

The Sacrament of Marriage

To explain why marriage is sacred

To give evidence why marriage is sacred (biblical teachings)

To reflect on the kind of love married couples show each other

1. Why is marriage sacred? Cross out the false reasons.
 2. What is a "sacrament"? Which reasons help to explain it.
- Do any of these reasons apply to a legal definition of marriage? Why/ why not?

Marriage is sacred (holy) because..

1. The bride wears white
2. God commanded humans to come together in marriage, to make new life
3. It reflects the love of God: a love that supports and comforts
4. Not everyone can get married
5. The priest marries the couple
6. The Holy Spirit is given to the couple in the Sacrament of Marriage to help them grow in mutual love. The Sacrament ceremony is a visible sign of this happening.
7. The Bible teaches that God designed man and woman to become "one flesh" in marriage, so it is a vocation, that reflects the will of the Creator (Genesis)

Preparing For The Sacrament Of Marriage:

Catholic Theology of Marriage in the Era of HIV and AIDS Emily Reimer-Barry, 2015-04-09 Marriage for Life begins by listening to the lived experiences of Catholic married HIV positive women in order to better understand their struggles. The eight women interviewed in Chicago, Illinois, USA, shared their stories of marriage, family life, church involvement, and of living with HIV. Their candid reflections offer a fresh and grounded perspective on the challenges of living with HIV in a US context. After listening to and learning from these women's experiences, Reimer Barry constructs a theology of Christian marriage that is life giving in a world with AIDS. While Catholic teachings have developed and now affirm the equal dignity of women and men, troubling legacies of women's subordination remain embedded in liturgical practices and theological texts. Arguing that self care is an indispensable component of a healthy marriage, Reimer Barry constructs a life affirming theology of marriage that is sensitive to the struggles of her collaborators. She argues that marriage for life must promote the full flourishing of both partners, respect wives as equal partners with their husbands, and offer a coherent and empowering sexual ethic. Building on the wisdom of her collaborators' lived experiences, Reimer Barry examines the need for a more adequate Catholic response to HIV and AIDS, arguing that church communities should promote comprehensive sexual education, affirm both abstinence and condom use for HIV prevention, and actively work to reduce stigmatizing behaviors within church communities. She also unpacks the implications of marriage for life for Catholic liturgical practice, marriage preparation programs, sexual education programs, and family ministries. Modeling her method on what Pope Francis calls the art of accompaniment, Reimer Barry argues that Catholic theology of marriage must be renewed and updated so that all can plainly understand that marriage is for life.

Love Waiting to Give Itself: Catholic for a Reason IV Richard White, Mei-Ling White, 2007-06-01 Drawing on their experience helping couples prepare for marriage, Richard and Mei Ling White offer this meditation on marriage preparation in the Bible and what we can learn from the examples of Sarah and Tobias, Jacob and Rachel, and many others. In a world where nearly all professions take years of training before being able to practice in one's chosen field, what is arguably the most important profession, i.e., marriage, is too often entered into with little to no training or preparation. They discuss the importance of the time before marriage to learn and practice self-giving love so that when a marriage begins, the couple has an understanding of what it means to give themselves fully to each other.
