraction of what it means to be free in post liberalization India examining how global capitalism has exacerbated existing inequalities based on traditional femininities and masculinities while also creating new hierarchies Freedom Inc argues that post 1990s literature and culture frequently represents and reinforces the equation of free market capitalism with individual freedom within the new idea of India However many texts often also challenge this logic by pointing to more expansive horizons of autonomy for the gendered self Through readings of texts as diverse as Dalit women s life writing pop fiction realist novels self help regional film and Netflix TV shows Mangharam investigates how notions like free trade entrepreneurship and self help are experienced embodied and challenged by disadvantaged peoples and by women differently than men In the process Freedom Inc explores how different literary forms illuminate alternative and buried pathways to fuller freedoms Art History Versus Aesthetics James Elkins,2012-11-12 In this unprecedented collection over twenty of the world s most prominent thinkers on the subject including Arthur Danto Stephen Melville Wendy

Steiner Alexander Nehamas and Jay Bernstein ponder the disconnect between these two disciplines The volume has a radically innovative structure it begins with introductions and centres on an animated conversation among ten historians and aestheticians That conversation was then sent to twenty scholars for commentary and their responses are very diverse some are informal letters and others full essays with footnotes Some think they have the answer in hand and others raise yet more questions The volume ends with two synoptic essays one by a prominent aesthetician and the other by a literary critic This stimulating inaugural volume in the Routledge The Art Seminar series presents not one but many answers to the question Does philosophy have anything to say to art history Philosophy of Care Joaquim Braga,Mário Santiago de Carvalho,2021-12-09 In this book authors from a wide interdisciplinary spectrum discuss the issue of care The book covers both philosophical and therapeutic studies and contains a three pronged approach to discussing the concepts of care vulnerability otherness and therapy Above all it is a matter of combining in a plural form a path with multiple theoretical and conceptual bifurcations but which always point to an observation of society from the perspective of human vulnerability

Activism and the Literary Self in 20th and 21st-Century Literature Jeffrey F. Keuss,2024-12-26 Exploring how Shusaku Endo Ta Nehisi Coates Thomas Merton Marilynne Robinson Cormac McCarthy and Octavia E Butler engage with social justice and activism this book explores the significant role that literature plays in the formation of justice Jeff Keuss foregrounds literature and the role of poetics as both a method and a frame by which justice can not only be understood but uniquely positioned to transform and redeem the moral call on individuals in ways that some recent philosophical and ethical projects do not He examines how these authors are representative of a theme in literature which is the turn to justice as a literary form and discusses how these authors engagement with activism challenges isolated and anxious models of contemporary selfhood Demonstrating how these writers utilize fiction across different contexts of race gender culture and theological denominations to present themes of justice in communion with others Keuss provides new insights into communal selfhood and shows how we can use this idea to shape our ideas of ethics morality activism and justice Goethe Yearbook 11 Simon J. Romanticism and Aesthetic Life in Postcolonial Writing Philip Dickinson, 2018-02-08 This book explores Romanticism as a force that exerts an insistent but critically neglected pressure on the postcolonial imagination From the decolonizing poetics of the Caribbean to the white writing of South Africa from the aesthetics of post imperial disappointment to postcolonial theory itself it develops an account of the textual and philosophical interpenetration of postcolonial aesthetics with Romantic ideas about sense history and world What emerges is a reading of Romantic postcolonial co involvement that moves beyond well worn models of intercanonical antagonism and the historicizing biases of conventional literary history Caught somewhere between the effects of reanimation and estrangement Romanticism appears here not as a stable textual repository prior to the postcolonial but as echo spectre self interruption or vital force that can yet only emerge in the guise of the afterlife its agency mediated but never exhausted by postcolonial writing

Imagined Sovereignties Kir Kuiken, 2014-05-01 Imagined Sovereignties argues that the Romantics reconceived not just the nature of aesthetic imagination but also the conditions in which a specific form of political sovereignty could be realized through it Articulating the link between the poetic imagination and secularized sovereignty requires more than simply replacing God with the subjective imagination and thereby ratifying the bourgeois liberal subject Through close readings of Blake Coleridge Wordsworth and Shelley the author elucidates how Romanticism's reassertion of poetic power in place of the divine sovereign articulates an alternative understanding of secularization in forms of sovereignty that are no longer modeled on transcendence divine or human These readings ask us to reexamine not only the political significance of Romanticism but also its place within the development of modern politics Certain aspects of Romanticism still provide an important resource for rethinking the limits of the political in our own time This book will be a crucial source for those interested in the political legacy of Romanticism as well as for anyone concerned with critical theoretical approaches to politics in the present

Cytherica Josef Chytrý, 2005 Cytherica boldly introduces a new faculty of thought called cytherics to contemporary academic discursivities It defines cytherics as the sighting and siting of an aesthetic erotic or aphrodisian environment Building on the furthest extensions of aesthetics since the eighteenth century cytherics develops both the aesthetic political and aesthetic erotic dimensions of the aesthetic tradition to formulate exciting new responses to the pressing issues of contemporary societies While drawing richly on the background of German and European Hellenism this book provides valuable new insights for those working in the areas of the aesthetic political critical theory postmodernist discursivities and dialectical speculation

Memory in German Romanticism Christopher R. Clason, Joseph D. Rockelmann, Christina M. Weiler, 2023-03-31 Memory in German Romanticism treats memory as a core element in the production and reception of German art and literature of the Romantic era The contributors explore the artistic expression of memory under the categories of imagination image and reception Romantic literary aesthetics raises the subjective imagination to a level of primary importance for the creation of art It goes beyond challenging reason and objectivity two leading intellectual faculties of eighteenth century Enlightenment and instead elevates subjective invention to form and sustain memory and imagination Indeed memory and imagination both cognitive functions seek to assemble the elements of one's own experience either directed toward the past memory or toward the future imagination coherently into a narrative And like memories images hold the potential to elicit charged emotional responses those responses live on through time becoming part of the spatial and temporal reception of the artist and their work While imagination generates and images trigger and capture memories reception creates a temporal spatial context for art organizing it and rendering it memorable both for good and for bad Thus through the categories of imagination image and reception this volume explores the phenomenon of German Romantic memory from different perspectives and in new contexts
