Henry Memorial Award Prize Stories Blanche Colton Williams, Harry Hansen, Herschel Brickell, 1927 O. Henry Memorial Award Prize Stories of 1921 Blanche Colton Williams, 1922 O. Henry Memorial Award Prize Stories, 1921 A Daring Life Carolyn J. Brown, 2012-07-18 Mississippi author Eudora Welty the first living writer to be published in the Library of America series mentored many of today's greatest fiction writers and is a fascinating woman having lived the majority of the twentieth century 1909-2001 Her life reflects a century of change and is closely entwined with many events that mark our recent history This biography follows this twentieth century path while telling Welty's story beginning with her parents and their important influence on her reading and writing life The chapters that follow focus on her education and her most important teachers her life during the Depression and how her career just getting started is interrupted by World War II and how she shows independence and courage through her writing during the turbulent civil rights period of the 1950s and 1960s After years of caregiving and the deaths of all her immediate family members Welty persevered and won the Pulitzer Prize in 1973 for The Optimist's Daughter Her popularity soared in the 1980s after she delivered the three William E. Massey Lectures to standing room only crowds at Harvard and the lectures were later published as One Writer's Beginnings and became a New York Times bestseller This biography intends to introduce readers to one of the most significant women writers of the past century a prolific author who transcends her Mississippi roots and has written short stories novels and nonfiction that will endure for all time O. Henry Prize Stories 2008 Laura Furman, 2008-11-19 An annual collection of the twenty best contemporary short stories selected by series editor Laura Furman from hundreds of literary magazines The O. Henry Prize Stories 2008 is studded with extraordinary settings and characters a teenager in survivalist Alaska the seed keeper of a doomed Chinese village a young woman trying to save her life in a Ukrainian internet caf Also included are the winning writers' comments on what inspired them a short essay from each of the three eminent jurors and an extensive resource list of literary magazines From the Trade Paperback edition AB Bookman's Weekly, 1985 The 100 Most Popular Young Adult Authors Bernard A. Drew, 1997-10-15 The book focuses on individuals writing in the 90s but also includes 12 classic authors e.g. Mark Twain Louisa May Alcott J.R.R. Tolkien who are still widely read by teens It also covers some authors known primarily for adult literature e.g. Stephen King and some who write mainly for middle readers but are also popular among young adults e.g. Betsy Byars An affordable alternative to multivolume publications this book makes a great collection development tool and resource for author studies It will also help readers find other books by and about their favorite writers Eric Walrond James Davis, 2015-02-24 Eric Walrond 1898-1966 was a writer journalist caustic critic and fixture of 1920s Harlem His short story collection Tropic Death was one of the first efforts by a black author to depict Caribbean lives and voices in American fiction Restoring Walrond to his proper place

as a luminary of the Harlem Renaissance this biography situates Tropic Death within the author's broader corpus and positions the work as a catalyst and driving force behind the New Negro literary movement in America. James Davis follows Walrond from the West Indies to Panama, New York, France, and finally England. He recounts his relationships with New Negro authors such as Countee Cullen, Charles S. Johnson, Zora Neale Hurston, Alain Locke, and Gwendolyn Bennett, as well as the white novelist Carl Van Vechten. He also recovers Walrond's involvement with Marcus Garvey's journal Negro World and the National Urban League journal Opportunity and examines the writer's work for mainstream venues including Vanity Fair. In 1929, Walrond severed ties with Harlem, but he did not disappear. He contributed to the burgeoning anticolonial movement and print culture centered in England and fueled by C. L. R. James, George Padmore, and other Caribbean expatriates. His history of Panama, shelved by his publisher during the Great Depression, was the first to be written by a West Indian author. Unearthing documents in England, Panama, and the United States and incorporating interviews, criticism of Walrond's fiction and journalism, and a sophisticated account of transnational black cultural formations, Davis builds an eloquent and absorbing narrative of an overlooked figure and his creation of modern American and world literature.

A Companion to Hemingway's Death in the Afternoon Miriam B. Mandel, 2009. New, carefully focused essays providing a thorough examination of Hemingway's groundbreaking non-fictional work. Published in 1932, Death in the Afternoon reveals its author at the height of his intellectual and stylistic powers. By that time, Hemingway had already won critical and popular acclaim for his short stories and novels of the late twenties. A mature and self-confident artist, he now risked his career by switching from fiction to nonfiction, from American characters to Spanish bullfighters, from exotic and romantic settings to the tough world of the Spanish bullring, a world that might seem frightening and even repellant to those who do not understand it. Hemingway's nonfiction has been denied the attention that his novels and short stories have enjoyed. A state of affairs this Companion seeks to remedy, breaking new ground by applying theoretical and critical approaches to a work of nonfiction. It does so in original essays that offer a thorough, balanced examination of a complex, boundary-breaking and hitherto neglected text. The volume is broken into sections dealing with the composition, reception, and sources of Death in the Afternoon, cultural translation, cultural criticism, semiotics, and paratextual matters, and the issues of art, authorship, audience, and the literary legacy of Death in the Afternoon. The contributors to the volume, four men and seven women, lay to rest the stereotype of Hemingway as a macho writer whom women do not read, and their nationalities—British, Spanish, American, and Israeli—indicate that Death in the Afternoon, even as it focuses on a particular national art, discusses matters of universal concern. Contributors: Miriam B. Mandel, Robert W. Trogdon, Lisa Tyler, Linda Wagner-Martin, Peter Messent, Beatriz Penas, Ib ez Anthony Brand, Nancy Bredendick, Hilary Justice, Amy Vondrak, and Kenneth Kinnamon. Miriam B. Mandel teaches in the English Department of Tel Aviv University.
